We, the members of the '47 Warrior staff, do sincerely wish that this annual will live up to all the expectations of the students and faculty members of Lebanon Union High School.

We would like to express our gratitude to all the teachers and members of the student body who helped write up the stories for classes and activities; also we would like to extend our extreme appreciation to Dick Gallagher for his many fine write-ups.

To Mr. Howard Hickcox, our worthy advisor, we would like to give our profound "Thank You" for his judgment, guidance, and his whole hearted cooperation at all times.

STUDENT COUNCIL

BUD GOOLD,
President

A most successful government was set up by this year's Student Council. Its duty was to govern efficiently, providing for the routine management of the student body and for the emergencies as they arose. It was composed of presidents and representatives from each class and each active club. Our president was the able Bud Goold. His executive council consisted of three: Vice president, Claire Reeder; secretary, Fayne Blackburn; treasurer, Minnie Jean MacLennon.

Meetings were held once every month. The council was most effective because of the cooperation each student gave, Mr. Cash being most helpful during it all.

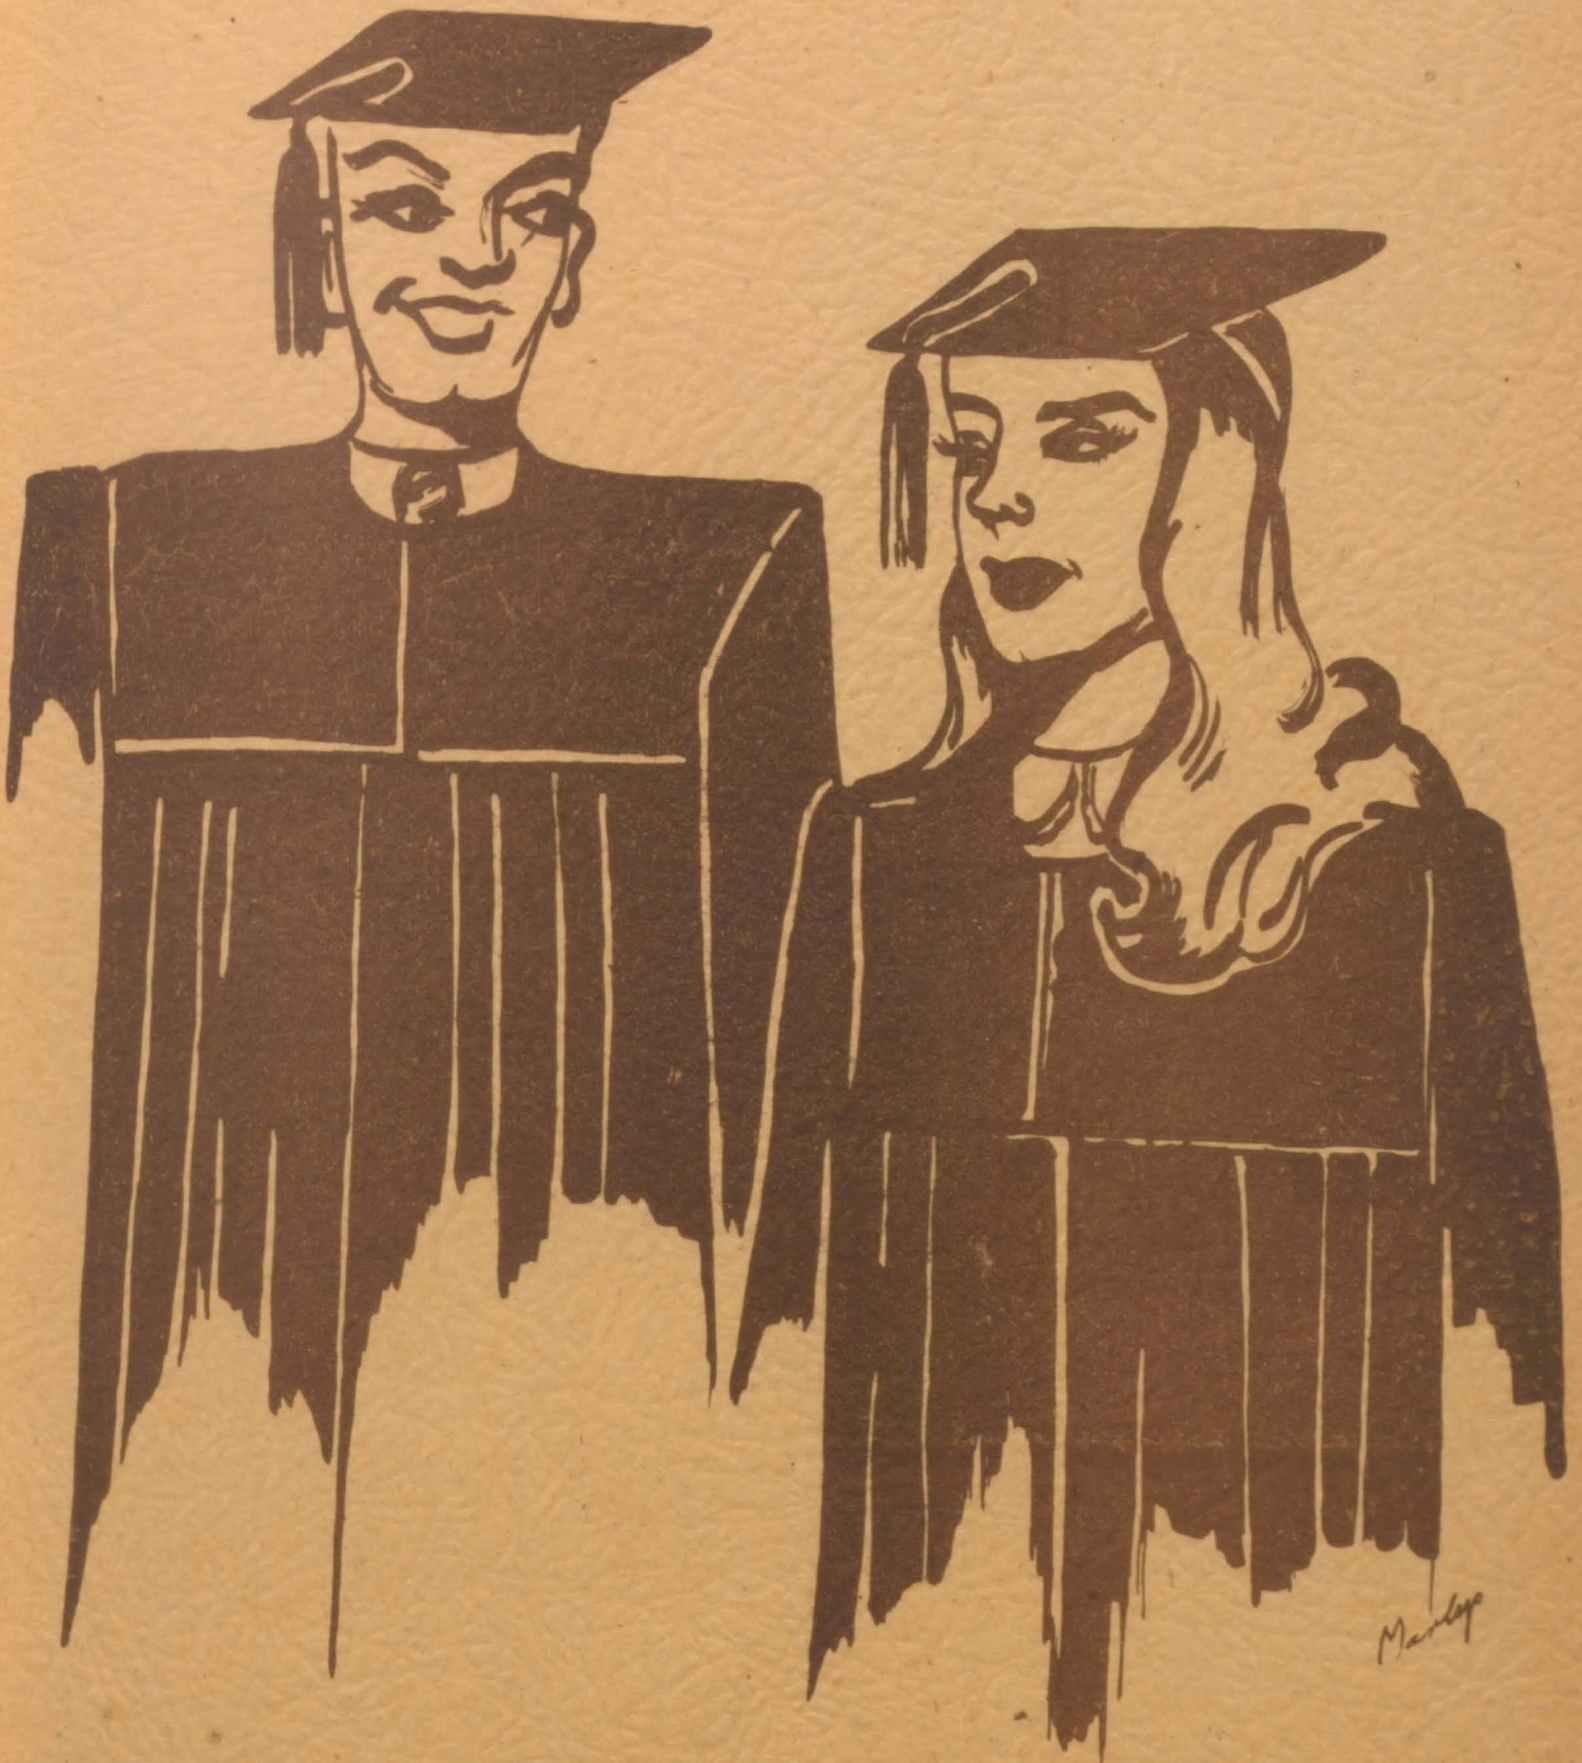

The Student Council followed vigorously the constitution drawn by the alumni three years previously.

Second Row: Kambak, J. Hamilton, Trigg, Howe, MacLennon, L. Neustel, Fuller, Doggett, Scroggin, McCracken

TOM SAWYER

Tom Sawyer and his lazy, tough pal, Huckleberry Finn were up to their old pranks Friday, May 2, 1947, when the Senior Class of Lebanon presented its class play at the high school gym under the direction of Kee Buchanan Groves, (a veteran of many dramatic wars.)

There you discovered Tom trading off chances to help white-wash the fence; you were amused in Tom's pride in the plans for his own funeral; you enjoyed Huck's antipathy to shoes and soap and water; you wanted to cuff Sid, the smarty; you were enchanted as Tom was with his new girl friend, Becky Thatcher; and a bit sympathetic with the old one, Amy, with her sauciness and her lisp.

The exasperating scamp, Tom Sawyer, was played by Remmal Nivens. His partner in mischief, no-count Huck Finn, was well interpreted by Leon Kambak. Jean Burns as the sharp-tongued, soft hearted Aunt Polly, had a major role in the play. Whitey Opdyke played with relish, the part of Sid, the smoothy, Tom's brother, who was always tattling on him. Patsy Nelson, Tom's sweetheart, was a fetching lass, and it is easy to understand Tom's subjugation to her charms. Amy, the "past" in Tom's life, a smart little piece, with a tart charm of her own, was played by Marlys Sinclair. Paul Alley as the school teacher, and Mary Gene Gregory, his girl, supplied some old-fashioned love scenes. Elmer Fields was that rugged character, Indian Joe. Joe and "Tough" other friends of Tom and Huck's timeless partnership, were played by Delvan Miles and Glen Crossan. The mothers of these rascals and some neighbor women were: Mrs. Douglas, Alice L. Reck; Mrs. Harper, Oma White; Mrs. Crass, Margaret Howe; Mrs. Thatcher, Ramona Edwards. Miss Marsh, a teacher, was Eloise Groves. Her school children were:

Arden Keebler, Pat Caughren, Dorothy Mayo, John Richards, Shirley Spires, Faye Keen, Clarita Gramh, Minnie Jean MacLennan, Juliann Carper, Mary Moynihan, Shirley Clendennen, Ulas Moss.

Under the direction of Mrs. Helen Price, the Girls' Sextette sang a group of songs. These girls were: Anne Swanson, Orvilliss Pepperling, Barbara Pierce, Doris Groves, Betty Sommers, and Lorene Rowton.

