Student Body Council

The Associated Student Body of Lebanon Union High School has had a very successful year under the leadership of the 1949-50 officers: president, Don Anthony; vice-president, Gene Beck; secretary, Mary Waddell; treasurer, Betty Schackman. The duties of the officers and the council are to govern the student body in a democratic way. This year, the thirty-three members with the help of Mr. Cash have done an excellent job.

BACK ROW: Klavano, M. Christenson, Powell, D. Nelson, Stolsig, D. Beck, M. Kirkelie.
FOURTH ROW: Griffith, Lundholm, Hinman, B. Christensen, Slocum, King, Chandler, Wagner.
THIRD ROW: Neuschwander, O'Brien, Lindley, M. Herron, Canoy, Lott, Lebahn, Breeden.
SECOND ROW: Miller, Schackman, Anthony, Waddell, G. Beck, Welch, Schmidt.
FRONT ROW: Norman, Gilbert, Temple, Brannon, Drapela

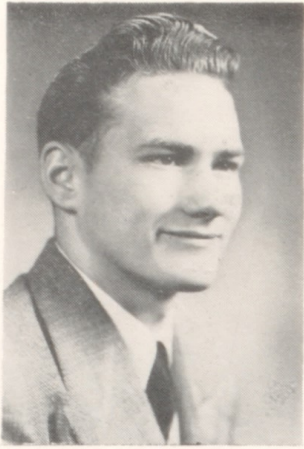

The student council sponsored a Halloween party October 29 in the cafeteria. Among the regulations drawn up by the group, rules were set up to be followed at the parties at the Elks Temple.

When the separate Parent-Teachers Association was formed, the student council sent three different members to represent them at each of the meetings.

Each year the plans for the May Day Festival fall upon the student council. It is their job to select the committee chairman and the date for the May Day.

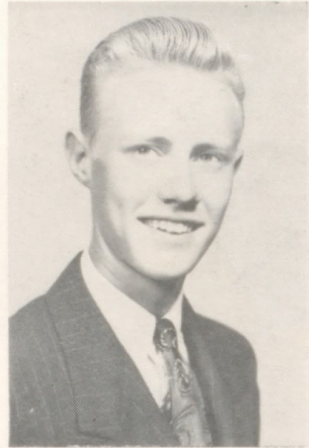

On May 10, each student council member brought twenty pieces of candy to put in the candy machines to raise money for a dance band at the May Day Dance which was held in the Elks Temple, May 12.

The newly elected student body officers for the 1950-51 term are: president, Wally DeKuyper; vice-pres., Dick Lewis; sec., Betty Anne Lindley; treasurer, Beverly Canoy.

Senior Class Prophecy

Knock! Knock! Pardon, me but I'm the 1960 census taker. May I come in? Thank you. Your name, please? Anthony, Mrs. Anthony. HmMMM! The name sounds familiar—your husband's name, Mrs. Anthony? Don? Don Anthony. Was he student body president at Lebanon in 1950? He was. And you—you must be Sharon Rhodes. Tell me—what's Don doing? Well, I never thought Don would be known as the "coffee baron." Could you tell me what some of your friends are doing? You just received an alumni book? How nice! Well, let's see. Ronnie Hauxwell owns his own super market now and employs three of his former classmates, Donna Lee Plymale, Max Crossan, and David Young.

Betty Clendenen and Ralph Miller have joined a vaudeville troupe and are billed as "The Long and the Short of It." Working on the same circuit are Glen Spence and wife, the former Bonita Johnson. It is rumored that they are going into a Broadway show written by Lee and Sanderson. Seems as though Arlo and Ivan are the best musical team since Rodgers and Hammerstein. (Boy, that one really surprised everyone, I'll bet!) Their last show starred Alta Rose Bowers, comedy queen, and currently the toast of New York. Winchell's column reported that she was secretly married to Dale Leach, present mayor of New York.

Joan Bailey Doane has made quite a name for herself writing children's stories. Her secretary, Dream Watkins, reports that Mr. and Mrs. Doane have hired a new governess and chauffeur, Maxine Alley and Mearyle Christensen, a husband-and-wife combination.

Ronnie Frum is now movie idol of thousands of teen-age fans who are so impressed with his eyelashes that he is known, not as "the voice," but as "the eyelash." His wife, Alice Canaga, is also a successful movie star. Bev Davis is currently singing with the Stan Kenton band. Her blues numbers are ever popular. Bev and Joan Davis are often confused as Joan sings with the Vaughn Monroe orchestra.

Pat Thrash is now playing pro-ball for the Portland Beavers. The Seals managed to hire Gene Beck for the fabulous sum of $,100,000. Other former L.U.H.S. students now playing professional ball are: Dick Duncan and Jim Hersom, football; Maynard Kirkelie and Jack Michelson, basketball; Lloyd Glaus, hockey; Betty Arnold, Janette, and Willette Weller, women's roller rink marathons. Incidentally, Willette won her one hundredth race the other day. Also in the field of sports is Doyle Waltenburg, referee.

Jean Rowell was proclaimed Mrs. America of 1959, and is living up to her name. She now has four little girls. Another family that seems to have an over-abundance of girls is Jim and Janice King Warnke's. They have four sets of twins—all girls! Just the opposite is Magdalean Rous' family. She has six boys. Magdalean's sister Adalean was married the other day to Harold Zehr. Harold is a multi-millionaire now.

Effie York is starting her sixth year as conductress of the Philadelphia Philharmonic Orchestra. Leon Drapela and Elaine Guggisberg play under her direction. Wesley Osborne, Faye Parks, and Dolph Lundholm have all given concerts with Effie's orchestra.

Scientist Edwin Baldwin of the Dupont Corporation was accredited with the discovery of the only defense against the atom bomb. Several of Edwin's schoolmates, including Bud Edwards, Frank Goodwin, and Dorothy Myers, assisted Edwin with his experiments. His personal secretary, Gloria Logan, and his nurse, Elizabeth Simmons, state that he has become extremely nervous and that they believe the cause to be over work. Annabelle Francis, lawyer for the Dupont Corporation, says the Dupont people will turn this information over to the president of the United States, as soon as arrangements can be made. Mr. President, Dick Brannon, is calling his cabinet together to discuss this before the actual transfer takes place as there must be no slip-ups. (Dave Brown, Secretary of Defense, will no doubt be in charge, don't you imagine, Mrs. Anthony? Enough of world events. Let's find something about the old home town. Let's see now.)

Lebanon's name has been changed to Hamilton, after its first lady mayor, Dewanda Hamilton. City recorder is Ardith Greer. Members of the city council are young people also. Councilmen and women directly responsible for the new high school with the swimming pool on the fifth floor are Hugh Herron, Dee Carter, Bob Price, Caryl Wilson and Jackie Whitmore. This council also sponsored a new city park, complete with swimming pool and tennis courts, which was completed a year ago. Former Lebanon students comprise a share of the local police force too. Dolores Cruise is another first lady of Hamilton. She is the first lady policewoman, having charge of the juvenile delinquency department. Assisting her are Dick Gray and Vern Pulliam. Larry Speal is in charge of traffic violations. Last of the 1950 graduating class to make an appearance on the Hamilton police force is Leonard Steckley. Leonard is the nice li'l man that directs children across the street down by the school.

City truant officer, Bobby Dean Downing, reports that truancies have been down to a minimum since the new building has been completed. Robert Ball, P.E. teacher finds that he has had absolutely no absences in his classes for the entire year. This is indeed a record. Another dispatch from the high school discloses that Home Ec. instructor Mary Waddell was awarded a presidential citation for outstanding services towards peace through the field of Home Economics.

Sylvia Nieman Lewis is still in the old home town, too. She and her husband are the proprietors of the town's most frequented night club.

Gustie Pesek Phelps and her husband, Robert, have taken over management of the local paper mill and are now rivals of their old friends, Jack Powell and Bev Moore Powell, who run Cascades Plywood.

(Remember Dolores Hammett, Sharon? I wonder where she is. Look her up in the alumni book, will you please? What? She is . . . Well, I never.) I just didn't believe that Dolores and Betty Schackman would carry out their threat of being old maids, and running a bachelor's home. And to think that Barbara Mason and Shirley Heath are helping them.

Thelma Bechtel seems to be married to Robert Train. Robert, now having his doctor's degree, is principal of Crowfoot Grade School.

Bonadel Hickey has announced her engagement to Merle Birch. This will be her tenth marriage in an equal number of years; all former husbands being disposed of by divorce. Another on the much-married list is Doug Wilson, who recently trekked to the altar for the eighth time. However, the title of most-married belongs to Joy Roe who has a record of fifteen husbands. Ordinarily this couldn't be accomplished in ten short years, but Joy has been living in Mexico!

Director of the U. S. Steel manufacturing plant in Detroit is Willard Carper. It is said that Willard molds the steel with his bare hands. Bob Zurcher, Willard's bodyguard, started this choice bit of gossip. George Powell, automobile industrialist, has informed the world that he buys his steel exclusively from Willard. Ski bindings manufacturer, Ralph Voss, also purchases the steel he uses from the Carper company. Ralph is very proud of the fact that Tom Temple, Olympic ski champ, will use nothing but Voss ski bindings.

As expected, Alice Dixon and Dale Pracht are married; but here is the punch line: the marriage took place in June of 1960. Marie Carter, professional social secretary, had charge of the wedding reception which was held in dentist Cleo Downs' lavish home.

Ronald Van Vleet, champion wrestler of the world, and his manager, Gail Fleming, were through here recently on a nation-wide tour. Gail's wife, Betty Sommers, accompanied them on the trip. While stopping in the old town to renew "auld" acquaintances they and their friends, Inez Mastenbrook and Shirley Liggett Blount and husband, went to the hot-rod races. Featured drivers were Floyd Swanson and Warren Lucas.

Celebrating their fifth wedding anniversary this year, Bob Elliott and Shirley Forquer purchased a cake from the Hake (it used to be called Shimanek's) bakery. They secured the Blue Room at the Wagner Hotel for their huge party. Serving the guests were Janice Ostrom, Ilene Postle, Verle Moore, and Keith Klavano. At this gala event Deloris Hanson announced that she and Marshall Swink were married three months previously by Reverend Verle Simms.

Jackie Miller, renowned lecturer, made an appearance in Portland. Most important factor of her speech was a commendation for Lebanon, oops, I mean Hamilton, for the satisfactory sanitary conditions existing in that city. Following Miss Miller on the agenda was Martha Samla, head of the Oregon Board of Educational Improvement. Martha's secretary, Wilma Lewis, had to speak for her at the last moment as an unexpected case was brought to Miss Samla's attention.

Grace Modderman erected a new library in memory of her architect husband, Lavern Hawes.

Yale University admitted Merrilyn Merchant and Charlotte Tampke to take post graduate work there for the past year. These two are the first women to attend classes at this famous institution of knowledge.

Yes, Sharon, I have heard of Helen Lott's success as a costume designer for Warner Bros. studio, but I'll bet you didn't know that she was married to her co-worker, Bruce Howe. And two houses down the street you'll find Lurie McJunkin, another of our old classmates. Look up Jane Slocum. What? She won a beauty contest for having the most beautiful sunburn. Wonder who the judges were. Oh, Helen Kampstra, Dorthea Lebahn, Nona Stevens, and Emma Heyne. Well, I never!

Oh, my goodness — here it is five o'clock. I've spent all afternoon talking to you and I've still got three houses to go before I'm finished taking the census. Wonder who I'll find there, Sharon. Bye!

