THE WARRIOR OF LONG AGO

FROM WHOM WE RECEIVE OUR RICH AND EVERLASTING WARRIOR HERITAGE

INTRODUCTION - - - - - 1

Our Warrior Heritage, honorable and everlasting, is found all around us. We find the ancient Warrior teaching us of the past, guiding us through the present and leading us to the challenge of the future. He affects everything we say, write, or do at Lebanon Union High School.

SCHOOL WORK - - - - - 11

The Warrior of long ago teaches us the virtues of diligence, hard work, study, and obedience. Here, as in the days of years gone by, we honor our teachers and administrators who promote these qualities in each and every one of us.

SCHOOL LIFE - - - - - 27

We are fortunate to receive such a rich heritage from the life of the ancient Warrior. His ceremonies, dances, hobbies, and council meetings carry over to our present day calendar crammed with social events and club activities.

ATHLETICS - - - - - 103

Though the Warrior of long ago has given our athletes his great strength, tremendous endurance, and agile speed, he has also taught us of the importance of teamwork and fair play in our sports.

CLASSES - - - - - 135

We also receive from the ancient Warrior a class heritage. The different stages of life found in his life are not unlike the four different classes which we have at L.U.H.S.

ADVERTISEMENTS - - - - - 191

Though we no longer buy horses with seashells as the Warrior of long ago did, we still learn from him the value of trade and industry. The advertising section exemplifies our knowledge of this.

ALMA MATER

We sing the praise of Lebanon High School
The place we hold so dear.
Her faculty and students
All hail the Warriors bold.
To thee we raise our colors high,
To thee we sing of praise,

For once again we see her glory
In her valiant sons,
In the halls and on the fields,
Tradition keep us true.
All hail to thee our Alma Mater,
Colors crimson and blue.

LIBERTY BELL

The liberty bell hung in the cupola above the old Santiam Academy and was brought around Cape Horn in 1862. It was used to call students of the Academy to classes for many years and it tolled the death of Abraham Lincoln in 1865. When the Academy was torn down in 1936, the bell hung in the old high school building. It was then used to announce victories of sports events and became known as the Victory Bell. During the remodeling of the high school building, the bell was stored in the machine shop. It remained silent for several years until the Hi-Y sponsored many different activities to collect money to put the bell on wheels so it could be heard again.

GUIDES US THROUGH OUR DAILY LIVES

Among the more important aspects of a typical student's day at L.U.H.S. is the apple machine, the snack-bar and the cafeteria, and the suicide corner rush. The biggest "rush" area is suicide corner. At this corner as many as 184 students pass through the corner in one minute. On the following pages we will show you these popular areas in our school. We must always remember with fond memories the rush for the snack bar, the slugs we collected from the apple machine and the salt we "borrowed" from the cafeteria.

SCHOOL WORK

In the tribe of the ancient Warrior it was necessary to have strong and able teachers to guide and instruct the young braves. Likewise in our school today we find a capable and efficient faculty and administration. They are ready to help us explore the various fields of study offered at L.U.H.S. This is our school work heritage we receive from the ancient Warrior.

The end of another school year has many meanings for all concerned. All factors definitely point to the increasing importance and value of education for effective personal living and citizenship now and in the future.

Graduating seniors may be encouraged by the thought and increasing evidence that in the realm of human endeavor "there is not a single thing finished." New and presently unknown opportunities and challenges are just ahead. The decisions that each young person makes now are crucial determiners for his future.

May I especially encourage each of you, graduating seniors and underclassmen, to stay in school and pursue further education and training.

I take particular pleasure in sharing these proud moments with you. Congratulations and best wishes!

GEORGE M. HENDERSON, Ed.D.
Assistant Superintendent

Congratulations to the class of 1964. It is with sincere pride and pleasure that I reflect on your many evidences of outstanding achievement during your years at Lebanon Union High School.

As you glory in your accomplishments and honors, be ever mindful of the excellent educational opportunities provided for you by this community and which are possible only in the free country of the United States of America.

The fact that you have been the recipients of this educational program carries with it certain responsibilities, obligations and duties. Knowledge and understanding of the facts underlying the problems of citizenship, attitudes of loyalty to American ideals, skills in thinking and problem solving, and practiced ability in working with others for the general welfare are all needed to face the urgent problem of American citizenship.

It is our sincere hope that your school has adequately prepared you and we wish you well in your future.