An original interpretation of several old 1880 favorites was given by Doris and Dorothy Neustel, Harry and Leon Drapela.

Mrs. Ellen Wilshire, a senior class advisor, assisted with arrangements for the play.

Ushers—Barbara Sherfy, Joan Humphreys, Pat Klavano, Dona Mills, Melba Cox, Diana Edes.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

On September 9, 1935, fifty-three excited first graders enrolled at Queen Anne Grade School. Of the 102 seniors at the first of this year, Diana Edes, Ramona Edwards, Eloise Groves, Margaret Howe, Joan Humphreys, Betty Lott, Phyllis Lott, Dona Preston, Arden Keebler, Claribel Turner, Barbara Sherfy, Shirley Spires, and Dale Stewart were the only members of that original class. En route to the top, the class has welcomed many outstanding and progressive members.

Once more, on September 20, 1943, we found ourselves playing the parts of "greenhorns" as 157 freshmen began their prosperous careers at Lebanon High. We started the year happy over the fact that there was no official initiation. The class was fortunate in having its share of musicians, athletes, and leaders. Elected officers were president, Paul Alley; vice president, Melba Cox; secretary, Pat Canaga; treasurer, Dale Stewart; representative, Hugh Logan; and sergeant-at-arms, Carl Fox.

The year 1944 welcomed the uncouth freshmen back as sophisticated sophomores. Under the advisorship of Mrs. Christine Smith and Mrs. Jean Parham, the following officers were elected: president, Charles Gram; vice president, Ron Cox; secretary, Mary Gene Gregory; treasurer, Bob Downing; sergeant-at-arms, Paul Alley; and representative, Judy Swanson. This year was most successful with a St. Patrick's day party and a skating trip to Albany.

Under the leadership of president, Bud Goold; vice president, Leon Kambak; secretary, Marlys Sinclair; treasurer, Paul Alley; representative, Mary Gene Gregory; sergeant-at-arms, Wilson Vanderburg; and advisors, Mrs. Christine Smith, Mrs. Sterling Smith, and Miss Dougherty, we had a wonderful year. Again, as in former years, many of the boys were outstanding in sports with the girls entering that field through yell leader, Fay Carroll and rally squad members, Marion LeBaron, Fayne Blackburn, and Pat Worland. In the field of music, we were very proud of Dick Hobbs who received a "1" rating in the district music contest.

This year for the first time, the junior class was represented on the annual staff by associate editor, Leon Kambak, and associate business manager, Judy Swanson.

With Mary Gene Gregory as chairman, the class produced the lovely Junior-Senior Prom, "Blossomtime." Harmonizing with the theme was Queen Ramona and her six princesses, Fay Carroll, Patsy Nelson, Mary Gene Gregory, Margaret Howe, Fayne Blackburn, and Pat Worland.

In September, 1946, when we started our senior year, it was difficult to realize this was the last time we would take up our books and begin a new year at L. H. S. With this in mind, we were determined to make this year the best possible.

The most popular event of the year was the senior play, "Tom Sawyer," which was presented under the able direction of Kee Buchanan Groves. The play was given May 1 and 2 to a record breaking audience.

This year, Marlys Sinclair, who was the only Lebanon entry, won the district contest in poetry reading at Willamette University in Salem.

At the regional music contest, Dick Hobbs received a "1" rating and Eloise Groves a "2." Dick went to Ellensburg, Washington to the national contest to receive a "2" rating.

Outstanding in the field of sports were, Elmer Fields, Paul Alley, Bud Goold, Dick Hobbs, Bob Downing, Dick Gray, Leon Kambak, Joe Baca, Charles Gram, Claire Reeder, Jim Rarey, and Larry King.