Signed,
DEE MILLER,
1960 census taker.

To The Class of 1950

May I take this opportunity to congratulate you, the class of 1950, on your successful completion of public school education. I, as your administrator, am proud of each and every one of you. As individuals, you will be missed from our halls, from the classrooms, and from the many activities in which you have been so active. The memories, however, of your many contributions and accomplishments will remain for many years to come.

As you go on to other things, some of you to colleges and universities, some to additional vocational preparation, and some to immediately taking your places as wage earners and homemakers; I hope you will find, that your high school has helped prepare you for your chosen task. I hope that you have gained an understanding of the basic principles of American Democracy, which include the worth of the individual, justice and fair dealing. I trust that you are better prepared for the responsibilities and privileges of family life and for contribution to the welfare of the community, state and nation.

Increasingly, however, as you take on more and more responsibilities, as individuals in our democracy, you will realize, that success depends more and more on your own efforts. Always strive to do your best in any task attempted, regardless of how insignificant, or difficult it may seem. I am confident that each and every one of you who does his or her best will succeed.

We wish you the best of everything. If there is any help that your high school can give to you, now or any time in the future, feel free to call on us. We consider you always a part of us and hope you will return often to let us know, how and what, you are doing.

Sincerely,
Your Superintendent,
J. W. KING

THE CLASS THAT STANDS AT THE MID-CENTURY:

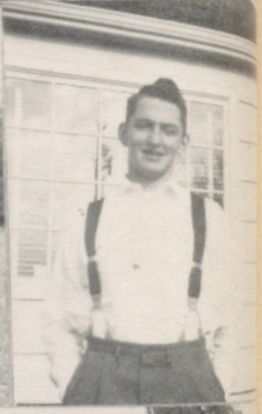

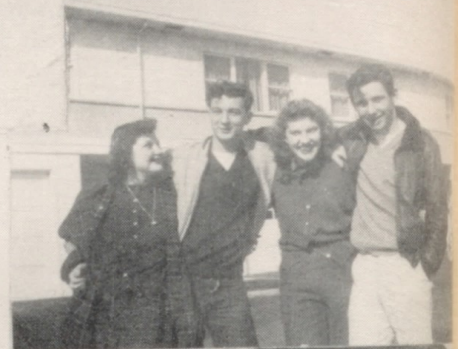

You have looked forward to this period in your school career with changing emotions. You have been a designated group for several years, some of you through the grades and on up through four years of high school. You have worked and played together and made associations you will long remember. You have been doing things together but when you leave Lebanon Union High School you go separate ways, each to carry out some set plan of action.

During these years someone has planned, directed and guided your action; you will soon be on your own. Someone has said building for the future is a difficult task. The future is so uncertain. The needs of today might not be needs of tomorrow. Values, too, change from one day to the next; so do plans, even the best made. However the future is only uncertain when you are unsure of the present. If you have built solid principals during these years, then you have a valuable basis for a more stable future.

As your principal, may I extend to you a sincere wish for your success in whatever you undertake. We will miss you, of course, but your place will be taken by someone else. You have left your impression as individuals and as a group. The coming years will measure the value of that impression. Here is hoping that you will continue to leave an impression that represents the very best there is in you wherever you go and whatever you do.

Junior Class History

BOB HINMAN
President

Ah yes! At last we can call ourselves upperclassmen. It was a long, hard struggle but well worth it.

The Junior Class this year has been very active and successful, having for its President, Bob Hinman; vice president, Darrell Carlson; secretary, Betty Ann Lindley; treasurer, Jessica Simmons; and sergeant-at-arms, Bill Baker. Advisors were Miss Dickens, Junior English teacher; Mr. Earl Gerfen, Junior U. S. History teacher, and Miss Piluso, commercial instructor.

This year, as usual, a very large sum of money was needed for the Junior-Senior Prom and in order to raise the necessary funds the Junior Class presented the play, "We Shook the Family Tree," under the direction of Mr. Ralph Wood, English and Speech & Drama teacher. It was a dramatic success, thanks to the hard work of the director and cast.

The theme of the prom was "Holland Palonaise."

Elected for prom chairman was Leona Neustel; decoration chairman, Mary Mohoff; decoration committee, Bill Baker, Rodney Bean, Wayne Holz-fuss, Doug Jones, Keith Neidert, Dean Smith, Anthony Hummell, Kenneth Lafond, Walter De Kuyper, Dick Nelson, Jerene Strange, Joyce Connet, Phyllis Simmons, Earletta Saxton, Mar'ene Shartel, Margaret Peery, Lavern Root, Joan Baker, and Ardith Benz; orchestra co-chairmen, Darrell Carlson and Walter De Kuyper; orchestra committee, Betty Ann Lindley, Jessica Simmons, and Marcia Osburn; program and invitation chairman, Dawn Neuschwander; program and invitation committee, Mary Anne Herron, Shirley O'Brien, Wanda Burge, and Bud Gilliam; refreshment chairman, Lavern Root; refreshment committee, Sam Gilbert, Patsy McCoy, Earletta Saxton and Jim Gorman. The Prom, which is one of the outstanding events of the year and which attracts enthusiastic participation, is usually anticipated and well attended.

This year's Junior Class was fortunate in having a number of athletes in its ranks. On the "A" Squad football team were Tom Summers, Sam Gilbert, Duane Smith, James Mason, Walter De Kuyper, Bill Andres, Bud Gilliam, Darrell Carlson and Doug Jones.

Our basketball team, too, had many outstanding junior athletes which included Tom Summers, Bob Hinman, Bill Baker and Wayne Holz-fuss.

Another phase of sports in which the juniors took active part were the "B" Squads. Due to this many students received training that will help them next year.

Many successful class meetings were held this year, especially to discuss the class rings and the Prom. The class ring chosen is very delicately designed with a guard on either side of the gold warrior head.

As usual, the class sponsored an assembly. It was composed of many talented performers. Master of ceremonies was Walter De Kuyper. The assembly was under the theme of a club band, which had for its band leader, Miss Jessica Simmons. The assembly proved to be a success with the exception of the part where painting of the rock was emphasized. Painting of the rock seems to be a traditional controversy. However, after much debate and discussion everything was settled and all was right between the classes. Anyhow, the debate between the Seniors and Juniors was dissolved and at present the two classes are on a friendly basis.

Girl of the Month cards were distributed every month at the Girls' League meetings. Beverly Downer and Kay Breeden received cards for "personality;" Dorothy Train and Jan Wiley were awarded cards for "sportsmanship;" Mary Anne Herron and Phyllis Sprague showed exceptional ability in the field of "courtesy;" and Carolyn Landy and Betty Anne Lindley received their cards for "patriotism."

Continual backing for the Warriors was furnished by the Warriorettes, or Pep Club. Junior members of the Warriorettes this year were: Mary Anne Herron, Dawn Neuschwander, Marlene Shartel, Earletta Saxton, Beverly Canoy, Joyce Connett, Shirley O'Brien, Jessica Simmons and Ardith Benz. Yell leaders were Leona Neustel, Barbara Lott, Ken Wilkinson and Dick Nelson. All of the yell leaders were juniors with the exception of Beverly Moore, a senior.

JUNIORS

DEAN BECK
President

The Sophomore Class had a very successful year under the guidance of their advisors, Mrs. Ruth Janke, Miss Mary Mac Lean, Mr. Paul Orr, and Mrs. Martha Council.

In their last meeting as Freshmen, they elected their officers for the following sophomore year. They are as follows: President, Dean Beck; vice-president, Jim Jacobson; secretary, Beverly Jordan; treasurer, Dorothy Frank; student council representative, Johnny Stolsig; and sergeant-at-arms, Larry Moynihan.

Class dues were a dollar for the year, and cards were issued to those who paid.

Christmas gifts were given to the class advisors.

This year's class had quite a number of good athletes. In basketball, Ernie Kirkelie, Jimmy Whitmore, Johnny Stolsig, and Jerry Hamilton, all made the "A" squad. Carl Swanson, Richard Campbell, Jim Jacobson, Dean Beck, Wayne Klavano, Doug Nesbitt, Darrell Richards, and Gene Steward made up a large percentage of the "B" squad basketball team. Our up-and-coming football stars who succeeded in making the

"A" squad this year are as follows: Richard Campbell, Bill Temple, Jerry Simi, Jim Whitmore, and Wally Mitchell. Quite a few of the fella's were interested in wrestling. They were John Brown, Roy Wilber, Jess Ford, Donald Shaver, and Duncan Jones. Quite a number participated in baseball and track as well.

Four girls were chosen the latter part of the year to represent our class in the Pep Club and to use their energy and pep to root for the football and basketball teams at the various games. The following girls were chosen: Agnes Backman, Deloris Welch, Maxine Peoples, and Eva Lou Sparks.

Many sophomores have taken an active part in the band this year, and also in the Girls' Glee, Boys' Chorus, and Advanced Chorus. Large numbers of sophomores were also in the operetta, "Martha." Betty Doggett had one of the leading parts. The operetta, under the direction of Miss Nancy Kirkpatrick, was a complete success.

The theme for the Sophomore Assembly, held on November 27th, was Thanksgiving. Bob McCracken was the master-of-ceremonies. He was dressed like a clown, with an extremely different, colored face and orange hair. He was a very accomplished master-of-ceremonies.

Dean Beck, Tom Canaga, Jim Jacobson and Howard Christensen were in a skit for the assembly. Tom very cleverly outwitted Howard to win Dean's beautiful daughter, who was none other than Jim Jacobson.

Betty Doggett sang "Sympathy," accompanied by Barbara Gamberg at the piano.

May Louise McTimmonds with the help of some other girls, dressed like mules, put on a cute skit entitled "Mule Train." May Louise dressed and colored like a negro, sang "Mule Train," assisted by Vaughn Monroe's recording of the song.

Jerry Hamilton, Dean Beck, Jim Whitmore and Johnny Stolsig sang "Smiles" with very sober faces. They rendered one other selection. They dressed alike and wore mustaches, creating a very good barbershop quartet.

Cynthia Rust gave a cute little reading called "Sister's Best Fella."

Bob McCracken, Richard Osborn, and Larry Moynihan put on a hilarious act called "The Three Moth Balls." Lorraine Baldwin also helped them. In this act, the boys were all dressed alike in striped jackets. They sang a number of songs and were called back for another appearance.

Before the close of the assembly, Mr. Cash offered a prayer of thanksgiving.

The Sophomore class chose their executive council in a different way this year. We decided to have two students from each of Miss Mac Lean's World Culture classes to represent the students in those classes. These students told their own class what was discussed at the executive council meetings. It was arranged that one representative be chosen by the class advisor and the other member by the students.

SOPHIS

Freshman Class History

WAYNE NORMAN
President

The freshman class of Lebanon Union High School has completed a very successful year under the guidance of their able advisors, Miss Eloise Van den Biesen, Mrs. Edith Larson, Mr. Murle Wells, and Mr. Rulan Parham.

This year, 1949-50, the Freshman class had a large enrollment of 188 students.

A freshman class meeting was held at the first of the school year. The purpose of the meeting was to elect class officers. The officers were elected, or selected, as follows: president, Wayne Norman; vice-president, Don Chamberlain; secretary, Roxy Brownlee, treasurer; Janet Humphreys; student council representative, Luan Chandler. These student officers have done a very good job of leading their class this year.

