Foreword

The staff, in presenting this book, wishes to record the events of the school years 1943-44.

Lebanon High School

The graduating class of 1944 bids farewell to the school that holds so many happy memories for them.

Lebanon High School is noted for many factors, the most important among them being, scholastic achievements, historic features and beautiful campus.

The campus is one of the few natural campuses in the state and is considered the most beautiful.

The historic features of the school are numerous. The bell that was shipped around Cape Horn was first used in the historic Santiam Academy and is now rung when Lebanon is victorious in an athletic contest. The "Class Rock" that stands on the southeast corner of the campus, designates that area is being part of the Old Oregon Trail. One of the few Cedar of Lebanon trees in existence stands in the southeast portion of the school grounds.

Dedication

In honor and appreciation to those of our alumni and former schoolmates now in the armed forces, we sincerely dedicate this Annual.

Class History

After four years of joys, struggles, and friendships never to be forgotten, the seniors of the class of '44 begin to feel a "tugging of the heart strings" toward the old times and a longing for an opportunity to wear the green just once more. But the class of '44 realizes only too well that the memories of the past four years must end.

Throughout the four years the class has been in school, many of its members have made definite outstanding contributions in the many activities.

On the Lebanon Campus, in the fall of 1940, one hundred ten green freshmen appeared. During the first few weeks of school the freshmen's time was very much occupied by getting acquainted and adapting themselves to high school life.

The so-called "greenhorns" were duly initiated by the upperclassmen about the second month of school. The boys were compelled to dress as girls and the girls as boys, at an assembly conducted by the upperclassmen.

Like the freshmen classes in the past, no year was complete without a party in the fall and a picnic to end their first year.

In the fall of '41 our greenhorns came back as sophisticated sophomores. Members of the sophomore class took part in athletics, band, Hi-Y, Glee, Girl's League, and many other activities of the school.

During the middle of the year they went to Albany on a skating party, which was later followed by other classes.

The junior class of '42, although hampered by war time difficulties, came through with its share in the fields of music and athletics. One of its members, Clinton Pearson, was selected as the left tackle in the Tri-County League All Star football eleven.

They were very active in various school clubs with many members participating in the band, Hi-Y, Drama Club, and others. Moreover, nearly every junior was a member of the newly introduced Victory Corps and did their share in the bond and stamp campaigns.

The main event, being the junior-senior prom, displayed the theme of Arabian Nights. Louise I and her court of four princesses reigned over the evening's affairs.

On September 21, 1943, the seniors took up their books and entered the halls of Lebanon High School for their last but most successful year.

One of the successes of the year was the Senior play presented on Thursday afternoon and Friday evening, December 16 and 17. It was directed by Miss Ender.

The senior dance on February 4, was a combination of dancing and party games. The class was gifted with a nickelodeon which was used for the first time that evening.

On March 24, all personalities showed themselves, when the majority of seniors took part in a dress-up day. April 21 will see the seniors in Salem on a Friday night skating party.

Baccalaureate will be on May 21, followed by commencement on May 24.

That half-glad, half-sad feeling descends upon the seniors when they realize there won't be another year for them at L. H. S.

Class Prophecy

On May Day of the year, 1964, was held the reunion banquet of the graduating class of '44.

Lucille Christ had charge of the lighting arrangements as she knows so much about "effects" after entertaining in a cabaret in Paris for the last few years. Bob Cate brought the daffodils from his "Peoria Pretty Posie Plantation." He also raises onions. Marie Beale, the "Mocking Bird" of the airways, was the vocalist of the evening. She sang the Operatic score, YOU ARE MY SUNSHINE. Kyle Calahan was the toastmaster of the evening. You all remember Kyle—that loud, boisterous, and exceptionally good speaker in fourth period Social Ec.