Claribel Turner was elected the girl to represent Lebanon at the Strawberry Festival this year.

Patsy Nelson was chosen by the Junior Chamber of Commerce as the Lebanon candidate to the Albany Timber Carnival.

At this year's sparkling Hi-Y Sweetheart formal, the senior class was represented by princesses Ramona Edwards and Arden Keebler.

One of the truly nicest May Days in years was held May 9, on the high school campus. Reigning over the festivities were Queen Patsy and her court of Fayne Blackburn, Raoma Carlson, Ramona Edwards, Margaret Howe, Pat Klavano, and Marlys Sinclair.

May 7, those members of the class who could, made a trip to Portland to see the play, "The Merchant of Venice"

Upperclassmen at last; For two long years the class of 1948 played the "underdog" to those a few steps above it, but now they were finally on top.

Last fall the class elected their officers for the coming year. Those elected were: Martel Scroggin, president; Bob Henkle, vice president; Doris Neustel, secretary; Tom Juza, treasurer; Bud Barr and Dick Gallagher, sergeants-at-arms.

Since the history of our class may be told in story form it might read something like this:

Ah! September and time for us to board the class of "48" Super Chief once more. Walking along the ramp towards the passenger cars we pass the engine and noticed that Martel Scroggin was to be our engineer this year, and the fireman was Bob Henkle. Walking a little further we pass the mail car; inside was Doris Neustel sorting the mail. After we had boarded the train who should come through collecting the tickets but Tom Juza. Right behind him were two agents of the Railway Protective Agency, Budd Barr and Dick Gallagher.

One of our first stops was Football Junction where we found Bob Henkle, Don Hostetler, Lloyd White, Bud Barr, Dick Gallagher, Bob Miles, and Sid Bartels wanted off to try their luck at the sport. In three months all these boys were back aboard sporting a fancy new "L" on their sweaters.

Our next stop was Basketballville and it was to be noted that J. T. Hamilton was the only passenger who wanted off at this point, but a little way up the track, Don Hostetler, Tom Juza, Murray Brownhill, and Harry Drapela, wanted off at the home of the "B" squad.

The passengers were becoming restless so a project to secure a magician show, for the benefit of all, was arranged. The entertainment was well received and was perhaps the outstanding event in the first half of the trip.

We rode merrily along until we approached the three-quarter mark of the trip, then it was decided that it was time to begin work on the Junior-Senior Prom. The class readily approved the choice of Marjorie Kimble as Prom chairman. Knowing that an immense task was ahead of her she appointed Paul Harden, Dean Johnson, Mary K. Reeves, Elizabeth Waddell, and Nancy Trigg as assistants. With all of this competent help it was no surprise that the Prom, "Blue Moon," was one of the outstanding social events of the year.

Finding that Murray Brownhill, Larry Ensley, and Kenneth Sims wanted off at Baseball Corners, we came to a stop only to discover that this year, Martel Scroggin, Larry Klang, Clayton Garrett, Bob Henkle, Harold Fritz, and David Canaga wanted to ride a bit farther to the Trackmen's Abode.

Coming to the end of our journey we mobilized once more to put on the commencement exercises for the Seniors. Thus we ended a year which had been filled to the brim with many surprises and events.

SOPHOMORE CLASS

JACK EVANS
President

The sophomore class of 1946-1947 enrolled 173 students. It elected the following officers: president, Jack Evans; vice president, Gene Tanner; secretary, Mary Ann Turner; treasurer, Dixie Lee Fitzwater; representative to the student council, Molly Hewett. These officers proved very capable of their respective duties. The class advisors were Mrs. Stewart, Miss Lewis, and Mr. Neuman, who was new to L. H. S. this year.

A financial budget was raised by securing dues from each student. A hot dog sale was sponsored at the Sweet Home football game at the beginning of the year. In basketball season a dance was sponsored by this ambitious class after the Albany game.

The class party was held in March. It was decorated cabaret style with tables and card games encircling the dance floor.

Sports was a prominent function of this class of '49. In the first sport of the season, the following boys won letters: Don Hebert, Gene Tanner, Alan Frum, Jim Fryrear, Jerry Bartels, Albert Thexton, Dick Haughton, and Wallace Campbell. Jim Fryrear is a two-year letterman, earning his first letter in his freshman year. Managers were Kenneth Gallagher and Joe Abbott.

The class was also well represented on the District Seven champion basketball team. It boasted of having six members. They were: Jack Evans, Bob Osterman, Gene Tanner, Bob Patterson, Jim Fryrear, and Don Hebert. Gene Tanner was elected as one of the co-captains for the year of '47-'48.

In baseball the sophomore lettermen were Joe Abbott, Harold Bates, Jerry Bartels, Jack Evans, Percy Nordstrand, Albert Thexton, and Les Wells. Also in the club were Monty Bean, Wallace Campbell, and Buel Olson.

The boys providing us with a promising outlook toward track are: Jack Haynes, Bill McKinney, Joe Abbott, Harold Grove, and Jim Sollenburg. The managers for the team are Jack Ayers and Leonard Carter.

The entire class is very proud of these boys and expects a lot from them in their junior and senior years.

All games were backed up one hundred per cent by the enthusiastic Pep Club. The ten sophomore rooters were: Pat Christian, Sally Davis, Irma Gray, Helen Jo Gilbert, Mary Ann Turner, Pat Cone, Ina Wilson, Jackie Simi, Joan Carlson, and Dixie Lee Fitzwater. Mary Ann Turner had to withdraw at the first of the year, and she was replaced by Raye Bevan. Raye's initiation into the Pep Club was enjoyed by the entire student body in a pep assembly.

Molly Hewett was elected Girls' League representative and Barbara Pearce secretary to Girls' League.

This was a very successful year for all and everyone is looking forward to his junior year.

FRESHMEN CLASS

LEON DRAPELA
President

The class of 1950 is one of the largest classes in the history of L. U. H. S. During the year, one hundred eighty-four students were enrolled in this class. There were a few more boys than girls in the class, the ratio being 95:87.

Early in the fall the class in a heated election selected two boys and three girls to guide their activities for the year. The officers were: president, Leon Drapela; vice president, Dick Copeland; secretary, Betty Schackman; treasurer, Gloria Logan, and student body representative, Beverly Davis. The officers were very efficient and cooperative. If the class continues to select as wisely, they should have an excellent record as the Senior class of 1950.

Traditionally the class activities opened with the initiation, which was a very civilized affair compared with what they used to be. In line with the administration's policy of two class events each semester the freshmen decided on two skating parties held at the local rink, a theater party and mixed party held in the gym in March. The theme for the decorations for the latter was Night and Day. If the class continues to show as much originality and frugality as they did for this class party, L. U. H. S. will have one of the finest Junior-Senior Proms in its history.

With their class dues of $1.00 the members decided that a noon hour program should be continued in room 20. The most popular feature of this program was the "funny books," at least until the books were removed by upper classmen. There were many enthusiastic checker fans each noon, also.

In the field of sports the Freshmen representation was greatest in football. Tom Temple, Royce Howard, Bobby Dean Downing, Dick Copeland, Willard Carper, Dick Duncan, and Jim Warnke gave the best that they had. Warnke and Duncan were good enough to earn letters. In basketball, Rudy Kellison and Mearle Christensen were "B" squad men. Freshmen participating in track were Royce Howard, Tom Temple, Dick Duncan, and Dale Pracht. In baseball the Freshmen were a minus quantity.