Freshman initiation was very colorful and entertaining, at least for the upperclassmen. The girls of the Freshman class wore gunny-sack dresses and thirteen pigtailed in their hair one man's shoe and one high-heel shoe. The boys had to wear pants cut off at the knees, with rope suspenders.

One important event was the first and last, our only class party. This was a semi-formal affair held in the school cafeteria and lower hall. There was chess, checkers, card games, ping-pong, and a little, very little, dancing! The party was held April 14th, from 7 to 10 p. m. This party was one of the most outstanding events of the year for the freshman class. The decorations and entertainment were enjoyed by everyone. It will be looked back upon in years to come as one of the first memories of their high school years.

Quite a few freshmen have participated in the field of music. The following girls took part in the freshman girls' "nnette," Glenda Campbell, Deloris Lucas, Darlene Powell, Louise Kimes, Beverly Anderson, Ruth Miller, Betty Ann Baldwin Jo Ellen Leach, and Myrna Weaver.

The Freshman class has set up a representative council to eliminate many unnecessary class meetings which will enable them to settle much minor class business without having the entire class meet to dispose of it. Each general mathematics class has two representatives to the council besides the regularly elected class officers. These representatives are: Margaret Gilson, Deloris Lucas, period 2; Marilyn Gilliam, Beverly Nichols, period 3; Marvin Glaser, Keith Richard, period 4; Katherine Davis, Leslie Beaton, period 6; Shirley Jamieson and John Procnier, period 7. This program does away with a lot of class interruptions and saves a lot of time. The teachers, as well as the students, favor this program.

Another exciting and outstanding event was the freshman assembly. This assembly was presented before the student body, May 5, 1950. It was postponed from April 28th. The assembly was opened by the band playing the school song while the students entered the auditorium, and then the band played a very lively number called, "Copa' Cabana." Johnny Dunkley was the master-of-ceremonies. The first freshman number was a song sung by the freshman nnette; they sang, "Enjoy Yourself." Elaine Wheeler played two songs on the piano, "Silver Sleigh Bells," and "Paul Revere's Ride." Roxy Brownlee sang a solo, "I Can Dream, Can't I?" and was applauded until she sang an encore. For her return number she sang, "There's No Tomorrow." Peggy Knapp and Sharon Farmer played an accordion duet which consisted of "Twelfth Street Rag," and then a song called "Lasognola." This was followed by Burl Lott singing "Blue Moon." To close the program a short skit was presented by a group of freshman boys. This group included Christie Messmer, Harold Fiala, Allen Forbes, and Tommy Pressley. The name of the skit was "Numerals Forever." The skit presented a performance of the freshmen painting their numerals on "The Rock," and the seniors coming to the rescue, but the freshmen won in the last by putting their numerals on the rock.

BACK ROW: Higginbottom, Howell, L. Woods, Hawes, Weaver, Leach, Goodwin, Furlong, Pearl, Whitten, Pressley, Parsons, Hoke, Gunderson.
SIXTH ROW: Schriek, Lebahn, Lucas, Dart, Grimes, Dickson, Bechtel, Mitchell, Gilson, Campbell, Vorderstrasse, Kofoid, Dennis, M. Swanson.
FIFTH ROW: Workman, Meisner, Hummell, I. Woods, Pettry, Nordstrand, Coddington, Cobat, Love, Grove, Miles, Anderson.
FOURTH ROW: Chandler, Adkins, Dodds, Kimes, Wilshire, Jamison, Kennedy, Stryker, Richter, Duering, Fulkerson, Larson, Miller.
THIRD ROW: Hutton, Wilcox, Franks, J. Davis, Brownlee, Humphreys, Powell, K. Davis, Baildwin, Housen, Bailey, De Mannette, Downing.

FRESH

Eighth Grade History

J. D. GRIFFITH
President

Our last year as underclassmen; we're finally going to make it! We started the year 1949-50 with a class meeting at which we elected the following officers: President, J. D. Griffith; vice-president, Joe Sprague; secretary, Joanne Johnson; treasurer, Beverly Johnson; student council representatives, Don Gilbert and Dorothy Hinman. The class was conducted very successfully by these students throughout the entire year.

Our first skating party was held on January 12 at the Roll-A-Rena where everyone had a wonderful time, minus the falls and bruises.

The eighth grade members of the Girls' League Council were: Beverly Johnson, Sandra Hevlin, and Geanine Gibson. These girls helped choose, at each Girls' League meeting, the two girls out of each class to receive Girl of the Month awards.

The class held a party in the cafeteria on the nineteenth of October, with games and dancing and which was a huge success judging from the fun everyone had. The decorating was done on the theme of "Fall," in green, rust, and other soft fall colors.

The Eighth Grade basketball tournament was held on February seventh, eighth, and ninth. Players on the team were J. L. Gamblin, J. D. Griffith, Wilbur Rous, Murvel Stone, Dick Johnson, Dick Christensen, Dale Hasenyager, Victor Dixon, (captain) Kenny Kirkelie, and Richard Connet. The boys were cheered on by our students and yell leaders: Marciel Smith, Marilyn Furlong, Dorothy Hinman, Barbara Galarneau, and Sandra Hevlin. Trophies were awarded to: Lebanon, first place; Albany, second; and Crowfoot, sportsmanship. We were very happy to be able to keep the trophy for first place in Lebanon Union High School, and hope the Eighth Grade next year will be able to do the same.

The class assembly was held on March 31 with master of ceremonies being Joe Sprague. The first number was a song by our quartet which consisted of Dick Johnson, J. D. Griffith, Larry Syron, and Bob Flagel who sang "Chattanooga Shoe Shine Boy." The song, "I Said My Pajamas," was acted out very nicely by Geanine Gibson, Dorothy Hinman, Marciel Smith, and Beverly Johnson who were, by the way, in their pajamas.

Then a melodrama, entitled "In the Good Old Nick of Time," was acted out in pantomime with Geanine Gibson as the heroine, J. D. Griffith as the hero, Doug Rhodes playing he father's role, and Beverly Johnson as the mother; and the villian, Don Gilbert. Douglas Rhodes' dog played the part of "Hector," a minor role. Joanne Johnson acted as narrator for the group.

Shirley Strickler played "Someday" on her saxophone. Then there was a reading by Colleen Chilcote, "Our Hired Girl," followed by Mildred Lanning, who presented a skating act, which was nice and decidedly new. Phyllis Greer sang "Serenade of the Bells." Ben Rider took many encores with his wonderful guitar solos. This boy seems to have lots of talent and we hope he'll be at Lebanon next year.

This assembly was a huge success. The eighth graders are looking forward to more such assemblies in the future as they still have lots of unseen talent. Many favorable comments were heard, such as, "With talent such as this, we don't need to worry about the future of L. U. H. S."

The final get-together was a semi-formal party held in May, which was a success judging from the large turnout and the fun everyone had.

The class planned a pot-luck dinner, with all the Eighth Graders in the various rural schools. There were seven schools participating. This party helped all the future Ninth Graders get acquainted with one another and get a little bit used to the school before they started classes here.

Thus ended activities for the year 1949-50; everyone is looking forward to the freshman year!

Band

MAYNARD KIRKELIE
 President

Lebanon High School Band has had another impressive year, continuing a record of fine music under the direction of Mr. Vinton Snyder. This, Mr. Snyder's fourth year, has been very successful, maintaining an enviable reputation for superior work in concerts at home, and in district and state contests.

The band, composed of sixty members, is made up of students representing each of the classes in our high school. Mr. Snyder followed his policy of having young students to take the place of those graduating or transferring. This year will find about fourteen students graduating: Leon Drapela, Effie York, Arlo Lee, Donna Lee Plymale, Maynard Kirkelie, Frank Goodwin, Charlotte Tampke, Bob Phelps, Merle Birch, Dolph Lundholm, Thelma Bechtel, Jim Hersom, Bonadel Hickey, and Alice Canaga, six of whom are first chair players.

A rating of "Superior," or "I," was gained at the Salem District Contest, Lebanon being the only Class B band in the district to receive this coveted rating.

The band played "Stratoliner March," "Wedding of the Winds," and "Golden Glow," which earned for them an "Excellent" rating at the state contest.

Officers for the year were president, Maynard Kirkelie; vice-president, Bob Christenson; representative, Dolph Lundholm; secretary, Phyllis Sprague, and treasurer, Charlotte Tampke.

Boys' Glee

ELAINE GUGGISBERG
 Accompanist

Under the leadership of Miss Nancy Kirkpatrick, a former graduate of L.H.S., the Boys' Glee has had a thriving and successful year.

The group sang at the Christmas Concert, which was held in the Lebanon High School Gym. Last year at the Annual Music Contest held in Albany on April 23, the Boys' Glee received a "2" rating. No other group received a higher rating than a "2." The songs rendered were "De Gospel Train" and "Hey Robin, Jolly Robin." Needless to say the boys, not to mention the school, were very much pleased with the success of their high rating.

Elaine Guggisberg, a senior, who is their piano accompanist, also worked with the Boys' Glee last year.

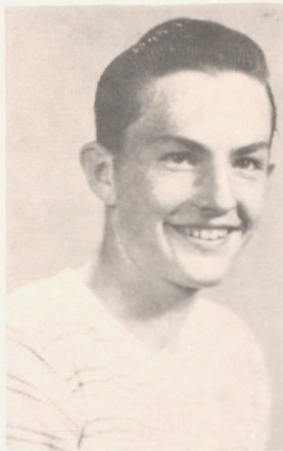

The Boys' Glee is open to boys of any class in high school. No previous training in music is necessary and there are no other academic requirements. The boys receive no school credit, since practicing is not during school time. The boys should be commended for their interest and for the voluntary time spent in practice which reflects genuine enthusiasm for music.

The Glee Club practices on Monday night of each week and anyone is welcome to come, since there are no specified number of boys allowed to join. At the present time there are 25 boys participating in this choral group.

The boys have done a good job this year and during the previous year. We sincerely wish them good luck in the years to follow.

Freshman Glee, a new organization this year, received an exceptionally fine start when ninety students signed for the course. The following led the activities of the year:
President, Burl Lott; vice-president, Ernie Drapela; secretary,
Marciel Smth; treasurer, Dolores Lucas.

This class learned the fundamentals of music, which are necessary for further advancement in the Girls' Glee or Mixed Chorus. Since the Freshman Glee achieved its purpose in training beginners in the rudiments of music, it was felt that such an organization would be a valuable activity to carry on from year to year.

The club performed at the Christmas Concert, singing "Silent Night," "Jingle Bells," and "The Orchestra Song."
At the Spring Concert their selections were: "A Little Brown

An unusual feature of this frosh class were the talent shows which they gave once or twice a month, with members of the class performing. They played musical instruments, sang, or produced their own original ideas as long as the themes were connected with music. Naturally these shows had a slow start, as all new ideas usually do, but by the end of the year everyone enjoyed participating because of the latent intrests in the activities of the group and the necessity for incentives to show-off.

Girls' Chorus

ALICE SCHMIDT
President

The girls' chorus has had a very successful year under the leadership of Miss Nancy Kirkpatrick. These girls produced some very beautiful interpretations for the enjoyment of the entire student body.

The club is composed of approximately sixty-five girls of the senior, junior, and sophomore classes who have had previous choral training. They have presented a number of performances which were outstanding in the year's events. They opened the season with the fall concert. Next they sang at the Christmas concert, and the operetta "Mortha," in which they were the Riding Ladies. The spring concert was presented on May 9 with the May Day program and graduation following shortly. These girls also sang at many other events and programs during the year, but these are a few of the outstanding performances.