Betty Brown and Bonnie Bates brought their "BB" & "BB" flea circus. My! How well those little fellows were trained. It's all in knowing how to handle them. Then, with a fanfare of trumpets, Ralph Cooper, now Head Attendent in the Lebanon Feeble-Minded Home, wheeled in those relics of class room days—Miss Brown and Miss Ender, HONOR GUESTS for the evening.

As Hallie Ashton entered, the question flashed through everyone's mind! - - - Will Jim Woodruffe propose tonight, after all of these years???? Hallie has five hope chests filled and still has hopes. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Erickson (the former Lorene Larson) entered swaying a bit! Later, we found out why! Professor Bob is chief chemist at the Jolting Gin Works, now owned and operated by Miss Viola Dunckley.

The Warrior staff was elected by the officers of the Senior class.

Due to the war and shortage of materials, this book has been reduced from what it ordinarily would have been in size and scope.

Articles in this book concerning classes, clubs, and other activities were written by individuals chosen by the staff.

Miss Brown and Miss Ender were selected as advisers for the Warrior.

They were well represented in football, basketball, and baseball, by placing many men on the teams. Many of the boys won letters.

Betty Irvine, Treasurer, Betty Southwick, Secretary, and Cedric Wallace, Class Representative, represented them on the student council.

Betty Irvine, Caroll Penfold, Bill Peden, and Janet Durst were appointed by Miss Schlitz and Mr. Bryan to go to Salem to represent the school at a citizenship conference.

Splendid co-operation was shown by the whole class in organizing and carrying out the plans for the Prom. Janet Durst was Prom Chairman.

Sophomore boys also won the championship title in Intermural Basketball. Sophomores also rank high scholastically.

The class has not engaged in many purely social activities. They have, however, put in a great deal of time in useful activities. The class party was held in April.

Due to wartime conditions, few social activities have been held by the Freshman class. But this did not stop the Freshmen from making themselves known. They were active in sports and music. Ron Cox was the outstanding athlete of the class in both basketball and football.

A great deal can be expected from this class in the next three years.

Lebanon High School Band

The band has been active in many ways this year. On December 7 there was a special assembly commemorating Pearl Harbor at which the band played many patriotic tunes. They played at May Day, graduation, and the football and basketball games. They made us all proud of them at the March concert.

Mr. Bates left for the Army in November and the band is under the direction of Miss Julia Barnum at present time. Mr. Bates is missed by all but Miss Barnum is to be congratulated on her success in directing the band.

Three of the band members are in this year's graduating class. They are Betty Stryker, saxophone; Grace Laidlaw, clarinet; and Betty Brown, French horn.

The officers of the band this year are Gene Durlam, president; Rodney Cox, vice-president; Joan Voegelein, secretary-treasurer, and librarian; and Norman Weekly, student director and manager. Gene Durlam left for the Navy this year, so Rodney took over the post as president. We all miss Gene for he has been with us for four years and was one of our best cornet players.

The students enjoyed the playing of the Dance Band immensely. It played for all our student dances until we acquired a nickelodeon and we hope that they will play for us again next year. Members of the Dance Band are Norman Weekly, Beverly Keebler, and Kenneth Shores, saxophones; Rodney Cox, Duane Pierce, and Paul McCracken, cornets; Dick Hewitt, piano; Arden Keebler, bass fiddle; and Richard Hobbs, trombone.

We had an excellent cornet quartet and trio this year. The players in the quartet are Rod Cox, Duane Pierce, Paul McCracken, and Charles Gram. The trio is comprised of Rod Cox, Duane Pierce, and Paul McCracken.

Rodney is a junior and has played in the band for three years. This is his third year with the quartet also. We hope to have him with us again next year.

Duane and Paul are sophomores and have played in the band for three years and the quartet for two years.

Charles is a freshman and has played in the band for two years and the quartet one year.

These two groups have given several performances in and out of school. They are asked to perform at many places and are liked very much.

The clarinet quartet is composed of Betty Irvine, Janet Whelan, Betty Burelson, and Gloria Larson. These girls are all juniors and we hope that we have them again next year.