The following Freshmen helped the Mixed Chorus win its "1" rating at the contest: Girls: J. Davis, B. Mason, M. Waddell, M. Ailey, D. Lebahn, S. Rhoades, B. Sommers, B. Davis, B. Arnold, B. Johnson, G. Pesek, B. Clendenen, B. Dahlenberg, N. Stevens, D. Ogbin, L. Higgenbottom, M. Hilton, W. Willer, J. Willer, S. Neiman, D. Hanson, D. Cruise, M. Grogan, A. Dixon, E. Guggisburg, I. Postle, E. Van Duyne, V. Gallea, L. Lindsay, T. McJunkin, V. Gibson, L. Wagner, E. Heyne, B. Banta, and D. Hake. The boys were: J. Warnke, L. Drapela, G. Beck, R. Howard, R. Miller, D. Wilson, D. Duncan, J. Garrett, J. Powell, G. Spence. There were more freshmen boys than any other group of boys. Future chorus laurels should be secured with so many freshmen involved in this year's honor.

The band's "1" rating made at the contest was secured with the aid of the following Freshmen: R. Frum, C. Gould, E. York, C. Wilson, D. Hammett, F. Parks, D. L. Plymale, and D. Lundholm. Granting continued development, this class should greatly aid in securing further band honors.

The class advisors for 1946-47 were: Mrs. Bateman, Mrs. Shearer, Miss Schiltz, and Mr. Jaross.

EIGHTH GRADE

KAYE BREEDEN
President

The eighth grade started the year 1946-47 with the election of class officers at their first meeting as follows: president, Kay Breeden; vice president, Marlene Shartel; secretary Betty Lindley; treasurer, Robert Christensen; sergeant-at-arms, Bob Hinman; class representative, Leona Neustel. There are about eighty-six students in the eighth grade.

During the year the class participated in many activities. One of special interest was the Traffic Patrol including the eighth and some of the seventh grade boys. This patrol directed traffic going to Hackett's store. Bob Hinman was the head of the patrol. The eighth grade boys also won the Junior High basketball championship. Ice cream bars were also sold at basketball games as a means of making money. A concession was sponsored by the class at the May Day exercises, May 11th.

The class parties were not numerous as the class had about three parties throughout the year, though another may be held at the end of the year. The first party was a gala affair since it was a Hallowe'en party. A skating party was held December 19th at the local skating rink. The last, but not the least party was April 12th. At this party the class chose a king and queen. Those chosen were: Queen Beverly Canoy and King Bob Hinman.

The eighth grade wishes to thank their advisors, Mrs. Sessions, Mr. Phillips, and Mr. Clark for their help throughout the year in supervising the class interests.

SEVENTH GRADE

BOB McCracken
President

September 16, 1946, ninety Seventh Grade students entered the Lebanon Union High School with the determination that their aim would be high. As usual there were many surprises in store for these boys and girls, but as time marched on they were becoming adjusted to different situations.

The Seventh Grade class held its first meeting the second week of school and elected the following officers: President, Bob McCracken; vice president, Johnny Stolsig; treasurer, Florence Lane; class representative, Jerry Hamilton; sergeant-at-arms, Larry Moynihan.

Junior Girls' League organized last year carried on its work very successfully under its efficient officers.

The class has been well represented by several students in art, band, and chorus.

Since the members of the Seventh Grade class could not participate in athletics, they are looking forward to the time when they can be a part of a winning team.

The class has been loyal in attendance at the games giving the teams its full measure of pep and enthusiasm.

One not-to-be-forgotten event is the class party which was held in the gymnasium on April the fourth.

Special committees took charge of all the activities. The success of the party was made possible by the co-operation of all students and teachers. In addition to this party the class enjoyed the skating party given at the local skating rink.

It is almost time to close books for another summer vacation and plan for another school year.

The students of the Seventh Grade class wish to extend to Mrs. Faller and Mrs. Gerfen their many thanks for helping them with their many problems and social activities.

BAND

Lebanon's high school band under the direction of Vinton Snyder, has become indispensable to the school it represents. At all football and basketball games, pep assemblies, and parades, its martial music fills the air, these strains turning to classical music for concerts.

The band, for the seventh consecutive state contest has achieved winning honors. Having a new director, Vinton Snyder, the band has done very well and is improving greatly.

Highlights of the year were festivals, contests, and the Strawberry Fair. At the state contest held in Albany they received a "Superior" or "1" rating. Contest numbers were "Light Cavalry," "Grand Festival Overture," and "Zacateus."

Of the four soloists who participated in the contest, Dick Hobbs, baritonist; Dolph Lundholm, cornetist; and Lester Simons, clarinetist, won "Superior" ratings and went to the national contest held in Ellensburg, Washington. Gilbert Scott, trombonist won a "2" rating in the state contest.

Officers were: President, Gib Scott; sergeant-at-arms, Gene Tanner and Elva Thomas; secretary, Irma Crockett; librarian, Dolph Lundholm; treasurer, Harry Drapela; and student director, Lester Simons.

Drum majorettes were Doris Neustel, Margaret Howe, and Dorothy Neustel.

The band earned over $230 for its treasury this year. Two hundred dollars was earned at the Strawberry Fair.

MIXED CHORUS

The Mixed Chorus has had a very successful year under the capable direction of Mrs. Helen Price.

The officers of the chorus are: President, Nancy Trigg; vice president, Leon Drapela.

The chorus has taken part in many activities during the past year. It received a "1" (Superior) rating, at the State Music Contest held at Albany.

This spring the combined chorus gave an operetta, a musical production entitled, "The Chimes of Normandy." It included two complete choruses and two casts for each night's performance with three of the characters of the cast performing both nights. It is the first operetta that has been given in Lebanon High School for several years and the chorus hopes to make it an annual event.

GIRLS' SEXTETTE

The Girls' Sextette this year was composed chiefly of under-classmen; although it was fifty-fifty the first semester. Lettie Bolman, senior, a first soprano, was replaced by Doris Groves, sophomore, the second semester. The other members were: Anne Swanson, Orvilliss Pepperling, juniors; Barbara Pearce, Lorene Rowton, sophomores; Betty Sommers, freshman; and Elizabeth Waddell, accompanist.

A very excellent (2 plus) rating was received at the state contest in Albany, where they sang "Moon Marketing" and "Hear the Robin in the Rain."

Robed as three mean little school boys, and three shy little girls, the sextette sang for intermission at the senior play.

Other performances were for the Lions Club, the Christmas Concert, Spring Concert, Music Festival coronation of the queen at the May Day festivities, a music assembly, P. T. A., teacher's banquet, and at the Albany Baptist Church where the service is broadcast over station K.W.I.L. There were also a few other performances.

A few of the songs sung this year on various occasions were: "They Way You Look Tonight," "Way Over Jordan," "By the Bend of the River," and "A Violin Is Singing In The Street."

Keebler, Swanson, Edwards

SENIOR TRIO

The Senior Trio was composed of Judy Swanson, Arden Keebler, and Ramona Edwards, and able accompanied at the piano by Eloise Groves.

Under the direction of Mrs. Helen Price they made several appearances including Rainbow installation, Business and Professional Women's Club, and school assemblies.

For the Republican Day dinner at the Club Melody Lane three girls, Anne Swanson, Doris Neustel, and Dorothy Neustel, were added making a sextet.

Some of the songs sung this year were "Among My Souvenirs," "Let It Snow," "If I Loved You," and "Just A Memory."

Russell, Trigg, Reeves

JUNIOR TRIO

The Junior Girls' Trio, Nancy Trigg, Mary K. Reeves, Jean Russell, and accompanist, Elizabeth Waddell, have had a very successful year under the advisorship of Mrs. Price.

The girls have made various appearances during the year. They sang for the Lions Club, school assemblies, the Christmas concert, the spring concert, a music week tea, the P. T. A., a Republican Day banquet at Melody Lane, and the coronation of the queen at the May Day festivities.

The trio entered the state contest at Albany and received a "superior" rating for their number, "Ave Maria." They were invited to sing at the regional national contest at Ellensburg, Washington, but were unable to attend.

L. Drapela, Evans, H. Drapela, Scroggin

BOYS' QUARTET

Because of its being newly organized this year, the Boys' Quartet has been comparatively inactive.

It was composed, at the first of the year, of Juniors Harry Drapela and David Canaga; sophomore Jack Evans; and Freshman Leon Drapela. Dave was later replaced by a Junior, Martel Scroggin.