At the Christmas concert they sang a combined number with the mixed chorus. This was a new way of singing which had never been tried before by these groups. The carol they sang was the old favorite, "Oh Come All Ye Faithful."

Officers for the 1949-50 year were: Alice Schmidt, president; Melodee Baldwin, secretary; Edris Lanning, treasurer.

Accompanist for these girls was Faye Parks.

Girls' Sextet

ELAINE GUGGISBERG
Accompanist

This year the girls' sextet consisted of the following: seniors, Ilene Postle, Bonita Johnson, Mary Waddell and Dorothea Lebahn; junior, Patsy Burr, and sophomore, Betty Doggett.

Altos were Betty Doggett and Patsy Burr; second soprano, Ilene Postle and Mary Waddell; first sopranos, Dorothea Lebahn and Bonita Johnson. These girls were accompanied by Elaine Guggisberg who is a senior.

The sextet was under the leadership of Miss Nancy Kirkpatrick, who is also the high school musical director.

The sextet has sung for several assemblies and at various meetings, including the Lions Club.

Bonita Johnson took the part of Martha, which was the leading part in the operetta "Martha" by Flotow. Betty Doggett also played a leading role, that of Martha's lady-in-waiting.

The girls for the sextet are chosen at the first of the year on the merit of their voices and experience. All the girls who have taken music or who are now taking it have the opportunity to try out for this special group.

The sextet has done a wonderful job, deserving praise for their cooperation, enthusiasm and ability. The school has reason to be proud of this sextet and their accompanist.

The annual Music Festival was held in Lebanon this year and was attended by contestants from Salem, Albany, Eugene, Corvallis, Sweet Home, Cottage Grove, Springfield, Scio, Dallas, Coburg, Elmira, Eddyville, Lowell, Shedd, Silverton, Newport, Mc-Kerzie, Junction City, and Brownsville.

"Martha"

MARY WADDELL
 Accompanist

On the evening of March 24th the combined Glee Clubs of Lebanon High presented the operetta "Martha" of the "Fair at Richmond" by Freidrich Von Flotow. There were capacity crowds at all three of the performances.

Short stone walls surrounded the stage. There was a very charming picket gate in the middle of the stage which could be opened to allow the cast to go behind the stone walls. There was also ivy and various colored flowers. All of these things made the stage look as if it were really a garden in the time of Queen Ann. These beautiful stage settings were arranged by Miss Burkholder and the Art Department.

The costumes for the two girl leads, the serving girls, and the Ladies of the Court were made by Mrs. Boots. These beautiful costumes added to Queen Ann's era.

The make-up of the complete cast was handled by the make-up staff under the direction of Ralph Wood.

Accompanists during the evening were Mrs. Joel Booth

Main characters in "Martha" were as follows:

Lady Harriet Durham, maid of honor to Queen Ann, Bonita Johnson; Nancy, her friend, Betty Doggett; Sir Tristan Mickelford, Lady Harriet's cousin and suitor, Dick Brannon; Lionel, Plunket's foster brother (True Earl of Darby), Leon Drapela; Plunket, a wealthy farmer, Glen Spence; The Sheriff of Richmond, Dick Duncan; courtiers, Darrell Carlson and Richard Osburn.

The operetta was under the direction of Miss Nancy Kirkpatrick, head of the Vocal Music Department of Lebanon High.

Mixed Chours

LEON DRAPELA
President

Mixed Chorus, this year, is composed of sixty members including sophomores, juniors and seniors. Students of this group must have had previous training in chorus before they are allowed to enroll in this class.

Under the leadership of Miss Nancy Kirkpatrick, they have turned out some beautiful music.

Officers for the 1949-50 Mixed Chorus class were: president, Leon Drapela; vice president, Dorothea Lebahn; secretary, Leona Neustel; and treasurer, Ken Wilkinson. Accompanist for the organization was Mary Waddell.

This group has turned out a number of notable performances during the year. Performing before a large crowd, the Mixed Chorus presented its first concert of the year in December in the high school auditorium.

March 23 and 24 were the dates scheduled for the operetta, "Martha," which was a marvelous success. The leading characters were, Bonita Johnson, Glen Spence, Betty Doggett, Leon Drapela, and Dick Brannon. This was the first operetta given in the past two years. The cast put on three performances; two matinees and a night program.

On May 9, the Chorus sang at the Spring Concert. A few of their selections were the Negro spiritual, "You Were There," "The Italian Street Song," "Along the Navajo Trail," and "June Is Bustin' Out All Over." As shown by the selections sung at the spring concert, new music was acquired this year.

Orchestra

Eleven members comprise the orchestra class.

These students are scattered through three periods, with the third period class being the largest.

Since this is the first year an orchestra class has been offered at L. U. H. S., the classes are naturally smaller than they will be in the future. Next year as the orchestra gets larger Mr. Bolobonoff plans on giving more musical recitals that encourage all groups to play solos.

The class has been working on music that can be divided into parts so that more instruments can play but still have the same type of music. They are also working on one part music and scales. Everyone complains about the sour notes now, but the thought of the beautiful music which will come later is something for them all to look forward to.

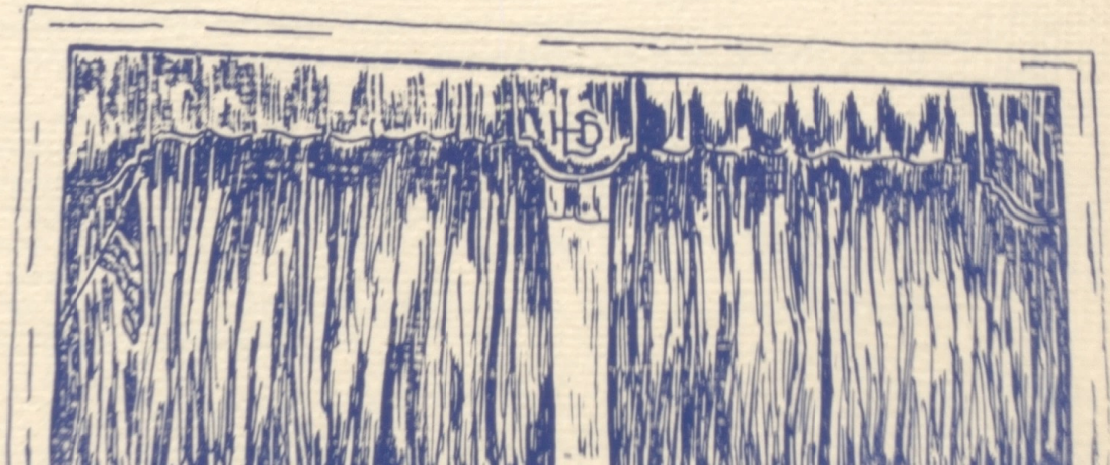

Although there is plenty of talent in the class, more students would be appreciated. The present group played at the band concert. With no regular period to practice, and doing all of their practicing at noon, these students have done very well.

Mr. Bolobonoff, their teacher, is new this year. He has done very well with this orchestra, it being the newest addition to the music department.

"American Passport"

March 10 is a date not to be forgotten, for this marked the production night of "American Passport," the all-school play of 1950.

The curtain opened on an average American home where we met Ed Hamilton, a good American father, who at first was a little dull, but later woke up to the fact that communism is dangerous and that he had to do something about it. He did! This part was characterized by Merle Birch.

Bertha, portrayed by Eva Lou Sparks, was the empty-headed, rattle-brained mother, who, after a long while, decided her husband was all right and that her place was in the home.

Dick Nelson played the part of Dick Hamilton, an American youth whose ideals almost led him on to the path of Communism. He turned back when he discovered that Communism in reality would only destroy the foundations of his country.

Judy, portrayed by Barbara Gamberg, was the faithful follower of her brother, Dick. She was a young, very easily impressed girl.

Luella, the youngest daughter in the Hamilton family, was played by Marilyn Furlong. Luella was noted for her perpetual hunger and curiosity.

Bill Wilson, acted by Dick Duncan, was a respectable bachelor, a catch in any language.

The humorous and spritely old lady who had a lot of money which she knew what to do with (keep it), was Mr. Hamilton's Aunt Jen, and the cast member, Caryl Wilson.

Heleen Kampstra took the part of Mrs. Schwartz, an angry neighbor who twisted Mr. Hamilton's nose right in his own living room.

Mr. Hamilton's employer, Mr. Craig, was characterized by Jimmy Gorman. Mr. Craig was considered a good solid American.

Extras in the cast were, Louise Kimes, Robert Train, Charlotte Tampke, Dolph Lundholm, Phyllis Sprague, and Rita Kenyon.

"Come Rain or Shine"

This year the Senior Class presented "Come Rain or Shine," May 19, 20, 26, 27, with the greatest of ease. "Come Rain or Shine" was a rollicking comedy written in the spirit of fun, but insight and warm affection underlying the merriment adds a refreshing ring of truth to the situation and characters.

This hilarious three-act play was given in intimate theatre style in which the audience is sitting around the stage. This senior class was the first group to present this type of play in the Willamette Valley and possibly in all of Oregon.

The cast of the play included Mary Waddell who portrayed Jacqueline Grayson. She was eager to grow up, but she was even more eager for excitement. Romance and the summer theatre provided it. Dorothea Lebahn played Rosemary March. She was about twenty and was all that one expected; beautiful, self centered, and spoiled, Jane Slocum as Mrs. Grayson was an extravagant and mild woman about forty. Alice Schmidt played Irene Holden, a college girl. Sharon Rhodes was Irene's younger sister of seventeen. Caryl Wilson, as Julia March, is in her seventies; strongminded and domineering. Joan Davis was the maid. Jean Rowell as Anne Barry, was a tall, attractive woman about twenty-five. Kay Lynn Ross as Ella Stone, was about thirty and was bored all the time.

Delcres Miller as Mrs. Sparks, an old walking gazette, starts an abundance of gossip. Wally De Kuyper portrayed Dan Lyons, a tall handsome, dramatics teacher who gets himself mixed up with love. Max Crossan was cynical Glenn, a very lazy freshman who wants peace; swimming and tennis meant exertion. Jay Nelson was the father who was energetic and hadn't a sense of humor. Wesley Osborn as Dick Clements, was a pleasant, casual man of twenty-one. Floyd Swanson as Fred, was about thirty and was a sharp little fellow.

The play took place in the summer home of the Grayson's. There was never a dull moment from the time Glenn shoots the squirrels in the attic until Mr. Grayson carried Mrs. Sparks over his shoulder in the third act.

"We Shook the Family Tree"

This year the Juniors presented "We Shook the Family Tree," a comedy that was loaded with laughs from start to finish. It was about Hildegarde Dolson, played by Kay Ross. Hildegarde was a girl of sixteen with a knack for dramatizing; her vivid imagination often got her into trouble.

Pat Parsons played Mr. Dolson, a man about forty with not much of a sense of humor. Mrs. Dolson, a firm but understanding mother in her early forties, was played by Virginia Hilton. Carolyn Landy played Sally. Sally was Hildegarde's younger sister who tended to imitate Hildegarde in her actions and gestures. She was very loyal to Hildegardé. Bob was played by Dick Nelson. He was a year or so younger than Hildegarde but considered himself quite grown up. His passion was fishing. He, also, liked to tease Hildegarde, but there was nothing really malicious in it.