The horn quartet is composed of Betty Brown, Dorothy Brown, Quindella Taylor, and Leo Berg.

Betty is a senior and has played in the band for four years and in the quartet for three years.

Quindella and Leo are juniors. Quindella has been with the band for two years and Leo has been with it for one year. They have both played in the quartet for one year.

Dorothy is a Freshman and has played in the band for three years and the quartet two years.

We are really glad that there are not any more seniors leaving the band and hope that it will be as nice next year as it has been for the past years.

The combined glee clubs have been fairly active this year considering they have had three different teachers. One concert and an Easter program have been successfully given. Several small vocal groups also took part.

Trio: Pearl Tabor, Joan Voegelein, Nancy Gleason.

Sextette: Marie Beale, Pearl Tabor, Ruth Bazant, Lorraine Baker, Delores Rhola, Helen Crockett.

Hi-Y

The school year just past saw the Lebanon Hi-Y Club enjoy one of its most successful years since the founding of the organization three years ago. Riding on the crest of a treasury fund which was well over the $100 figure, the boys felt free to carry on many projects that were of benefit both to the club and the school.

Perhaps the outstanding project for this year was the carrying out of an idea to establish school dances on a more successful basis through the medium of better music. In attaining this end, the boys originated the idea of purchasing a nickelodeon to be used for such purposes and in further carrying out this idea, the club made a $100 contribution for the purchasing of the music box. Assisted by the school board and the Senior class, this project was completed and Lebanon High School now has a fine juke box pouring forth provoking rhythms for all the students to enjoy.

Some of the other projects carried out by the club, included an all-school dance which was a huge success, participation in Easter Sunrise Services, sending of delegates to a regional conference at the Swan Island Shipyard in Portland, the winning of a basketball tournament held between neighboring clubs at Albany, and general service offered the school during the year.

The membership of the club numbered 24 this year, which was the largest the group has been since its organization.

Officers were Jim Schindler, President; Cedric Wallace, Vice-President; Bob Olds, Secretary; Dale Plagmann, Treasurer, Jess Ingram, Chaplain; Lawrence Page, Adviser.

Members of the Hi-Y Club other than those named above are as follows: Mel Solberg, Ralph Cooper, Gene Durlam, Laddie Pesek, Bob Cate, Bill Peden, Bud Daily, Ross McCormick, Don Davidson, Duane Netland, Erwin Wilkinson, Dave Powell, Dick Hewett, Dick Clarke, Larry Christian, Denny Marvin, Norman Weekly, Kenneth Shores, Lynn Hamilton.

A new feature was added to the Girls' League this year, and was enthusiastically accepted. The council selected a theme each month, such as "leadership," and then a list of girls best representing this theme was given to the class representatives by the class advisers, and these girls were voted upon by the council. Because the meetings were held every two months this year, two girls from each class were selected each time as the "Girls of the Month."

The "Girls of the Month" for the year were as follows:

"Friendliness"—Seniors: Ramona Stringer, Lucinda Christ; Juniors: Ruth Ford, Beverly Keebler; Sophomores: Vera Gaines, Mary Almen; Freshmen: Katie Durham, Fayne Blackburn.

"Leadership"—Seniors: Louise Kruml, Libby Spiruta; Juniors: Gladys Payne, Carroll Penfold; Sophomores: Helen Smyth, Clarnell Bryant; Freshmen: Melba Cox, Ethel Notziger.

One of the girls listed above will be selected as "The Girl of the Year."

Each of the big bi-monthly meetings was conducted by a class. The Seniors who had the first one of the year used a forum for discussion on "American Girls at War." The Juniors had their meeting at Christmas time, and they conducted the tuberculosis collection, the proceeds of which were divided between a general fund in the form of a $10.00 Bond and a gift to a former Lebanon High School student. The Sophomores' meeting in February was devoted to the Mother-Daughter Tea. The final meeting of the year will be given by the Freshmen. "Farewell to the Seniors," will be their motive.