Their repertoire consisted of "Rain and the River," "It's a Grand Night for Singing," "Blow Trumpets, Blow," and "March of the Musketeers" which they sang at various places including the football banquet, Lions Club, and school assemblies.

Their accompanists were Eloise Groves, a Senior, and Elizabeth Waddell, a Junior.

There was much favorable comment on their fine singing and with renewed vigor they plan on making next year very successful.

HI-Y CLUB

DICK HOBBS
 President

The Lebanon Hi-Y under the advisorship of Bud Page, has ended another successful year, beginning the year with more new members than old.

The highlights of the year were the boy-girl discussions held at the first of the year, in which the boys gave slams and compliments to the girls, and the girls returned their feelings. Although the slams were many, the meetings ended in friendship. The girls were of a picked group from the Girls' League. Both girls and boys benefitted by these discussions.

Also the club sponsored dances, sold ice cream, and was very active throughout the year, and the whole student body remembers the Hi-Y Formal dance with Pat Cone as sweetheart.

The officers of the year were: President, Dick Hobbs; vice president, Charles Gram; secretary, J. T. Hamilton; treasurer, Harold Fritz; and chaplain, Harry Drapla.

On Mothers' Day the boys took their mothers or dates to church. Topping it off the boys and their dates had a very successful picnic at Colorado Lake.

FIRE SQUAD

BUD GOOLD
 Fire Chief

A revitalized fire squad under the guidance and supervision of Mr. Jaross and Fire Chief Bud Goold turned in many a splendid performance in the past year. Although the efficiency of the squad was at first impaired by having 14 out of the total 16 boys as new members, this obstacle was soon overcome by putting these new members through one or two fire drills.

As this was Mr. Jaross' first year as fire squad supervisor he introduced many new measures, one being that new members are picked up from the boys who had previously signed up as wanting to become members.

Also this year the fire squad became an active organization, giving one dance after a basketball game and selling basketball programs at the game.

Besides taking part in all these social activities the fire squad kept its reputation as being a smooth operating emergency team by putting out some record time fire drills.

Members this year were: Assistant Fire Chief Claire Reeder, Bob Downing, Larry King, Jim Rarey, Paul Alley, Remmal Nivens, Dick Hobbs, Charles Gram, Glen Crossan, Leon Kambak, Dick Gallagher, Paul Nofziger, Martel Scroggin, J. T. Hamilton, Tom Juza, and Bob Henkle.

G. A. A.

With a membership of about 40, the Girls' Athletic Association has enjoyed a most successful year.

A hike and wiener roast at the city park started things off. Then followed a school carnival, sponsored by the G.A.A. Much enthusiasm was displayed which helped make it a real success. Our organization had the following booths: darts, telegrams, fortune-telling, a museum, and a food booth. A skating party at the local roller rink provided fun for members and their friends. A swimming party and picnic concluded the activities.

Points were earned by playing in the noon tournaments and in outside sports. Arm shields with the numerals of the girl's graduating class were ordered for each member and letters ordered for the girls earning 100 points or more.

NEVA GLASER
 President

Miss Dougherty was our advisor this year. Officers were: president, Neva Glaser; vice president, Jerry Woody; secretary, Leona Duncan; treasurer, Marion LeBaron; play day chairman, Dona Mills. Girls holding offices in the sports department were as follows: sport head, Jo Woody; basketball, Henriella Preever; biking, Lillian Hills; bowling, Barbara Pearce; hiking, Lillian Plagmann; horseback riding, Ethel Ogbin; ping pong, Beverly Bowers; roller skating, Dorothy Mayo; soccer, Bobbie Ames; softball, Beverly Olshesky; tennis, Raoma Carlson; volleyball, Alice Reck.

HOME EC. CLUB

FAY CARROLL
 President

Another successful year has been passed for the Home Economics club under the able advisorship of Mrs. Bateman the first semester and Mrs. J. Shearer the second semester.

At the first meeting of the club the following officers were elected: Fay Carroll, president; Pat Bevan, vice president; Gloria Logan, secretary-treasurer; Marion LeBaron, social chairman.

During Christmas the club enjoyed decorating tiny Christmas trees for the hospital. A few of the other activities were the decoration of a successful carnival booth, and helping at the various banquets. One of the main events of the year was the Schoolmasters' banquet that was held in the Home Economics building.

The title of the fashion show this year is "Madame Pompadour." The girls are planning on this to be held May 22 with the Mothers Tea to be afterwards. At a business meeting the girls decided to use money out of their own treasury for the tea and the show.

The highlight of the year was the annual picnic which was held May 4th at Silver Creek Falls for the girls and their friends.

LIBRARY CLUB

ELVA THOMAS
 President

The Library Club is composed of the library assistants. This year's officers are: President, Elva Thomas; vice president, Faye Keen; secretary, Phyllis Lott; treasurer, Neva Glaser. In this club the fundamentals of librarianship are learned. Meetings are held monthly.

The library assistants must be recommended by two teachers and have certain character qualifications such as intelligence, efficiency, and a pleasing personality. Every assistant has her own job to do assigned by our advisor, Mrs. Burns. Dorothy Reed and Faye Keen take care of the overdue books and fines; Helen Canaga has charge of the magazine room; Lettie Bolman keeps our circulation data; Eloise Groves, Elva Thomas, Neva Glaser, Phyllis Lott and Lillian Plagman are the typists; Joella Shields takes care of the periodical file; Dona Nichols, Pat Bevin, Anne Swanson, Wilma Cook, Betty Jane Mills and Mary Long carry on library housekeeping, book preparation and work at the circulation desk. The efficiency of our library depends upon the alertness of our library assistants.

The Library Club not only serves the high school library, but those of the grade schools as well. All the classifying, cataloging, and preparation of books for the three libraries is carried on by the library assistants.

The circulation data for the school year 1946-47 is: Sept. 209, Oct. 979, Nov. 898, Dec. 615, Jan. 868, Feb. 1014, Mar. 888, April 1025, totaling 6,496 books for the school year.

LETTERMEN'S CLUB

JOE BACA
 President

This year the Lettermen's Club took a step forward as being an active organization. This active status was achieved through the election of officers and initiation of new members.

Elections were held soon after football season and those elected were: President, Joe Baca; vice president, Bob Downing; secretary-treasurer, Bob Henkle.

As the Lettermen's Club had not initiated new members for quite a few years it had to be decided as to who were charter members and who were to be initiated. The plan finally hit upon was to have any two-year letterman who was a Junior or Senior as the charter member.

These initiations were hilarious affairs for both the new and old members although some of the neophytes were a bit "shocked" over the initiation techniques. As these initiations were all in fun they will serve as a pleasant reminder of L. H. S. in years to come.

As way of school activities the Lettermen's Club this year co-operated with the faculty members in keeping order in the halls at noon and before second period class. Another activity the Lettermen's Club participated in was the selling of ice cream and ice cream bars May Day.

LATIN CLUB

MARGARET HOWE
 President

"Latina Collegium" (Latin Club), under the leadership of Mr. Neuman, was organized in October of 1946 by its thirty-two members. This is the first Latin club organized in the new Union High School of Lebanon.

The club has been quite active in sponsoring post game dances, and operated a concession in the G.A.A. carnival. A surprise party was given in honor of the advisor upon his recent marriage and the club presented the newlyweds with a gift in honor of the occasion.

Officers for the 1946-1947 school year include as president, Margaret Howe; vice president, Nancy Trigg; secretary, Marie Cray; treasurer, Norma Bodtke; social co-chairmen, Mary Kathryn Reeves and Dale Netland.

Club pins were distributed to all members with the officers receiving pins emblematic of the respective offices they hold.

An official constitution was drawn up by a special committee comprised of Martel Scroggin, Dick Gallagher, Elizabeth Waddell, Mary Kathryn Reeves and Mr. Neuman. The committee met at the home of Mrs. Reeves.