Lowell Swanson played as Jimmy, Bob's younger brother. He was a gadget inventor. He tagged along with Bob most of the time, and they were often in cahoots when mischief was afoot. Paige, was played by Bonnie Ludtke. She was a girl of six or seven who liked to play postman. Ellie-Mae, a very attractive girl of Bob's age, who tries to look and act more sophisticated than she is, was played by Shirley O'Brien. She wound Bob around her little finger with the greatest of ease. Jill, played by Norma Auman, was slightly younger than Ellie-Mae, and was her faithful satellite. She was cute in a babyish way.

Freddie Shermer, played by Kenneth Wilkinson, was a boy of Hildegarde's age, and was a perfectly nice boy, except for the fact that his mother made him wear knickers. This domination by his mother gave him an inferiority complex. Mr. Shermer, was played by Jimmie Gorman and was a stiff, pompous little man in his late forties. He owned the bank in which Mr. Dolson worked. Margaret Peary played as Mrs. Shermer, a very fussy woman in her forties. She was inclined to baby herself as well as Freddy.

The plot of the play revolves around obtaining a date for Hildegarde's first formal. How the date was finally obtained to the satisfaction of everyone constitutes the action of "We Shook the Family Tree."

Ludtke, Peary, Hilton, Landy, Parsons, Ross, Gorman, Wilkenson, Scott, O'Brien, Swanson, Auman.

Stage Craft

JACK POWELL
President

The stagecrafters have been busy most of the year making different settings and scenes for plays. Jack Powell was elected president at the beginning of the year and Darrell Richard, secretary.

The thirteen members in the club did repainting and recovering of flats and scenery for the Junior Class Play, "We Shook the Family Tree," and the all-school play, "American Passport." They changed the scenery two times during the operetta "Martha." During the year they also had to have the stage ready for every assembly.

For each different stage setting, there was a separate stage manager. Rodney Bean was the manager for the Junior play, Jim Hersom for the all-school play, and Bill Baker for the operetta.

Most of the settings were put up in one day. Rodney Bean did all the electrical work, with helpers Wayne Holzfluss and Bill Baker.

They put up scenery for May Day and helped decorate cars and build frames for the Strawberry Fair.

The school would be at a great disadvantage without this fine club. It would not have an organization to put up settings for the stage for all programs and to do other similar work around the school.

Miss Lovedy Burkholder has done a very fine job with this organization, inspiring them to keep on the job and to complete their projects in the allotted time.

Thespians

JANICE KING
 President

The Thespians, Lebanon High School's branch of the National Thespian Society, was adopted this year by the former Dramatis Personae. The National Thespian Society was introduced by Mr. Ralph Wood, drama teacher, who proved a very capable advisor for the organization.

Officers for this year were: President, Janice King; vice-president, Barbara Mason; secretary, Sharon Rhodes; program chairmen, Caryl Wilson and Wilma Lewis; refreshment chairmen, Kenneth Wilkenson and Louise Kimes.

There are approximately forty charter members. This is an honorary but non-social society. All members must be able to fill certain requirements to be invited into the club. Mainly, one must be in one or more plays or serve on the makeup staff for several plays.

The makeup staff consists of a few students who apply makeup to the actors in order to earn points. The goal of being a Thespian is realized when ten points are obtained. These makeup artists learn the art of using makeup for far or close range. The operetta and all plays this year were made up by this staff.

Plays given throughout the year were the junior play, "We Shook the Family Tree;" "American Passport," sponsored by the Girls' League; and "Come Rain or Shine" produced by the Senior Class. Most members taking part in these plays were initiated into the club.

February eleventh marked Thespians' first initiation. From then on, meetings were held every second Tuesday of each month.

Driver Training Class

The Driver Training Class received a new Chevrolet this year through the American Automobile Association. The car is co-sponsored by the Scott-Chrisman Garage.

During the year approximately sixty student drivers were trained. Even though the first semester group drove without the dual control equipment, there was no damage done to the car. Total mileage put on the speedometer the first semester was well over three thousand miles.

All additional equipment was furnished by the American Automobile Association. At the end of each year the car is returned and at the beginning of the next school year they receive a new Chevrolet.

Thirty-six hours of book work and thirty-two hours of actual driving are required before credit is received. This is only a half-year course with only one-half credit given.

After finishing this course and attaining the age of sixteen, the student will find it easy to pass the state license examination.

The car is serviced by the school and is completely covered by insurance.

Only students of the driver training class and the instructor are permitted to use the automobile.

This year's driving class was organized and trained under the direction of Mr Russell Scott.

F. H. A.

DEE WELCH
 President

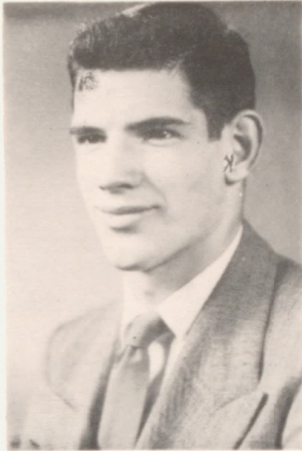

At the close of this school year the members of the Future Homemakers of America can look back with pride on the accomplishments they have achieved. The advisors, officers, and members all cooperated in making the F.H.A. a more active and interesting organization. The officers for this year were: President, Delores Welch; vice-president, Ilene Daily; treasurer, Jordy Jordan; and secretary, Martha Samla. Advisors were Mrs. Larson and Mrs. Council.

During the football season the F.H.A. girls sponsored their annual chili-feed in honor of the fellows that played on the football squads. This chili-feed was looked forward to by everyone. The dinner was held in the school cafeteria.

To help keep the financial status at an even level the F.H.A. girls sponsored several home-cooked food sales which were held in Bob and Jack's Market. These sales were very satisfactory as money-making projects. Girls who failed to participate in these sales were fined fifty cents.

During the school year each class and organization is expected to work up an assembly for the entertainment of the student body, and the F.H.A. assembly fulfilled its purpose. A number was offered by Bonita Johnson, who sang "A Dreamer's Holiday," accompanied by Elaine Guggisberg. An unusual skit was also given as a prelude to the Lebanon-Sweet Home basketball game which was to take place in the evening. This was a wrestling-boxing match between some burly boys that represented the two towns of Lebanon and Sweet Home. The fellows were all handicapped by being blindfolded. Lebanon won, naturally!

Fire Squad

MARSHALL SWINK
Fire Chief

The fire squad this year is comprised of seventeen boys. Seven new members were placed on the squad this year. They are: Doug Jones, Jim Mason, Leon Drapela, Bob Christensen, Bill Temple, Dean Smith, and Tom Summers. The boys of last year's squad remaining for further action were: Bob Hinman, Darrell Carlson, Dick Duncan, Bill Baker, Ralph Voss, Lloyd Glaus, Gene Beck, Dee Carter, Tom Temple, and Marshall Swink. These boys grades are checked through the office, and a grade point average of a "3" must be obtained before they are accepted into the squad.

Marshall Swink was elected fire chief, and Bob Hinman secretary and treasurer.

The squad's advisor is Mr. Parham, who posts the boys to different sections throughout the building. Their duties are to make sure that all lights are out and all windows and doors closed. The main object of the club is to direct students out of the building.

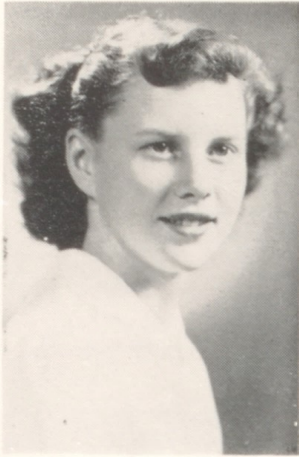

There were nine fire drills this year, with at least one fire drill a month. All the boys must know how to operate all school fire extinguishers and hoses.

Our high school has had a very efficient fire squad combined with the best in fire-fighting equipment. Every one should show respect to both the equipment, and to the boys who take on the responsibilities of fire-fighting. Mr. Parham has done a good job in advising and instructing the Fire Squad.

SECOND ROW: T. Temple, Carlson, B. Temple, Hinman, Baker, Mason.

G. A. A.

BEV CANOY
President

The year 1949-1950 proved to be a very thriving and successful year for the eighteen girls enrolled in the G.A.A.

The new officers elected at the last meeting of the year were as follows: Beverly Canoy, president; Shirley O'Brien, secretary; and Lavern Root, sports-manager. Various persons were selected as managers for the different sports that were played. A vice-president and club reporter were not considered necessary.

The different activities of the club were: basketball, volleyball, softball, hiking, and biking.

Ten points were earned from any tournament played in throughout the year. Fifty points are required for membership in the club, and when one hundred and fifty points are earned, the G.A.A. sweater and the large "L" may be purchased. One hundred points are rewarded with a small "L." A gold pin is given for two hundred points. A member must make fifty points a year to be allowed to stay in the club. The points may be earned by partaking in the G.A.A. activities. Points may be earned by bowling and skating, also.

New members are initiated into the club by the old members.

During the year the G.A.A. sold cokes, candy, popcorn, and ice cream during different basketball or football games. The sales went over very well.

G.A.A. also put on an assembly, which was in honor of the baseball and track lettermen.

The officers for next year will be elected during the last meeting. They will be chosen on the basis of their ability to think and act clearly and quickly.

During the year the G.A.A. has been under the capable guidance of Miss Roye and Miss Van den Beisen. The Girls' Athletic Association is working for a brighter future.

Girls' League Council

JANE SLOCUM
 President

The year 1949-50 proved to be a very highly satisfactory year for the Girls' League Council. All of the members of the Girls' League have co-operated with the Council whenever they were asked to do so.

Included in the council this year were Jane Slocum, president; Dawn Neuschwander, vice-president; May Louise Mc-Timmonds, secretary; Leona Neustel, treasurer; Janice King, point chairman; Bonita Johnson, social chairman; Mary Waddell, Big-Little-Sister chairman; Joan Davis, Elaine Guggisberg, and Maxine Alley, senior representatives; Melodee Baldwin, and Earletta Saxton, junior representatives; Lorraine Baldwin, Agnes Backman, and Dee Welch, sophomore representatives; Madeline Bailey, Pat Dodds,, and Beverly Nichols, freshman representatives; Geanine Gibson, Sandra Hevlin, and Beverly Johnson, eighth grade representatives. Mrs. Kay Kincaid Greame, Dean of-Girls, was their advisor.

The Girls' League was very active this year selling refreshments at several football and basketball games. They also sold candy and decals during the noon hour in the hall.

One of the high-lights of the year was the all-school play, "American Passport," sponsored by the group. It was a big hit with a record attendance. Mr. Jack A. Haynes, representing Governor McKay, spoke between the second and third acts.

A number of interested girls worked on a project decorating and furnishing the Girls' League room. It is a noon-time retreat for girls who wish to rest, listen to the radio, read magazines, or do school work. The girls have cleverly furnished the room with a desk, radio, daveno, chairs, and magazines.

Hi-Light

DEE MILLER
Editor

Through the guidance of a capable staff, the Hi-Light published a good paper. Although it is difficult to please everyone, judging from a few adverse comments, the paper was put out on schedule and most of the news items faithfully recorded by a large staff of reporters.

The business managers were tireless in soliciting advertising and are to be commended.

The sports editors faithfully filled the pages with the latest sports results.