J. W. KING
Superintendent

To the Students of Lebanon Union High School:

It is with sincere praise that I offer my congratulations to the Class of 1964 for being awarded a certificate of graduation from Lebanon Union High School. This is more than a mere certificate of attendance—it is an honor you have attained through your own efforts and represents twelve years of study and work to better enable you to take your rightful place in society. I can say without any hesitation that future of our Nation will be in good hands because you have already displayed to us the ability to think clearly, wisely and objectively. I want to offer my best wishes for your future success in whatever your line of endeavor may be. Your school stands ready to assist you in any way we can and we would be humbly proud to continue serving you.

This has been a successful year in every way and credit for this must be rightfully placed. You, the students of L.U.H.S., are the ones who are responsible for the success of your school. You can point with pride to the success of the non-supervised halls and cafeteria — a program you have handled with great success. Your willingness to assume responsibility and promote self-discipline has been a real step forward for you and our school. I can say with great pride that because of you we have the best school in the State and this tradition of excellence has always been a paramount factor in our being recognized as a leader among the schools in Oregon. Your Principal sincerely appreciates your cooperation and spirit and may the future years find you enjoying the same enriched and useful attitudes toward life. Good luck and my best wishes for future happiness for each of you.

Sincerely,

The life of the Warrior of long ago was full of outings, council meetings, festivals and traditional ceremonies. Likewise the present day Warriors of L.U.H.S. find their days replete with club meetings, dances, class projects, club activities, and traditional ceremonies. The busy and enjoyable school life that we receive from the ancient Warrior is also a part of our Warrior Heritage.

BACK WE CAME

The oppressive heat of "Indian Summer" was still with us as we abandoned the pleasures of swimming, late sleeping, and bean picking to begin another school year. We were perplexed by schedule changes and conflicts, annoyed by the heat, and burdened with school work; but things began to look better as we found new friends, mustered up high school spirit, and watched the thrill and excitement of our first home game. Our greatest daily challenge seemed to be if we could all get to classes on time after squeezing our way through "suicide corner".

Sharon Gilliam

It was with great pleasure that I welcomed each of you students back for another year here at Lebanon Union High School. I have seen you prove yourself to be one of the finest student groups I have ever seen. You have been consistently high in academic, athletic, and social achievements and it is with great pride that I can say I was your leader for the first semester of school.

BODY OFFICERS WELCOMED US

VIC BARTRUFF
President
Second Semester

Leslie Reeves
Treasurer

The 1963-64 school year will soon come to an end. Through the year we have seen L.U.H.S. grow and prosper in the classrooms, in the halls, and on the fields. Our athletic teams did well this year, our club activities brought high honors to our school, and our students themselves have proven themselves to be mature, responsible, adult individuals during each day of school.

The Associated Student Body President is only as effective as the support and cooperation given by the student body. With your help we have made this year a success.

"So this is where we put our apple cores", exclaims Jim Mangan as Jill Gentry shows him around the school building.

One September morning the halls of L.U.H.S. were invaded by a strange flock of hideous creatures. Hundreds of them swarmed through the main hall and barged into the classrooms. Weird chants spewed from their mouths. "Hail mighty Seniors" poured forth and resounded in our ears. It was a dreadful morning.

The creatures themselves were quite hideous. They had dank stringy hair full of egg whites, dirty faces accented by red eyes and noses, and hairy legs with nylon stockings. Their clothes became soiled from crawling on the floor. They looked like the bottom of a garbage can.

The Seniors seemed to handle the animals well. The little creatures were seen scurrying about, carrying out orders given them by Seniors. Halls were tidied up, shoes were shined, songs were sung, and the Seniors' books were carried to class.

An assembly was scheduled for the afternoon. The Seniors flaunted their power on the little things without mercy. Finally at the conclusion of the assembly Mr. Page brought all enigmas to light. The ugly little things were actually the incoming freshmen for this school year. We now accept them as such and no longer call them "poor rooks".

A WEIRD NEW CREATURE

Oh, the life of a lowly Rook. He did push ups, jumping jacks, and ran around the gym. He sang the school song until "L.H.S. we will be true to you" was the only English phrase he knew. He was forced to listen to a very mushy love letter. Smelling that horrible limburger cheese was about all he could take. After such an ordeal, any rook is glad to have a rest as Bob Gentner will attest.

INVADED OUR HALLS

The Bilyeu twins, Don and Dale, took an active part in the clean up campaign avidly supported by the Seniors. Here they help to clear litter from the gym floor.

. . . . ,94 . . . 7,9854 . . . 7,986 . . . One lowly freshman finds out that being a rook isn't so easy after all.