Membership can be attained only through registration for the course. Active membership is effective as long as all dues, assessed upon the group by the constitutional provision, are paid, and all candidates are officially registered for Latin course one or two. Upon graduation from school the individual retains honorary membership.

LEBONSKI CLUB

BOB DOWNING
 President

Skiing conditions being excellent this season, the Lebonski Club enjoyed the most successful year experienced by the club so far.

Under the capable leadership of Lewis Clark, head adviser, and Mr. Rochester, assistant, the club made several trips to Hoo-Doo Ski Bowl, had a skating party, and had a picnic at Silver Creek Falls.

Officers for the club are now elected toward the end of the year according to the by-laws of the new constitution.

The officers for the club are: President, Bob Downing; vice president, Martel Scroggin; secretary, Doris Neustel; treasurer, Dorothy Neustel.

The club has a membership of fifty students this year, and voting determines who is to be a member of the club. The school has furnished all transportation for the club.

Financial problems have never worried the club, which has a balance of $76.66 on hand at the present time. This money was obtained by admission fees of $1.50 per member, and by a bingo booth sponsored by the club at the school carnival that cleared $13.06.

The club originated four years ago, when a few ski enthusiasts got together and formed the club. It seems now, that instead of just having a few ski enthusiasts, the club has more than it can manage. This is due to the fact that skiing is now the favorite winter sport of the world.

PALETEER'S CLUB

The Paleteer's Club although newly organized is more active than it was during the first year. The membership ranks have grown too, with 22 members and five associate members.

Early in 1947 the club members and their friends made a trip to Portland to see the Scholastics Art Awards Contest exhibit at Meier and Frank and visit the Portland Art Museum. About 43 students enjoyed this opportunity. Art Club members went free.

During the last three months of school the club has had an art store project where they sold plastic cord and later, plaster-paris plaques. The store manager was Bud Goid who had as his assistant Norma Bodtke, the club president. The club also plans to sell plastic cord bracelets and painted plaques at the Strawberry Fair.

About the middle of May the High School Mother's Club joined with the club members in giving a silver tea in order to show their wares.

Next fall the Paleteers plan their costume ball which they hope to have early in the season. The club officers for this year are: Norma Bodtke, president; Bud Goid, vice president; Claire Reeder, secretary, and Molly Copeland, treasurer.

VISUAL AIDES

The Lebanon Union High School Visual Education Projector Operators Group was organized in the early part of October, under the supervision of Mr. Neuman, in response to the request of the school administration.

Three seniors and three juniors were selected from a group of twenty-five candidates. They include: Dick Gallagher, Bob Henkle, Roy Campbell, Jerry Ray, Donald Gorman and Harlan Mastenbrook. Dean Johnson was placed on the substitute list and his duties were to operate the machines if none of the other members were available.

It is to become an established rule that each year three new members be selected from the student body to replace those operators that have graduated from school.

During the school year a total of 50 different sound motion pictures have been projected to the various classes. Such interesting films as "Mutiny on the Bounty," "Good Earth," "Gray's Elegy," and "Romeo and Juliet," were shown.

Pictures were ordered for every department in school with the exception of the mathematics classes.

In order to become an eligible of this group the individuals must guarantee that they will be present for every instruction meeting called by their advisor. A single unexcused absence will automatically drop the individual from the group of operators and a substitution made to fill the vacancy. This organization is strictly for seniors and juniors who qualify or prove themselves to be worthy of the position.

Special care is taken during the first few instruction meetings to emphasize the importance of taking the utmost care of the machine which they are entrusted to operate. The machine itself (in particular the sound movie projector) must be handled with care at all times. Any individual who is found to be careless is immediately discharged from his duties.

PEP CLUB

This year a new idea for the Pep Club was tried out, and proved successful. Each Pep Club girl was chosen by her class for her pep enthusiasm. This consisted of 14 seniors, 12 juniors, 10 sophomores, and 8 freshmen. Throughout the football and basketball seasons these girls could be seen, clad in royal blue skirts and white sweaters, supporting the team. Under their new name, "The Warriorettes," the girls were awarded emblems of Warrior heads and Warriorette lettering for their sweaters.

Under the supervision of a very fine advisor, Miss Lewis, the warriorettes at their first meeting elected the following officers: Marion LeBaron, president; Pat Caughren, vice president; Colleen Rappe, secretary-treasurer.

The Warriorettes have led a very outstanding and active club this season. The main event of the year was a Bunny Hop semi-formal dance given on Easter eve. An eight piece orchestra played and surrounding schools were invited to top off another basketball season. A Halloween rally dance was another event the night before the Albany-Lebanon football game. The Warriorettes sponsored the jitney dance on the stage at the Carnival. After the Corvallis-Lebanon basketball game, February 14th, the Valentine Bounce with an eight piece orchestra was also put on by the Warriorettes.

The main hall was the scene of a doughnut sale sponsored by the girls to raise money for the treasury.

GIRLS' LEAGUE

MELBA COX
 President

The Girls' League under the leadership of Miss Brown, dean of girls, has had one of its most successful years of existence in upholding the school traditions. It has been one of the outstanding organizations of the school.

The activities included dances after games, selling hot dogs and ice cream bars, and a Christmas carolling party.

One of our most interesting speakers of the year in our general assemblies was a girl from China. We have had all kinds of entertainment including skits and singing.

Officers this year were: President, Melba Cox; vice president, Molly Copeland; treasurer, Nancy Trigg; secretary, Barbara Pearce; Big Sister chairman, Marlys Sinclair; social chairman, Arden Keebler. Representatives for classes were as follows: Senior class, Fayne Blackburn; Junior, Jean Russell; Sophomore, Molly Hewett; Freshman, Gloria Logan.

The big event of the year was election and installation of the new officers on May 20th. We hope these new girls will be successful in their efforts for the Girls' League in the coming year.

TRADE AND INDUSTRY

DICK THOMPSON
 President

The trade and industry class has enjoyed one of the most successful years of any club this year. This club, commonly called the T & I Club is one of the most active clubs in school. In order to become a member of this organization one must work at least 15 hours on a job. Among the advantages of this system is the fact that on most jobs it enables you to hire out as an apprentice, and after working a certain length of time you become a skilled tradesman. The program is open to girls as well as boys so that everyone in high school in a full time or part time job derives benefits from the program. The program is under the capable direction of Mr. Dodds who works as coordinator in this area. Not only are you placed on the job of your choosing when you enter the program but you also spend one hour a day in class, studying your particular vocation, getting a theoretical as well as a practical view, and learning various other necessities that will be more apt to make you a success in the industrial and business world.

One of our activities this year was our annual employer-employee banquet, which led by our very efficient president, Dick Thompson, proved very successful, after which plans were made for a club picnic at Silver Creek Falls.

SPANISH CLUB

DALE STEWART
 President

This year's Spanish Club is composed of all second-year Spanish students under the leadership of Mrs. Helen Price.

The officers of the club are as follows: president, Dale Stewart; vice president, J. T. Hamilton; secretary, Doris Neustel; treasurer, Dorothy Neustel; sergeant-at-arms, Norman Rucker.

One of its various activities this year was a booth at the school carnival.

For a period of four months, the club subscribed to a Spanish newspaper, "El Eco" which was written in Spanish and translated by the club as part of their daily lessons.

Also, they read various articles from the Reader's Digest, written in Spanish, for their own entertainment.

First Row: M. Cox, Edwards, J. Swanson, Howe, C. Turner, B. Mills, Sinclair

OFFICE GIRLS

At the beginning of the year fifteen girls reported to Mr. Cash for office duty. The girls have proved a great help to Mr. Cash, his secretary, Ruth MacDonald, and the whole school.

Some of the duties of the office girls are: to collect absence slips, to record daily absences, to mimeograph tests, record grades, meet the public, taking phone calls, and running errands.

The experience gained keeping records and handling filing gives the girls very valuable office experience.