The major project of the year has been to give dancing lessons. The increased attendance of the ladies at the noon hour dances has been proof that these lessons were successful. This dancing program is to be climaxed by a "Reversia" dance, in which the dancing teachers are to invite boys and act as their escorts. Special dances given by the Girls' League were the March of Dimes dance and the Nickelodeon Benefit dance.

The Girls' League was one of the most active school organizations this year.

Hi-Light

The Lebanon Hi-Light enjoyed a successful year under the able leadership of Pat Reeves and Leo Berg as First Term Editors and Larry Christian as Editor for the Spring Term. Ten issues were published. Assisting on the Hi-Light Staff were Betty Southwick, Peggy Raines, Helen Miles, Grace Whities, Joan Voegelein, Bob Johnson, Paul McCracken, Ross McCormick, Raymond Ayers, Janet Whelan, Wanda Lee Nichols, Duane Pierce and Rodney Cox.

Fire Squad

The Fire Squad has had a successful year in their drills. There was no trouble getting the students out of the building except for one thing and that was that the students did not get away from the building once they got out.

The record time for clearing the building was one minute.

C. A. P.

The newest organization in school is the Civil Air Patrol Cadet Corps. It is an auxiliary of the United States Army Air Corps. The purpose of the C. A. P. is to aid not only in actual emergency, but to educate boys and girls of high school age in things concerning military service and aviation. The students may go on active service in the Army Air Corps with full Army pay after reaching the age of sixteen.

At Lebanon High School there are two groups. Group One meets from 3 to 5 on Tuesdays and Thursdays. Group Two meets from 7 to 9 on Tuesdays and Thursdays. Mr. Evert Brenner is the Commanding Officer in charge of both groups.

The officers for Group One are: Commander, Jim Woodroffe; Training Sergeant, Kay Reike; Intelligence Sergeant, Ralph Schrouder; Communications Sergeant, Peggy Rains; Supply Sergeant, Warren Lanning; Adjutant, Carryl Smyth; Flight Leader, Bill Winstead; Assistant Flight Leader, Helen Smyth; Section Leader, Bryce Bartruff; Assistant Section Leader, Marceline Bonge; Sergeant-at-Arms, John Ball; Mascot, Gerald Sagert.

Pep Class

The Pep Club was organized this year under the supervision of the adviser, Miss Howard. The purpose of the club is; to provide more pep at the games, help plan the pep assemblies, choose the yell leaders and try new yells. Several members sold pop-corn and apples at the football games.

The officers this year were: President, Ruth Ford; Vice-President, Virginia Bowen; Secretary-Treasurer, Lois Gilbert; Student Council Representative, Carryl Smyth.

The yell leaders were: Captain, Louise Kruml, Betty Irvine, Jean Beach, Helen Smyth and Curtis Coe. Ruth Schneider substituted.

Lettermen's Club

The Lettermen's Club of Lebanon High School is composed of letter winners in all sports including managers. The purpose of the club is to make rules and regulations concerning the actions of its members and to help in any way to further the betterment of the school.

Initiation of new members was held in January and at that time all new football lettermen were taken into the club. A hilarious evening of entertainment was held and the initiates truly felt themselves fully initiated when the night ended.

In an effort to curb rough house tactics in the halls, the Lettermen's Club conducted a campaign at mid year to halt such actions and after a few weeks effort, they felt that conditions were much better and the student body as a whole recognized the fact that the Lettermen were serious about this work. It is hoped that in future years the Lettermen can band together in an organization that will be recognized as one of the leading groups in the school.

Officers for the year were as follows: Jess Ingram, President; Cedric Wallace, Vice-President; Lynn Hamilton, Secretary-Treasurer; Bud Page, Adviser.