Wally De Kuyper edited an interesting column of his own for which he was responsible. His predictions were always good for a laugh.

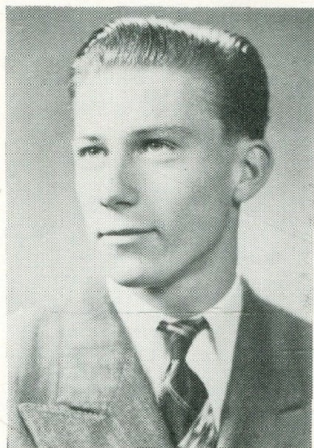

RONNIE FRUM
Editor

At the editorial judging contest at Pacific University, the Hi-Light editorials carried 71 out of a possible 100 points. Special commendation was awarded the follow-up editorials concerning the "Rock."

Next year's staff will be headed by Agnes Backman as editor and Cynthia Rust, business manager.

Hi-Y

KEITH KLAVANO
President

Hi-Y obtained a good start in the year 1949-50 by electing the following people: Keith Klavano, president; Leon Drapela, secretary; Ralph Miller, treasurer; and Ra.ph Voss, chaplain. As in previous years, "Bud" Page served as club advisor.

There were only thirty-five members in the Hi-Y this year as the club takes only as many students as there are graduating members. This system controls the membership to a definite number.

Freshmen and eighth grade students are not eligible for membership.

The Hi-Y motto is: "To create, maintain and extend throughout the school and community, high standards of Christian character."

School service is one of the projects in which H-Y has a'ways helped. This year they sponsored a very successful dance in the local Elks Temple, put on an assembly, gave three one-act plays, and bought a daylight screen for the use of all the classes in school.

World Service is another of their projects. Money was donated to further this activity. The boys also contributed to the Community Chest and the March of Dimes.

Members of Hi-Y are selected on the basis of the points mentioned in this club motto. Petitions for new members are made by a member of the Club. The petition then must be voted on by all the members. This action is taken every spring.

Nine years mark the age of Lebanon's Hi-Y Club.

Latina Collegium

MARY ANN HERRON
President

The Latina Collegium is made up of first and second year Latin students. On the agenda for the year's business was the revision of the constitution. Annabelle Francis, who was chairman of the constitution committee, was assisted by Betty Fuller, Dick Thoma, and Harold Zehr. To get away from such a prosaic term as Latin Club, the group selected a more interesting one, "Latina Collegium."

The officers for this year were: President, Mary Ann Herron; secretary, Beverly Canoy; treasurer, Max Crossan; student council representative, Betty Anne Lindley; publicity chairman, Mary Jone Hochgraef; faculty advisor, Mr. Neuman.

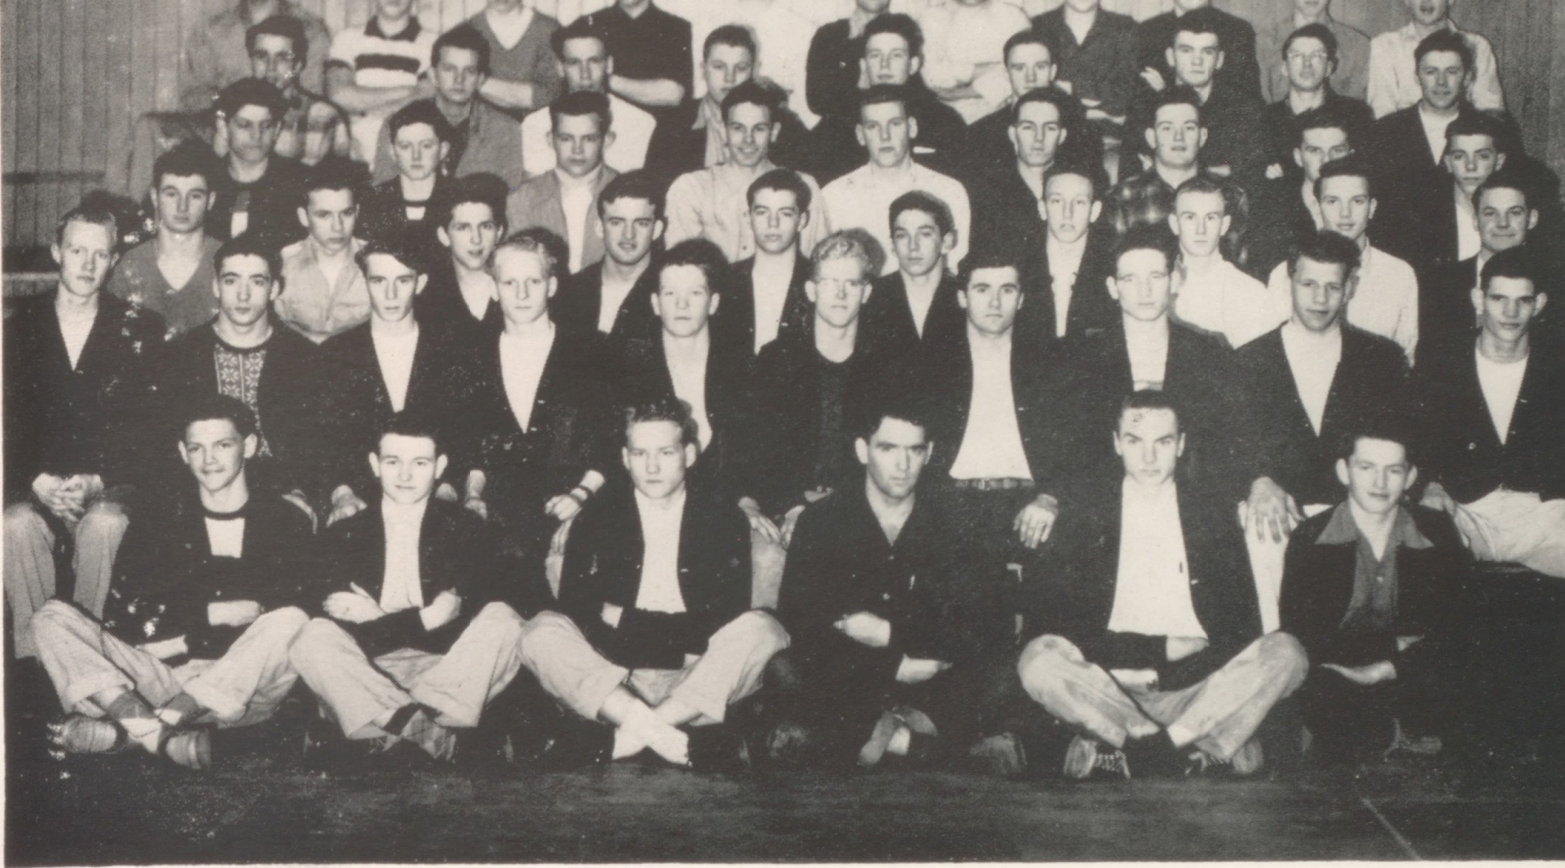

Among the high point grade students in Latin, Mary Ann Herron was the most outstanding, with an average of 99.8. She has continued to maintain her excellent grades throughout two years of Latin study.

During March those members with a "3" grade average or more, received their Latin pins. Approximately thirty members were eligible for pins. For all members of the second year Latin class, the club paid 50 per cent of the cost of the pins.

The group met once a month, when regular business matters were discussed and voted upon. No social activity was scheduled for the year as other school events took precedence over anything planned by the group. To augment their funds the club sold refreshments at the basketball games.

Lettermen's Club

MEARYLE CHRISTENSEN
 President

This organization is one of the best working clubs in the school. It is under the direction of Earl Gerfen. The officers were elected early in the year and were: President, Mearyle Christensen; vice-president, Marshall Swink; secretary, Edwin Baldwin; treasurer, Gene Beck, and sergeant-at-arms, Dick Duncan.

After many years of inactivity the club became very active, taking over the job of taking tickets and watching gates at football and basketball games. Teachers can now come to games without having to work every minute instead of enjoying the games.

Main project of the year was protecting the new school building from being destroyed or defaced by a few careless or inconsiderate students. A council was organized which worked as a judiciary unit to judge people who were caught destroying school property. The members were Mearyle Christensen, Edwin Baldwin, Jack Powell, Hugh Herron, Bill

Andres, Dean Beck, and Bill Baker.

Wrestling was a new sport at Lebanon this year and was responsible for ten new members in the club. Although this is quite a small number, the future holds promise of many more.

A picnic was planned which took place at Suttle Lake. It was an all day event and the boys were permitted to take girls if they so desired.

Lettermen also sponsored an eighth grade invitational basketball tournament. They took care of all arrangements for the programs and refreshments.

Library Club

DORTHEA LEBAHN
 President

Officers elected for the Library Club this year were as follows: Dorothea Lebahn, president; Martha Samla, vice-president; Peggy Graham, secretary; and Shirley Heath, treasurer.

Members are chosen by Mrs. Burns, librarian and club advisor, for their intelligence, dependability, and efficiency, and who have been recommended by two teachers. Other important qualifications are a pleasing personality and the ability to meet students. The purpose of this club is to learn fundamentals of librarianship.

Those students chosen as members are to serve as library assistants. The efficiency of the library depends entirely upon the way the assistants carry out various duties assigned to them at the beginning of the year by Mrs. Burns.

The Library Club had eighteen active members; each had definite duties. Joan Baker had charge of the periodicals, Shirley Heath took over library statistics and displays, and Phyllis Sprague had charge of overdue books and fines.

The typists were Dolph Lundholm, Peggy Graham, Donna Plymale, Peggy Ross, Martha Samla, Caryl Wilson, and Dorothea Lebahn. The latter also did all filing of catalog cards. The circulation desk was cared for by Norma Carroll, Lois Bremer, Shirley Forquer, Maxine Gott, Barbara Lott, Earletta Saxton, and Shirley Heath—one girl for each period.

The club went on a field trip to Salem in April, and while there visited the Salem High School Library, the Oregon State Library and the State Capitol.

Office Girls

The office force this year was made up of a group of 23 senior girls. Credit is given toward graduation for this office work. The girls are kept busy with such jobs as collecting the absence slips from each room in the building, answering the telephone, waiting on the public, taking messages of various kinds, helping keep the attendance records; running the mimeograph and ditto machines, typing, running numerous errands, and assisting Mrs. Helen Price, secretary to Mr. A. B. Cash.

Girls with some previous typing and stenographic experience are those who are chosen to do the office work. They are as follows: Magdalen Rous, Beverly Davis, and Dorothea Lebahn, first period; Dolores Hammett and Adelean Rous, second period; Elizabeth Simmons, and Lorna Wagner, third period; Betty Schackman and Sharon Rhodes, fourth period. Fifth period in the afternoon we find Delores Miller and Merrilyn Merchant in the office; sixth period, Alice Canaga and Delores Cruise; seventh period, Alice Dixon and Beverly Moore. Working in Mrs. Greame's office we found Barbara Mason, Jane Slocum, Doris Hake, and Janice King. Gustie Pesek, Betty Sommers, De-wanda Hamilton and Bonita Johnson work in Mr. King's office.

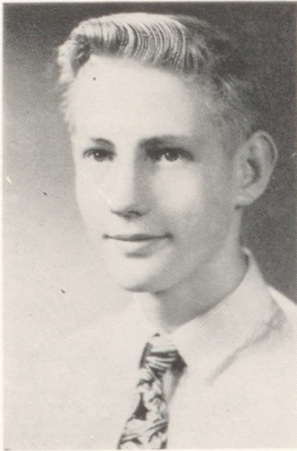

Such work as filing, typing, and meeting the public that each girl does will be of valuable experience to her in the future if she plans on a career involving any of these activities. The aim the girls strive for in their work is efficiency, a great asset for anyone regardless of their occupation.