The following girls belong to the S.O.S. (School Office Service): Marion Le Baron, Pat Worland, Neva Glaser Ramona Edwards, Pat Caughren, Fay Carroll, Mary Gene Gregory, Fayne Blackburn, Alice Reck, Marlys Sinclair, Melba Cox, Claribel Turner, Dona Mills, Judy Swanson, and Margaret Howe.

Back Row: Lindley, Shartel, Herron
First Row: O'Brien, McTimmonds, Fuller, Doggett

JUNIOR HI GIRL'S LEAGUE

This is the second successive year for the Junior High Girls' League. It ranked high in activities, with the first event being election and installation of new officers, in October.

Other events of this year were a co-ed costume party, a Junior High girls' picnic, and an assembly at which a group of Hi-Y boys discussed characteristics they admired in girls.

The Junior High Girls' League helped furnish the girls' office, with money they earned selling ice cream bars at games.

Officers for this year are as follows: President, Betty Anne Lindly; vice president, Shirley O'Brien; secretary, Mae Louise McTimmonds; treasurer, Marlene Shartel; seventh grade representative, Betty Doggett; eighth grade representative, Betty Jean Fuller.

FOOTBALL

The 1946 version of the L. H. S. football team again proved to be the hard fighting outfit. The Warriors came through a hard fought schedule with a record of 2 wins, 5 losses and 1 tie.

This record is not as bad as it sounds considering that out of the 90 would-be players that greeted Coach Bud Page only 7 were returning lettermen, but by using these seven as a base on which to build, Coach Page evolved a tough but inexperienced squad. The lineup was ever changing as new material gained needed experience. At the close of the season the lineup found line-busting Bob Downing at the fullback post. He was aided by the capable blocking of Elmer Fields, and swivel-hipped Don Hebert, at right and left half respectively. The quarterbacking was handled very efficiently by Joe Baca. Though not noted for scoring we nevertheless had a wildcat line anchored by Co-Captain Bud Goold. Hard-hitting Jim Fryrear was our mainstay at center, with Leon Kambak, watch charm guard, finishing out the center trio. The tackles slots were filled by Bob Henkle, one of the counties most aggressive tackles, and Dick Gallagher, who gave a good account of himself for his first year out. The end positions were filled by Co-Captain Dick (Sticky Fingers) Hobbs and J. T. Hamilton who played a rugged hard-hitting game whether on offense or defense.

Reserve backfield men were headed by Paul (tissue paper) Alley, who because of many injuries saw very little action. Gene Tanner, another hard-hitting backfield man, saw action in almost every game. Al Thexton, punter supreme, handled these duties very effectively. Chuck Gram was one of our hardest fighting backs and was always ready to carry a practice game out for another half or so. Though a bit smaller than his rival, Bob Downing, Bob "Red" Osterman saw a lot of action at the fullback post.

At quarterback Allen Frum proved that he was a boy to be watched in future years because he was a very capable ball handler. Sid and Jerry Bartels were those two small scrappy ends ready for a fight either with each other or any one else who wanted to step up. Ready to take over in case of any trouble were Bud Barr, Paul Harden, and Dick Duncan. Guards and line busters all were Bob Miles, Lloyd White, Wally Campbell, and Jim Warnke. Centers Don Hostetier and Dick Haughton were keeping Jim Fryrear on his toes. Last and very near to being least were the three managers, (we're only kidding, boys), led by "Speedball" Joe Abbott, with "Lightning" Ken Gallagher, and "Gluefoot" Hugh Herron right behind him, way behind, that is, but all joking aside, these boys did prove invaluable when it came to collecting equipment, rubbing sore muscles, fixing cleats, and all the trivial jobs that a manager has to do.

Highlights for the season may well be the Sweet Home and Cottage Grove games. In the Sweet Home game it was proven that Lebanon really could win games and against a fairly good ball club. In the Cottage Grove game it was again proven that Lebanon was an improved team over what they were at the first of the year when they tied the powerful Cottage Grove Lions, last year's Tri-County champions.

Lebanon also received recognition on the Tri-County all star team when Bud Goold was named an all star guard.

Lettermen this year were: Bud Goold, Dick Hobbs, Charles Gram, Joe Baca, Leon Kambak, Bob Downing, Elmer Fields, Paul Alley, Bob Henkle, J. T. Hamilton, Dick Gallagher, Sid Bartels, Lloyd White, Don Hostetier, Bob Miles, Paul Harden, Bud Barr, Jim Fryrear, Gene Tanner, Don Hebert, Al Thexton, Jerry Bartels, Dick Haughton, Wally Campbell, Bob Osterman, Allen Frum, Dick Duncan, and Jim Warnke.

BASKETBALL "A" SQUAD

For the third consecutive year Lebanon High has won the District 7 championship. In the '46-'47 season we again produced a team that our school can justly be proud of. For this achievement we again add a trophy to our already heavy laden trophy case.

After a rugged district battle in which Lebanon lost only one game, that being a thriller in which Corvallis won by only one point on their home court, we came out on top and thus earned our way to the State Tournament being held this year at MacArthur Court in Eugene.

At the state tournament the team did not fare as well as they did the previous year when we took fourth place. Although we did lose out, being beaten our first two games, we gave this year's second place winners, Klamath Falls, the scare of their lives. Many coaches at the tournament expressed their opinion that the Lebanon vs- Klamath Falls game was the best game of the whole tournament. After literally giving all they had the first night the boys were too stiff and sore to give La Grande a very hard battle in their second game of the tournament, although they did have streaks throughout the game that they were going like wildfire.

At the start of the season Coach Bud Page had a pretty dismal outlook on the chance of winning the district championship, having only two returning lettermen, those two boys being this year's team captain, Paul Alley, and his running partner, Elmer Fields. Although lacking experience the boys brought up from the "B" squad and those coming from other schools saved the Warriors scalp from the rest of the revenge craving teams of District Seven. The boys coming up from the "B" squad were: J. T. Hamilton, Jim Fryrear, Bob Patterson, Bob Osterman, Don Hebert, and Gene Tanner. Transfers from other schools were Jack Evans and Dick Gray.

In pre-season play the Warriors faintly resembled a district championship club, losing 4 and winning 5. However, with the advent of league play the boys couldn't be stopped, racking win after win up against their opponents. Perhaps the closest game to go and the score knotted at twenty all a foul was committed against Jack Evans thus giving Jack a chance to put the game on ice and that's just what he did, the final score being Lebanon 21, Sweet Home 20. Although Sweet Home had their customary "gripe" about how we won the game we came back in the return game and waxed them 61 to 30 on their own floor.

This year the Warriors were led by curly-headed Paul Alley who had gotten over his "tissue paperitis" contracted during football season. Although Paul was not really a very high scorer he was cool headed and had the ability to lead the team. Near the end of the season Paul developed his howitzer shot to a near perfection and scored constantly in the last few games, one of these games being against Klamath Falls at the tournament when he scored 19 points. Paul ended the season in third place among the total scores with 196 points.

Elmer Fields, who was the shortest tall man or the tallest short man, however you want to put it, was our backboard controller. Although Elmer was not as tall as some of the boys he played against he was constantly up above them, and because of his ability to get up past the arms of the tall stratosphere boys he earned his nickname of "Rubber legs." Elmer was constantly taking the ball away from our opponents and played a swell game of ball. He will be greatly missed next year as he is a senior this year.

Jack Evans led the scoring for this year with a grand total of 298 points. Jack was a fast, tricky guard who could dribble like a house afire. He was a constant threat to the other team because of his shooting ability and his ball hawking tactics. Jack will undoubtedly be a great asset to the Warriors in years to come.

Bob Patterson ranked second in the points scored with a total of 226. Bob was another of those dead eye shots, being able to make a basket from any possible angle or position except, perhaps, standing on his head. Bob played a great game at center and will be looked upon as one of next year's pillars of strength.

Gene Tanner broke into the starting lineup a little later in the season, but his ability to make long shots soon established him as a member of the first five. Gene was perhaps the hardest worker on the team because to him basketball was a first love and he literally ate, slept, and lived basketball. Gene can be depended on in future years to give some stellar ball playing.