HOMECOMING

BY THE POWER VESTED
 IN ME, I CROWN YOU
 QUEEN JUDY II

As a red glow slowly faded in the western sky, school spirited Warriors began to rally for the serpentine. Marching, clapping, singing, and chanting the processional of boisterous students weaved its way through town. Upon reaching its destination, Lebanon Union High School, the night grew cold and dark and spirit began to boil.

The game against Albany was fought with fang and claw. The Warriors on the gridiron seemed especially hard-hitting and fast moving on this night. Alumni, guests, students, and yell leaders enthusiastically cheered the team on. At half time the score was six to nothing our favor. Nothing could satisfy but victory.

Our beauties went on parade. Their sporty little cars, driven by escorts, graciously transported the beaming beauties to the football field. Steve Woods, Master of Ceremonies, smoothly handled the crowning of "Queen Judy II", queen of the 1963 homecoming festivities.

Nerve gnarling describes the last half of the football game. Lebanon succeeded in making another touchdown while Albany still lagged. We held our breath in the last few seconds of play as Roger Clark booted in an extra point. The final score: Lebanon 13, Albany 0.

Following such a game we were all glad to relax in the cafeteria. Here we had a swinging time at the victory dance and enjoyed talking to alumni in the Library.

Our days were brightened and freed from monotony when an assembly was scheduled. The national assemblies were educational as well as inspiring. We will always remember the fine piano exhibition given in the auditorium which was very beautiful. Mrs. Jean Kauanui held our undivided attention while she told us of underwater adventures that a skin-diver experiences.

THE ASSEMBLIES

WERE EDUCATING AND INSPIRING

Seniors wait patiently until all the underclassmen have filed in. The overcrowding of our school this year became apparent when an assembly was scheduled. Hundreds of underclassmen were forced to stand during the assemblies.