The office force does not have any organized outings and trips as other school organizations do. The girls have fun just being together and gaining experience that may prove so valuable to them someday.

Palateers

DICK NELSON
President

The Palateers got off to a very successful year under the guidance of Miss Lovedy Burkholder, the advisor of the club.

Dick Nelson was president; Mary Ann Herron, vice-president; Bob Elliott and Mary Mohoff, secretaries; and Darrell Carlson, treasurer. However, during March the Palateers had to elect a new president as President Dick Nelson was moving. Mary Mohoff was elected to fill this position for the remainder of the year 1950 and next year, 1951.

Early in the school year there was an initiation and installation party for the new members and new officers. During the initiation, refreshments were served and then a formal installation took place.

February eighth, a Greyhound bus was chartered by the club and a group of the members traveled to Portland to visit Meier and Frank's to see the Scholastic Art Award Contest exhibition. From Meier and Frank's the group of students visited the Oregon Ceramic Studio where a skilled potter gave a demonstration, using a potter's wheel. The group also stopped at Colony Town Pottery where another skilled potter gave a demonstration.

The Art Club assembly, which was Friday, January 13, proved enjoyable and amusing to the student body. The skit was written and directed by Dick Nelson.

During the course of the year the Art Club has contributed their services to the operetta, the all-school play, the junior play, the fall and Christmas concerts, and the May Day activities, as well as other things.

Pepperettes

KAY BREEDEN
 President

First organized during the school year of 1949-1950, the Drill Team is under the leadership of Miss Genevieve Piluso. The title "Pepperettes" was chosen by the members.

The 1949-1950 officers are, president, Kay Breeden and secretary, Betty Cray.

The purpose of the Drill Team is to entertain between the halves of football and basketball games, to back up the "Pep Club" with their yelling and to add more color to the cheering section of Lebanon High.

The Drill Team girls wear blue pleated skirts, which were dyed especially for them by the Brownsville Woolen Mills. They also wear white Columbia knit sweaters with a red and blue chenille letter on the front of it.

The biggest and most successful event of the year was "Top Hat" held in the gym on March 31. This was a dance giving the atmosphere of a night club. Some of the faculty members and students took part in the entertainment.

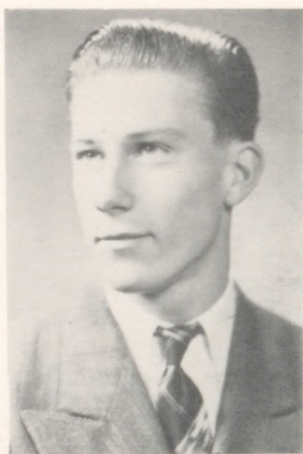

The Drill Team held many successful candy sales in the hall to augment their funds.

To round out the school year the group enjoyed a picnic and a skating party.

Trade and Industry

KEITH KLAVANO
 President

The Trade and Industry Class, better known as the T & I, has been quite active this year. It has increased in size since it was started in 1948 until it now has thirty-two students enrolled.

Mr. Dodds is the advisor of the club; Keith Klavano is the president; Bonita Johnson, vice-president; and Thelma Bechtel, secretary-treasurer.

This is a regular credit course with students attending class in the morning and working in the afternoon. Some of the students who had taken T & I one year and were unable to take it this year because of lack of time in their schedules, still worked on the T & I plan, even though they did not attend the classroom sessions.

A very close contact is kept between the employer and the advisor. The advisor visits the place of the student's employment a few times during the year.

Two report cards are issued to the students: one from the employer and one from the instructor which is based on their classroom work, which consists of learning about qualifications and training needed to do different jobs.

This year the boys from the T & I class formed a basketball team and competed against T & I classes from other schools.

An annual banquet is held for the class every year which takes place in the high school cafeteria. All the students and their employers are invited to be there. A guest speaker also attends this banquet.

Deep sea fishing was also in the program for the class, being scheduled sometime during the month of May.

Tri-Y

Gloria Logan
President

In September, sixty-nine junior and senior girls elected the following girls to lead their activities for the year: President, Gloria Logan; vice president, Beverly Canoy; treasurer, Elizabeth Simmons; secretary, Earletta Saxton; chaplain, Jacquelyn Whitmore; historian, Betty Ann Lindley; song leader, Lavern Root; and student council representative, Shirley O'Brien.

The advisors for the club are Miss Schiltz and Mrs. Gilley. The Adult Advisory Committee consists of Mrs. Gilley, Mrs. Paul Southworth, Mrs. K. T. Markuson and Mrs. Bill Thomas.

Since Tri-Y is the junior division of the Y. W. C. A., the activities pursued are those which help girls to grow in body, mind, and spirit. Not only are they interested in their individual selves but also in group life. The activities chosen are those which help the individual and the group to grow. The activities which stressed the individual angle were the discussion on clothes, and boy-girl relations discussion with the Hi-Y, dancing lessons, bridge lessons, and earning the right to wear a pin. The activities which helped to enlarge their social relationships were: giving of chocolate bars to needy European children; the giving of food, clothes and gifts to a local family at Christmas; sending colorful cards and pencils to a Chinese girls' school; social dancing with the Hi-Y; a Mother-Daughter Dinner and the senior farewell.

The Tri-Y is a service organization also. This year the group helped the school by sponsoring one of the Teen-Age dances at the Elks Temple, and by uniting with the Hi-Y in cleaning up the campus after the May Day festivities.

Machine Shop

MAYNARD KIRKELIE
President

The High School Vocational Machine Shop Club has done much in maintaining the high school's equipment in the high school gym and other places.

The club this year obtained a soda pop dispenser and has sold pop to make money for the club. The club takes a fishing trip annually which is paid for by the money which they have made during the year.

Under the advisorship of the machine shop instructor, Mr. Gainer, the club held an open house to the students and machine shop boys' parents to let them see how the machines were operated and what part the boys took in operating them. The first year students took part in the demonstration also. They helped in guiding the parents and friends about the shop. There were two shifts of an hour and a half with the operation of the machines changing hands at the end of the first hour and a half. The parents were given a small piece of steel at the beginning of the demonstration and took it to the different machines where it was worked upon.

The machine shop classes made a field trip to Portland to view the Industrial Air Products Co. plants in northwest Portland. The classes split into two groups and toured the plants seeing how oxygen and acetylene tanks are made and filled.

This year the club's fishing trip took them to Siltkoos Lake for an enjoyable week-end of fishing under the guidance of Mr. Gainer. Only part of the boys went on the trip, as it was held at an extremely busy time of the year.

Warriorettes

BETTY SCHACKMAN
 President

The Pep Club of Lebanon High had a very successful year under the capable supervision of Miss Verna Lewis, its advisor. The officers of the club were as follows: President, Betty Schackman; vice president, Dolores Hammett; secretary, Lorraine Baldwin; treasurer, Dawn Neuschwander; and attendance director, Mary Ann Herron.

Dues for the year were set at $1.50 for new members and fifty cents for all old members.

To start the year off right, the "Warriorettes" sponsored an exchange assembly with Albany on September twenty-third. This was the afternoon of the Albany football game at Lebanon.

Later in the year they sold stationery with Warrior heads at the top of each sheet. The purpose of this project was to gain money for other activities.

The girls added small blue and red hats to their regular costumes this year. These were worn as part of the regular Pep Club outfit.

The dances after the University High football game and the Albany basketball game were sponsored by the Pep Club. They also sponsored a very clever assembly on January 6th.

Pat Dodds, Luan Chandler, Marilyn Thompson, Joyce Davis, Janet Humphreys, Katy Davis, Delores Lucas, and Myrna Weaver were the eight freshman girls initiated into the club after the first nine weeks of school.

Moore, Wilkenson, Neustel, Nelson, Lott.

Yell Team

The "A" squad yell leaders, who represented the school, were elected this year by the entire student body. Tryouts were held in the beginning of the year when the candidates performed first in front of the "Pep Club" where preliminaries were held; then later on an assembly before the entire student body was called and the candidates introduced. Each group gave a yell. After the assembly, ballots were distributed. Later in the afternoon it was announced over the inter-com that our new yell leaders were Bev Moore, Ken Wilkinson, Leona Neustel, Barbara Lott and Dick Nelson.

A full season of football started early in September with as much pep and enthusiasm as possible. Though it was as drippy as the Oregon rainy season always is, this did not dampen their spirits in the least. They made it their goal to create greater school spirit and "all out" attendance at games.

Basketball started soon after football ended and many new yells and acrobatic routines were introduced. Much pep and enthusiasm was shown at these games also under the direction of these leaders.

In the pep assemblies much spirit was shown, and according to the "Warriors" all this backing was really inspirational. As there weren't any "B" squad yell leaders elected this year, the "A" squad leaders yelled at the "B" games as well as the "A."

Although buses were not taken to many out-of-town games, the yell leaders appeared at many of the games to support the Lebanon teams. If enough members of the student body were present, yells were directed.

Football "A" Squad

The Grants Pass Cave Men spoiled the Warriors first game of the football season by hanging a 25-0 waxing on them. The game was played at Grants Pass.

Lebanon was the underdog to their next opponent, Albany. They held the Bulldogs to a 6-6 tie. This showed the fine work of George Van Pelt and Murle Wells in developing players to fill the vacancies left by graduation of seniors on last year's squad.

Although a good scrap was put up by the Warrior, the Corvallis Spartans overcame them 20-6. Lebanon scored first when Jack Powell, fullback, charged 32 yards for a touchdown, the only one for Lebanon. Corvallis came back with a score in each of the remaining quarters to win. Wally DeKuyper, defensive right half, was injured on the game and was kept from competition for the remainder of the season.

Myrtle Point's Bobcats overwhelmed the Warriors 33-0 in the next game of the season. Lebanon couldn't seem to get a scoring drive started. The Bobcats showed a good running and passing attack as well as playing an excellent defensive game.

Sweet Home fell victim to the first Warrior victory. This was Lebanon's first league game and they had a field day, defeating the Huskies 38-0. Everyone on the squad saw action in this game.

St. Mary's Gaels found the Warriors a little too much to handle; Lebanon won the game 26-20. St. Marys scored first early in the contest. Lebanon made the next touch-down and also the conversion to lead the Gaels 7-6.

The Cottage Grove Lions supplied a good battle but lost to the Warriors 7-6. Cottage Grove was the host team.

The next game was with University High of Eugene and was the last contest of the season. Lebanon won the game 7-0, clinching the Willamette League championship for the Warriors.

There are thirteen lettermen returning for the 1950 season. They are Bill Andres, Richard Campbell, Darrell, Carlson, Wally DeKuyper, Sammy Gilbert, Bud Gilliam, Doug Jones, Wallace Mitchell, Jim Mason, Deane Smith, Tom Summers, Bill Temple, and Jim Whitmore. These boys will form the base of next year's football eleven.

The Warriors won the Willamette League championship and trophy. Dick Duncan, Don Anthony, Marshall Swink, and Maynard Kirkelie won places on the League's All-Star team for their outstanding playing ability. Duncan and Anthony were tackles; Swink, a guard, and Kirkelie served as fullback.