Football

A total of 45 football aspirants greeted Coach Bud Page on the opening day of the 1943 season, but of this group only 6 were lettermen while the rest of the squad was made up of boys with little or no football experience at all. The returning lettermen were Don Davidson at tackle, Bob Crandall at center, Ralph Cooper at end, Lynn Hamilton at tackle, Jess Ingram at halfback and Erwin Wilkinson at fullback. Of this sextet, only Davidson was a starter from the championship team of the year before.

This green but hard working squad of footballers carried the colors of Lebanon through a season of 7 games on consecutive weekends and came out of the campaign with a record of 2 victories and 5 defeats. These figures do not tell the true story, however, as the Lebanon Warriors played a thrilling and never-say-die brand of ball all season and gave the record breaking number of spectators at Newport Field many an exciting moment in the four home games played this year. The boys are all to be commended on their fine spirit and team play and each boy, whether he be a first-stringer or a substitute on the bench, is deserving of high praise because of his excellent work despite the handicap of little experience.

Lebanon opened the season with a well earned victory over Toledo 21 to 15 but the next weekend the Warriors journeyed to Portland to take on the strong and unbeaten Rams of Central Catholic and the Lebanon boys were soundly trounced 53 to 0. Not only were the local boys humiliated in score by the strong Portland team but a number of the boys were injured so severely that the team was never at its top strength for the rest of the season. The next weekend an injury riddled but strong-hearted group of Warriors tangled with the Sweet Home Huskies on the local field and managed to eke out a 7 to 0 victory over the favored neighboring team.

Dallas high school found Lebanon in a decided slump the next weekend and proceeded to spank the boys from the Strawberry City by a 26 to 8 score. In an effort to find a lineup that would click, Coach Bud Page shook up his starting lineup in the week that followed the Dallas game in preparation for the game with the Tigers of Junction City. Lebanon played outstanding ball for three quarters, but weakened in the last quarter and allowed Junction City to push over two touchdowns and win 14 to 6.

The annual battle with the Bulldogs from Albany was next on the Lebanon schedule and this classic was played before a record crowd at Newport Field. After a scoreless first half in which the Warriors more than held their own with the heavy visiting team, the Bulldogs came back in the last half and by use of sheer weight and power wore the lighter Lebanon team down and pushed across two touchdowns to win by a score of 12 to 0. The last game on the schedule was with the strong University High School team from Eugene who emerged victorious 32 to 7. The Warriors gave the Campus team the scare of their lives for the first three quarters and with 8 minutes to go in the last quarter, the Lebanon boys were on the long end of a 7 to 6 count, but at this point the southern visitors started throwing passes from every angle and completely awed the Warriors with this display of aerial power. Before the final gun sounded the University High team had pushed across four touchdowns and piled up 32 points while Lebanon had to remain content with its seven points.

The coveted Lebanon L was presented to 25 players and two managers at the close of the season and of this group only 6 are graduating seniors, so Coach Bud Page will have a host of lettermen available for the start of the 1944 season. Those boys receiving letters were as follows: Seniors: Bob Crandall, Ralph Cooper, Ralph Schrouder, Gene Durlam, Mel Solberg and Jerry Baker. Juniors: Bill Peden, Erwin Wilkinson, Cedric Wallace, Richard Bartels, Denny Canny, Don Davidson, Tony Solberg; Richard Michelson, Ross McCormick and Bob Olds. Sophomores: Jess Ingram, Paul McCracken, Denny Marvin, Kenny Haughton, Lynn Hamilton, Dean Ward, Dave Powell and Art Cobb. Freshmen: Ron Cox. Managers: Bob Johnson and Doug Smith.

Basketball

With the advent of Basketball, Coach Bud Page found himself face to face with the same problem that had confronted him in football—lack of experienced players. Although four lettermen were on hand, only two of them, Captain Ralph Cooper and sophomore Lynn Hamilton were starters from the year before while Bob Olds and Cedric Wallace, the other two lettermen, had just seen enough action the year before to earn their letters but were not experienced veterans at the game. Lack of height was another discouraging factor as Hamilton was the only boy who stood over the 6 foot mark and the others were considerably lacking in altitude.