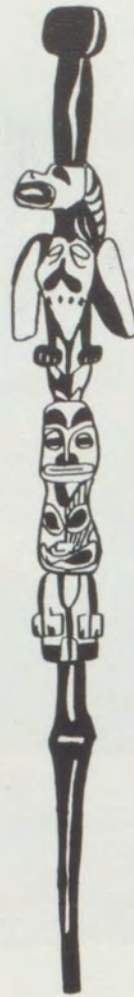

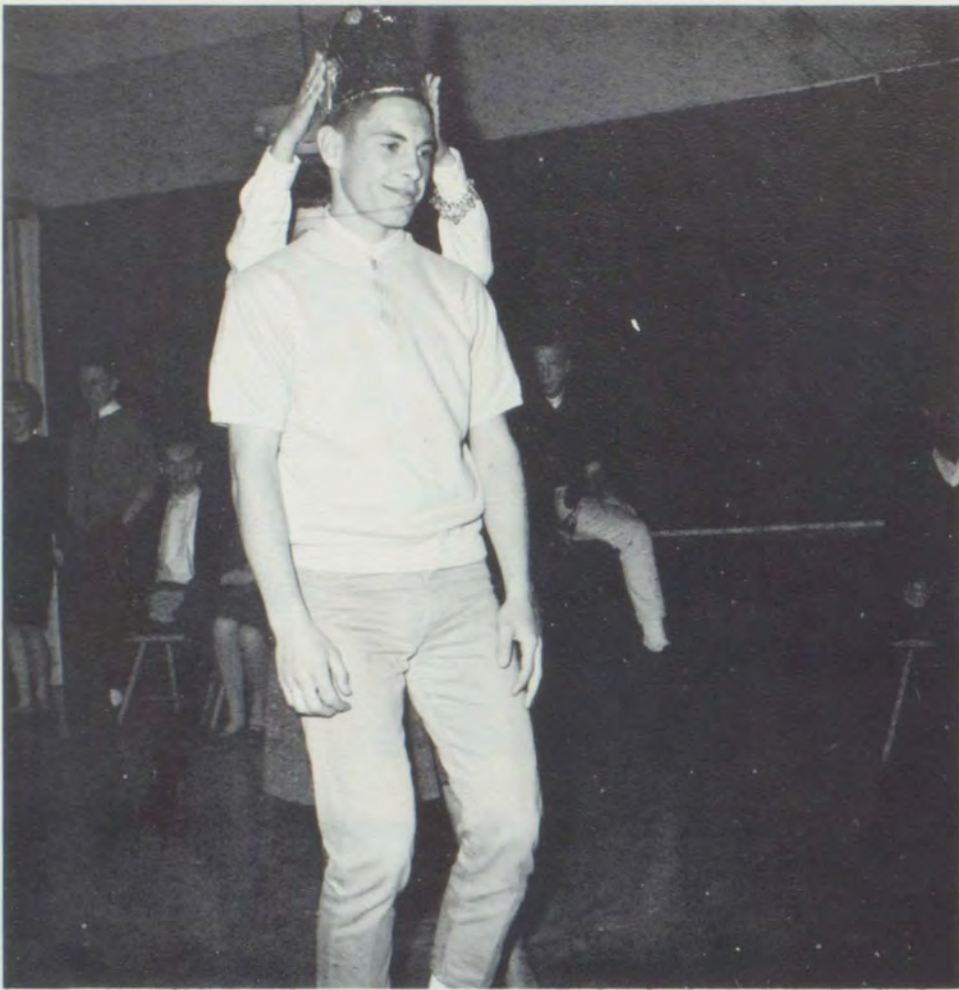

Molly Morgan is one of the most fascinating heroines ever created by one of America's greatest writers, John Steinbeck. This is the story of a young teacher whose job affects her own life, the lives of those around her and, in particular, the life of the man she loves. Above are Molly's students.

AS WELL AS ENTERTAINING

"Please stay, father" pleads Molly Morgan (Kay Johannsen) to Jake (Ernie Ross). Mr. and Mrs. Whiteside (at left) played by Greg Gourley and Jeanne Stryker help Molly in "facin' the truth".

A shy maiden ducks behind Prince Charming, Delbert Spiker, and his tin foil crown. (above) (Below) Bill LeFors and Linda Drew waltz to the juke box musicians.

ONCE UPON A TIME THERE WAS TWIRP WEEK

Once upon a time there was twirp week. Our story begins in the Emerald City of Oz. The blue Freshmen, the yellow Sophomores, the red Juniors and the emerald Seniors made L.H.S. truly seem like somewhere over the rainbow.

The Mad Hatter invited us to school Thursday as long as the girl and her date wore a bizarre millinery creation by Wonderland Inc.

Sleeping Beauty would have had no trouble waking up had she come from Lebanon. On Friday the girls imitated Sleeping Beauty by trying to remain completely silent all day. Whenever a girl broke the spell by talking to a boy she had to give him a hush card so that he wouldn't tell the wicked witch. The Girls' League soon sold hundreds of hush cards on this day to our loquacious lovelies.

That night at the Elk's dance we found our Prince Charming to be none other than Delbert Spiker who, as usual, had the girls talking to him all day and received the most cards. Anyway we will happily remember this week ever after.

ENDING HAPPILY EVER AFTER

Stan Livingston and Cheryl Drew wait on the dance floor for the next song. The pleasant atmosphere provided at the Elks' lodge made the evening exceedingly enjoyable for us.

ICE PALACE

THE WINTER FORMAL GLISTENED

Jack McCown and Karen Dillard sit among some of the many fountains and trees which adorned the corners and walls of the cafeteria. The sparkling water and glistening trees provided a pleasant spot to wait between dances.

While Sharon Gilliam listens attentively, Roger Clark explains to her his new and efficient methods of "borrowing" Christmas trees. "All you need," he says, "is a saw for cutting and a pickup truck for a fast get away."

LIKE A GLITTERING ICICLE

SPIRIT WAS HIGH PITCHED

Spirit reached a high pitch on the night of the Jamboree. Hundreds of L.U.H.S. students swarmed into the gym of Albany High School on this eventful night. We soon found that we would be playing with Albany against Corvallis and Sweet Home. The basketball players fought hard and long to gain a victory over the other two schools. At half time the highlight of the evening commenced. Each school presented its long practiced Jamboree Yell. Our own yell leaders had practiced long and hard on our yell. They danced to night-train spelling out LEBANON at the climax of the yell the girls walked up in the pep club and ended the yell with a large shout. The results of the judging found our yell leaders on the top of the totem pole with a second straight win. The success of the basketball team and the cheerleaders will always be a highlight in our memories of Jamborees.

WE ELECTED OUR GOOD CITIZEN...

AND HONORED OUR "BRAINS"

Late in the school year of 1962-63 a large group of Juniors assembled on the auditorium stage for the dreaded National Merit Scholarship Tests. Dreaded not because of the consequence of not passing but dreaded because of the brains required to get anything out of them. It was strictly volunteer and the mass of Juniors was ready for a full day of grueling examination. This year we found that some of them actually did pretty well. In fact, five Seniors received letters of commendation from the NMS Board. Willa Bowman was honored with a semi-finalist position, about as high as any Lebanon student has ever attained. The fine intellectual achievements of these Lebanon students reflect the high academic standards which we achieve here in our high school.