In the scoring department Jack Powell led the team with four touchdowns for 24 points. Tied for second place were Maynard Kirkelie and Jim Whitmore with 18 points apiece. Sam Gilbert had fourteen points and Doug Jones and Leon Orapela each had 6. Willard Carper had four points which he had earned by kicking four conversions.

Basketball "A" Squad

The 1949-50 hoop season didn't turn out the way everyone wanted it to, but our fighting Warriors can at least say one thing . . . they did give Corvallis, the team that all the basketball predictors said would be in Eugene when the state basketball tourney opened, quite a scare. The first time the two teams encountered, the Spartans were able to just squeeze by our Warriors by a two point margin. Our Lebanon basketeers found th victory path a lot easier against the other teams in district seven play and managed to keep on the heels of the Spartans. As the district play was drawing to a close our Warriors had to play the lumber five from Sweet Home in a play-off game to decide which team would enter the district tournament at Corvallis. This game turned out to be the most thrill-packed game of the season with Sweet Home stopping a last minute rally of Lebanon to defeat our Warriors 50-48. This brought down the curtain on the '49-50 basketball season, with Corvallis taking the district crown.

There were many high-lights in the '49-50 season such as our Lebanon Warriors defeating the Roosevelt Roughriders, the defending state champions, one game out of a two-game series. Lebanon also added another feather to their cap by defeating the Sa'em Vikings, this year's state basketball champions, by a good margin.

With seven returning lettermen, Coach "Bud" Page and his boys are the team to beat in district seven next year. Flashy little guard, Bob Hinman, was a long-shot artist with Beck and Baker always strong on the backboard. Wayne Holzfluss, high scorer of the team, held down the pivot spot very capably. The two little squirts of the team were Johnny Stolsig and Ernie Kirkelie. Jimmy Whitmore and Jerry Hamilton will be back to take up where Gene Beck left off. Last, but not least, was Leonard Steckley, a capable pivot-man also. We are all very proud of what the boys did this year and we will be behind them again next year. Good going, fellas!

Basketball "B" Squad

At the opening of the basketball season, very little was expected of this year's "B" squad as there were none of last year's players returning. Undaunted by the dim prospects, they won fourteen games and lost nine of a twenty-three game schedule. The squad was made up for the most part of last year's ninth grade basketball team. Line-up for the season: Bill Andres, Dick Andres, Dean Beck, Richard Campbell, Jim Jacobson, Wayne Klavano, Doug Nesbitt, Darrell Richard, Dean Smith, Gene Stewart, and Carl Swanson.

The Braves opened their season against the Willamette High "B" squad at Eugene, losing by a score of 33-26. In a later game played with the same team the Braves swamped them 50-17. Among their string of scalps were victories over the Shedd "A" squad, the Albany "Pups," and the Salem "Bees." They lost to such teams as the Corvallis "B" squad and University High's "B" team.

The leading scorer for the season was guard Dean Smith with 158 points. Close behind and pushing all the way was Wayne Klavano, another guard, scoring 146 counters. Among the other high scorers were Carl Swanson, 107, and Richard Campbell, 83, guard and forward.

Next year should see some of these boys on the "A" squad to fill the gaps left by senior graduation. Experience gained this year will make them top contenders. George Van Pelt coached the squad as he did last year.

8th Grade Basketball

This year's Eighth Grade Basketball team was coached by Lewis E. Clark. The ball club may not sound like an important one but all the experience gathered by these boys while playing eighth and ninth grade ball will make better players for the future. This year's team consisted of eleven new boys who did not attend high school last year. Most of these fellows played ball for the school they last attended. These boys were as follows: Guards, Dixon, Gamblin; center, Hasenyager; forwards, Rous, Stone. Substitutes were Johnson, Christensen, Siegner, Kirkelie, Griffith, and Flagel.

coaches Lewis Clark and Earl Gerfan drew up plans for an eighth grade tournament which was held in Lebanon. This was to earn money for the track and baseball teams as these clubs had no way of making money to buy the new equipment which both clubs needed very badly. A trophy was awarded to the winning team. Lebanon copped this trophy by defeating Albany in the final game. The tournament, which lasted three days, was a success.

This year's eighth grade team is one which will really develop in future years and will be one of which all Lebanon can be proud. These boys are really looking forward to playing "B" squad and varsity ball.

Wrestling

Wrestling, the newest addition to Lebanon's athletic division, was coached by assistant football coach, Murle Wells, who lettered in wrestling two years at the University of Nebraska. For the first year of this sport, Lebanon has a record of which any school could be proud, sending six boys to the state wrestling tournament. The boys that qualified in "50" district and state competition were J. C. Thorpe, Floyd Barney, Burney Hodges, John Canaga, Dick Duncan, and Willard Carper. No one took first place, but two received seconds, two took fourth, and one, third. There was a very fine turnout throughout the entire season of approximately 25 to 30 boys. The boys who went to the state meet in Corvallis lost out in the first round.

The wrestling squad had four dual meets with other schools and next year they expect to increase the number to ten.

The boys who earned their letters this year were: J. C. Thorpe, freshman; Donald Brown, sophomore; Roy Wilbur, sophomore; Burney Hodges, junior; Roland Wilson, sophomore; Ronald VanVleet, senior; Jim Price, sophomore; Dick Lewis, junior; Floyd Barney, Junior; Donald Shaffer, sophomore; John Canaga, senior; Willard Carper, senior; Dick Duncan, senior. With the exception of the four seniors, all of these lettermen will return.

The wrestling squad competed against only two schools this year. These were Albany and Jefferson, with two matches with each school. Lebanon lost both matches to Albany but split the pair with Jefferson. Next year the wrestling squad will try to schedule matches with Salem, Dallas, Albany, Jefferson and possibly others.

Track

Astonishing things on the cinder paths. . . .

Perhaps the best balanced team Lebanon has had in recent years . . . placed second in the Corvallis relays and the Willamette League meet.

Several of the boys were outstanding . . . Duncan was chief weight man . . . shot put and discus were his event, setting new school records in each. Miller backed up Duncan in the discus. Kirkelie showed continuous improvement in the half-mile . . . Goodwin ran the mile . . . Carlson hopped over the hurdle, backed up by Nesbitt . . . McKean, Drapela, Young and Whitmore were the speed boys, McKean showing well in both 100 and 220 yard dashes. Gilbert ran the 440 and also broad-jumped . . . one of he most outstanding members of the squad was Co-Captain Lloyd Glaus, who consistently won the pole vault and high jump. The loss of Co-Captain Dale Pracht due to a broken leg, was definitely felt in the dashes . . . Temple, Jim Glaus, LaFond, Barry, Richards showed promise for future years.

Duncan and Gilbert qualified for the state track meet which was held May 19 and 20 at Corvallis.

Baseball

Under the capable coaching of Lewis Clark, the Lebanon nine had a so-so season as far as their record of wins and losses, but a very successful season in experience gained.

Despite intruding weather, Lebanon compiled a record of five wins and six losses for an average year; but these games uncovered such players as Dick Schaefer and Carl Swanson, and gave us a good outlook for the next year's squad.

Our batteries consisted of Rod Bean, Pat Parsons, Bill Baker, Richard Campbell, and Dave Brown, transfer and only senior hurler. On the receiving end we found sophomore Johnny Stolsig, who played inspiring ball behind the plate.

Much of our batting excellence was supplied by co-captains, Gene Beck and Glenn Spence, scrappy Dick Schaefer and long-ball-hitting Tom Summers.

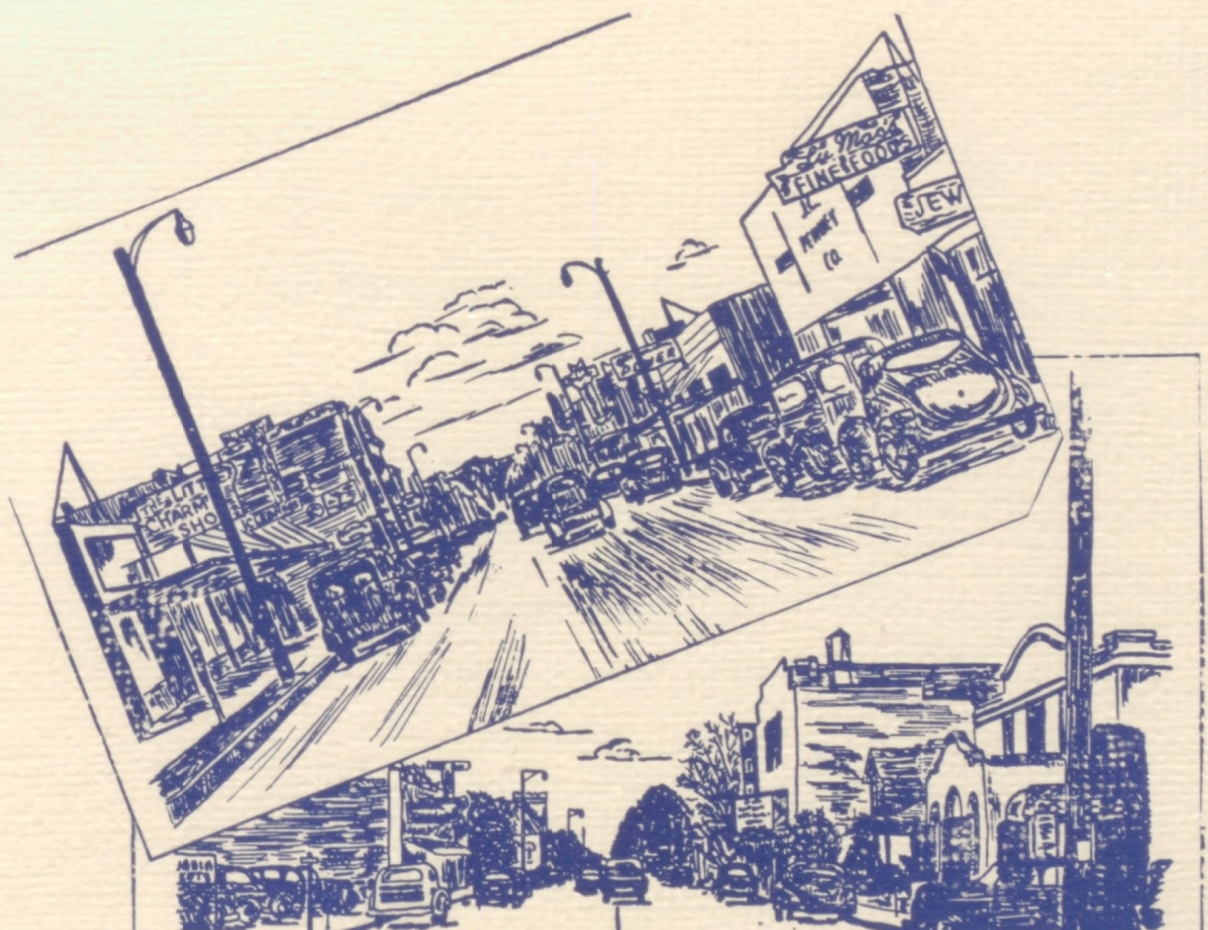

We must not forget our energetic managers, Jerry (Flash) Simi, Dick (always ready) Zurcher, and last but not least, Christy (Pepper) Mesmer. These boys did a fine job and deserve much credit.

The annual Booth Outstanding Player award was presented to Gene Beck, flawless first baseman, and capable leader. "Congratulations, Gene!"