J. T. Hamilton played outstanding ball, he was a good ball handler and was always urging the team on to another victory. J. T. was a consistent scorer when on the court and made his points when the team needed them most.

Bob Osterman, Don Hebert, and Jim Fryrear were all fine ball players and any of them could go in at any time and not slow the team down either in speed or in scoring ability. These boys, all sophomores, will carry a large part of the load next year and the year after that when it comes to all-out playing.

Dick Gray, a transfer player, did a fine job in playing reserve center. Dick, a big rugged boy was always in there trying and was able to make it plenty tough for Bob Patterson as to who would be on the starting lineup.

Some of the highlights of this year's very successful season are our afore-mentioned 21 to 20 win over Sweet Home; our trip to the Southern Empire where we won a game from Medford and lost a hardfought struggle to Ashland; our hard fought one-point loss to Corvallis, and our two wins, after a pre-season loss, from Albany.

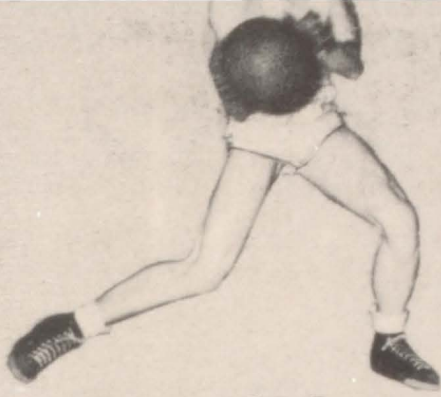

Lettermen for this year are: Paul Alley, Elmer Fields, Dick Gray, J. T. Hamilton, Bob Patterson, Jack Evans, Don Hebert, Jim Fryrear, and Bob Osterman.

This year's managers were Bob Downing and Don Gorman.

BASKETBALL "B" SQUAD

From the time some hopeful prospect made a bucket at the opening of basketball season until the final game, competition was keen and Coach Clark was pleased with the drive and spirit displayed by the "B" squad. With Tom Juza, Jerry Bartels, Joe Abbott, Harry Drapela, Don Hostetler, Remmal Nivens, and Ken Sims forming the nucleus of the team it was easy to work the following into a winning ball club: Al Frum, a strong backboard man from Sweet Home, Les Wells, a dependable forward from Sisters, Ore., Murray Brownhill from Vernonia, and Mearle Christensen, and Rudy Kellison, one of the most improved players on the team, up from the 8th grade team.

Since the "B" squad furnishes future "A" squad material we stressed a fast running attack, hard driving play on the backboard, and a fast shifting defense, the Papooses worked on the style as their older brothers, the Warriors. By the time the first game came along the Papooses were ready for plenty of action and lots of games.

Led by Captain Tom Juza and fireball Jerry Bartels who scored 174 and 162 points respectively, the team rolled up 988 points to their opponents' 847 and won 18 and lost 12 out of 30 games played, playing such teams as Jefferson, Harrisburg, Shedd, and Monroe "A" squads, and Salem Jr. Var. High-lighting the most successful season in several years was the defeat of the Corvallis "B" squad for the first time in seven years by the score of 33-16, a 51-44 defeat of University Hi "B" squad, and defeating the strong Mill City "A" squad on their own floor for the first time this year by the score of 30-25.

This year for the first time numerals were authorized by the student council for "B" squad participation. Next year for the first time there will be a regular schedule for the "B" squads within District 7 and a trophy awarded to the championship team.

BASEBALL

Although the 1947 team does not have an outstanding record, it has nevertheless shown that it was in there fighting. At the time of this writing the Warrior ballplayers have a percentage standing of .500, having won five and lost five. The baseball squad was hit very hard by last year's graduation. Thus with only three returning lettermen a large number of new faces appeared on the diamond when Coach Bud Page had his first official practice. In spite of having such a great number of inexperienced players the team has slowly improved, from the "greenhorn" bunch that it was and looked like at the first of the season, to where it is now, a smooth and hard working club. This evolution of the ball club is very evident, having won three games in a row, at this writing, from Corvallis, Toledo, and Sweet Home.

A quick glance at the roster finds Paul Alley, two year letterman, to be the only experienced pitcher. Paul Alley is one of the best chuckers in the Willamette Valley and his heavy hitting has proved a boon to the club. Bob Downing our versatile catcher and also a very hefty hitter, is playing his second year at this tough position. The third letterman and only one in the outfield, is Claire Reeder who turns in a bang-up performance at his position of left field. At first we have Les Wells, a very capable player and in years to come will undoubtedly be a valuable asset. At second we have Jerry Bartels, who also did some very fine pitching for the local club. He has also turned in a very good record at second.

less gets his hands on everything that is within getting distance. On third Percy Nordstrand has been invaluable because of his fielding and his fast, accurate throws to first. These throws have robbed many teams of a "sure" hit. Out against the fence in right field we have Al Thexton who has played a lot of good ball, and with a little more experience Al will prove to be a great help to the team. In center field Harold Bates has played a very good game considering that this is his first year on the team. Harold has become the Warriors' fence buster after starting out a little slow at the plate. Murry Brownhill has seen his share of action, and though inexperienced he has been a help to the squad. Larry Ensley, Jack Evans, Dick Copeland, Wally Campbell will all undoubtedly be a good share of the Lebanon ball team in future years. Jim Rarey and Larry King, two senior ballplayers, although not getting to see much action, proved invaluable at first and third as base coaches.

As managers we had Bruce Howe and K. Hoseid. These boys were always on the ball, up on their toes, and ready for work at all times (who am I trying to kid), but really the boys did all right considering all they had to do

TRACK

After a period of nine years absence, track has again made its debut at Lebanon High School. At the first of the year 45 hopefuls were seen jogging around the "home-made" track. By the end of the year, however, this number had greatly reduced to a faithful, hardworking 18 members.

As there were no experienced lettermen, due to the absence of track in previous years, all meets were new to the thinclads, but under the able coaching of Earl Gerfen, the Warriors showed improvement with each meet.

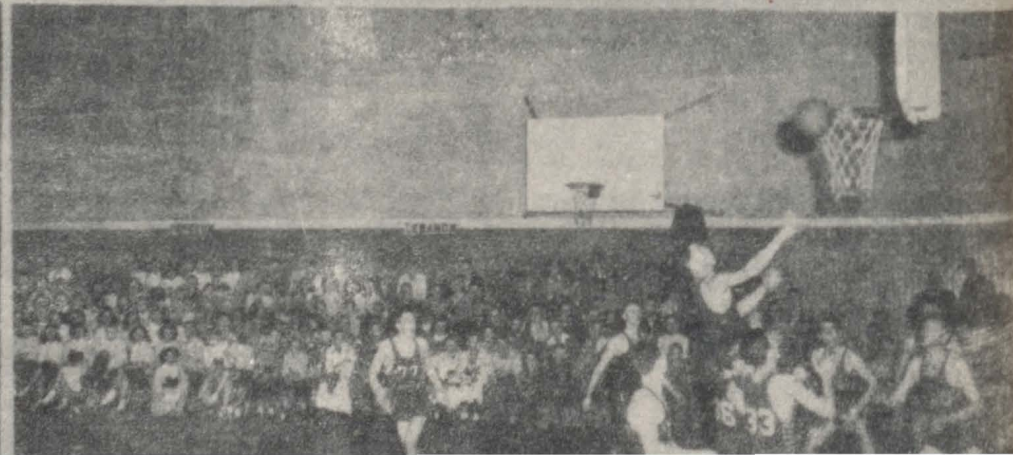

Outstanding ability was shown by Clayton Garrett in the 440, Jack Haynes in the mile, and Larry Klang in the shot-put. Clayton Garrett and Jack Haynes were elected co-captains for the 1947 season.

Although hampered by inadequate equipment, the spikemen hope to see more improvements with the next years.

The schedule was rather full for the first year, but the Warriors eked out wins in two dual meets and garnered a third in the district meet.