Semi-Finalist

THE CHOIR WISHED US A MERRY CHRISTMAS

Mrs. Dimmitt successfully conducts the choir through a beautiful, moving arrangement of Alleluia which seems to highlight our memories of the Christmas assembly.

Sheri Daily and Jodene Schenbeck dressed in black skirts and tights see to fit their beatnick parts perfectly. They aroused our spirit with a slinky jazz dance and perky patter.

When pep assemblies were scheduled we could be sure that the cheerleaders would have a clever skit devised to entertain us as well as get us in the mood for supporting the team. One specially enjoyable assembly was the one in which the cheerleaders started at the dawn of time, below with Pynne and Betty, proceeded to the roaring twenties, at right with Micki, and ended in the sixties (above). Each era perked our peppiness for the coming basketball game.

The Girls' League presented an enjoyable and memorable formal for L.U.H.S. in February. By special request the Paul Lawrence Trio from the University of Oregon provided us with many hours of modern music. Shortly after a countdown we watched the crowning of beautiful Carol Fetter who was elected by popular vote to reign over the jet age formal. After the crowning, each lovely princess waltzed with her date by the superb decorations depicting outer space scenes. The radiant princesses, the exquisite decorations, and the delightful music provided us with a stable launching pad for our memories of the formal "A Vision of Venus".

SUMMER VACATIONS WERE PLANNED

Robert Louis Stevenson once said "There is no foreign land; it is the traveler who is foreign." In order to erase such conditions which are existent in the world today, Lebanon Union High School participates in the American Field Service Program. Under this plan the school has the honor of sending one of its students abroad. In return a student from a foreign country attends school here for nine months.

This year the American Field Service Committee in Lebanon chose Willa Bowman, Becky Woods, Cheryl Copeland and Darlene Downing as semi-finalists. From this group Cheryl Copeland was chosen to go to Heidi, Germany; Willa Bowman was chosen as a finalist to spend the coming school year in some other country. In order for these people to apply for the program, they have to be superior in physical fitness, scholarship, language aptitude, and personality.

A WINTER JOURNEY ENDED

I remember the day that classes began. I found myself completely disorientated. I had just arrived; I didn't know English, but I found help (as I have had it everywhere since I entered the United States) to overcome all the difficulties that presented themselves to me. Since that day I have realized the great purpose which that trip signifies and that it is only to attempt to bind relations between the countries of the world. For that reason, I resolved to render the most that I could. I feel I gave the best of myself—but even better was what I received.

I have had countless experiences, acquaintances—in short, I couldn't explain to you how much knowledge I have acquired.

Moreover, over the course of the months, I have grown to appreciate the people here. I think having to depart is the major problem for every cultural exchange student.

I shall always have present in my memories the vivid picture of this wonderful world in which I have taken a part, which I have learned to love and which I must leave behind.

Thank you very much and good-bye.

PRESENTS

HAY FEVER

By NOEL COWARD

The guests soon became bewildered and perplexed over the Bohemian family's misadventures and soon planned a morning get away. Sandy, played Ernie Ross, offers his car. Myra, played by Janice Bird cares little how she leaves as long as it's as soon as possible. Jackie, played by Lois Courtney, listens to Clara, Christine Hickey, as the pert maid tell when the next train leaves. Richard, played by Mark Larsen, agrees with Myra to get away fast.

HAY FEVER HAD US SNEEZING WITH LAUGHTER...

After long hours of practice and preparation for Hay Fever, the cast and crew found they had completed one of the most successful comedies ever produced at Lebanon. The difficult characterization, unusual exaggeration of character, and foreign accent proved to be quite a challenge to the cast which was smaller than usual this spring. The special effects and difficult set proved quite a headache to even Lebanon's efficient crew, but all problems were soon ironed out for an uproarious performance.

The morning after a dreadful day with their guests finds the Blisses typically lounging around the breakfast table. Simon, played by Terry Kester, looks bored. Judith, played by Jeannie Stryker, is still unsatisfied with Sorel's attitude. Sorel, played by Janet Lohr, is pleased with the way David, played by Eric Chandler, is progressing with his latest novel. They soon plunge into a violent argument over the wording in David's manuscript.