In spite of these shortcomings, the Warriors had a successful season and their aggressive and fast breaking style of ball caused many a headache for opposing teams and provided many a thrill for the spectators. Lebanon played 18 games during the course of the season and the close of the sport found the team with a record of 8 victories and 10 defeats. The highlight of the season was the fact that the Warriors won two out of three games from the Albany Bulldogs, a feat that has not been accomplished around here for a number of years. Perhaps the outstanding game of the season was one played against Toledo on the local court in which the Mudhens emerged victorious 29 to 27 but only after two overtime sessions had been played.

Lebanon finished third in district competition this year behind Corvallis and Toledo. Two boys, Ralph Cooper at forward and Lynn Hamilton at center, were placed on the All-district second team and Hamilton was third high scorer with a total of 67 points in league play.

Of the 8 boys receiving letters only one boy will be lost by graduation. Ralph Cooper, captain of this year's team is the only departing senior but his ball playing ability will be sorely missed when the 1945 season rolls around. Ralph proved an excellent team leader and his spirit and sportsmanlike manner in competitions label him as one of the best ever to wear a Lebanon uniform. The following boys received letters at the close of the season: Seniors: Captain Ralph Cooper; Juniors: Bob Olds, Cedric Wallace (both Co-captains for the 1945 season), Bill Peden; Sophomores: Dave Powell, Lynn Hamilton, Dean Ward; Freshmen: Ron Cox; Managers: Bill Conner and Bob Downing.

Baseball

With a somewhat curtailed schedule, due to transportation difficulties, Lebanon has only 8 games lined up for the baseball season. At the time of this writing the season has just started, and Coach Bud Page is holding daily workouts with his squad of 25 boys and all indications point to a hustling but inexperienced diamond aggregation for the 1944 season.

Only three lettermen are on hand, Bob Erickson, outfielder; Ralph Cooper, first base; and Don Ellis, pitcher. The major problem confronting the coach is the developing of more pitching strength and at this point, Joe Elkins, a sophomore with a lot of speed and a strong arm, seems the answer to this situation. Arthur Cobb has the inside track for the backstop position while the rest of the infield remains a question mark. Cooper seems assured of the keystone sack because of his past experience. The battle for second base lies between Cedric Wallace and Dick Hewett, both new boys on the squad. Jess Ingram looks good at third base, but Joe Elkins will crowd him for this spot when he is not on the mound. Lynn Hamilton and Don Clarke are a toss-up for shortstop, both showing about the same amount of ability at bat and in the field. In the outfield, Ray Ayers and Denny Canny are vieing for the left field spot. Bob Erickson is well planted in center field and his heavy hitting will be counted on during the course of the season. The right field position remains undecided with Buryl Brown, a freshman, Stan Worland, a junior, Bill Rohla, a junior, and Bill Peden, a junior, all striving for the opening nod in this garden spot.

America

My country, 'tis of thee
 Sweet land of liberty,
 Of thee I sing.
 Land where my fathers died!
 Land of the Pilgrim's pride!
 From ev'ry mountain side.
 Let freedom ring!

My native country, thee,
 Land of the noble free,
 Thy name I love;
 I love thy rocks and rills,
 Thy woods and templed hills;
 My heart with rapture thrills
 Like that above.

Let music swell the breeze,
 And ring from all the trees
 Sweet freedom's song.
 Let mortal tongues a-wake;
 Let all that breathe partake;
 Let rocks their silence break
 The sound prolong

Our father's God, to Thee,
 Author of liberty,
 To Thee we sing.
 Long may our land be bright
 With freedom's holy light;
 Protect us by Thy might,
 Great God, our King!