It was really something to have a couple of national ping pong champions at Lebanon High. The pair displayed great skill in demonstrating to us the fun you can have with ping pong. When they asked Liz Dodson and Ernie Woods to come down and show us some more pingpong we really had fun. At left we find Liz has just won the above game against Ernie and the player at right.

AND WE CHUCKLED AT MORE NATIONAL ASSEMBLIES

One of the most memorable assemblies which we have enjoyed was the one in which Mr. Zina Klinker told us of the history of airplanes. He once wrote the jokes for Charlie McCarthy and displayed the same quick humor in telling us of aeronautics. One of his many hobbies is collecting old films of airplanes. The whole assembly was one long movie of cuts from various newsreels and films which he has collected; it was very educational.

The hectic week of campaigning for Student Body Officers for next year was soon upon us. After many brilliant and amusing speeches by each candidate and campaign manager the myriad of posters was soon put up. Each poster was a cleverly designed piece of propoganda which attempted to sway voters to a certain vote. The senior boys at left seem undaunted by the mass of posters which hung around "their" corner of the main lobby. Micki Underwood also inspects one on her way to her locker. It was good fun for all.

Even Mr. Richey got into the act at the dance.

Towards the end of the year came the annual beachcombers day. At this time the students of L.U.H.S. came to school dressed the way no other educational institution would dare. Shorts, capris, shifts, and bermudas seemed to be the order of the day. Of course when such dress is worn there is a high degree of excitement and the educational process seemed to be a little slow today. During the day it was most fun to see the students and what they were wearing. That night in the cafeteria we enjoyed a dance with records. The day was if nothing else quite different for us and fun for all.

The student council consists of the executive officers of the student body, the representatives of each class, the president of Girls' and Boys' League and the representatives of the Inter-Activity Council. Its purpose is to execute the wishes of the students, to represent them in all matters of student concern and to assist the administration in determining school policies.

The 1963-1964 student council first formulated a committee to check on student attendance at the assemblies. Also, each month students were appointed to fill out evaluation sheets to help evaluate the assemblies for their worth and audience reaction.

The balance of the money, donated through I.A.C. to the Whitehill fund for an Albany athlete, was donated by student council; a check was sent for the total sum. The students were asked to bring toys for the Christmas project to help the children in the area. The toys were then taken to the Willamette Valley Rehabilitation Center.

An experimental program of students giving the morning and afternoon announcements was put into effect. It was hoped that this might better receive the attention of the students.

Further plans were made to continue student activities.

The Inter-Activity Council consists of the presidents or representatives of each of the school's twenty-four clubs. Its purpose is to discuss school problems and to consider suggestions and grievances presented by the clubs.

The IAC is a very powerful and important organization in that it has indirect control over the fifty per cent of the student body belonging to clubs. It is through IAC that major school problems are brought to the attention of the students and the role of student responsibility is strengthened.

The council has participated in several activities this year which have aided the improvement of school affairs. A clean-up campaign and concession stand probation period were instigated early in the year to insure neat halls and lockers. This problem has remained under the continual surveillance of the council. The idea of announcements given by students originated in IAC with occasional student appeals concerning such things as clean-up campaigns and hall discipline. At the present time, all announcements are given by members of the student body. The plan of contributing to the Whitehill fund also originated in IAC, and proved to be a very rewarding project.

There are certain duties about school which are the sole responsibility of the IAC. The Firesquad, working through IAC, annually paints dividing lines in the student parking lot. The Council is in charge of buying records and providing music for dances and during lunch hour. A music committee has been chosen from IAC members specifically for this purpose. In addition to attending to its own duties, the council often makes recommendations to Student Council concerning basic school policies.

Under the able leadership of Steve Simpson and the guidance of Mr. Page, the Inter-Activity Council has accomplished much for the improvement of school affairs.

The Santiam chapter of the National Honor Society began the year with a conference at the University of Oregon. Our first important school event was the tapping of new members. They were presented with the traditional corsages and boutonnières. The annual candlelight installation was held in November. Parents and guests attended the installation. Dr. Nickerson was the guest speaker.

For our service project the members of Honor Society have proposed working during study halls with the retarded learners' class at Cascades School. This project was fully explained to the members by Mrs. Doak, who is in charge of the Cascades program.

Other activities included a Teacher Appreciation Day, Upper Ten Per Cent Dessert, ushering at baccalaureate and commencement, and a senior field trip to Portland.

Spring conference is planned for the University of Oregon in late April or early May. It will include forms of the campus and discussions on current affairs.

The founders of this school organization established the National Honor Society for the purpose of stimulating high scholarship, constructive leadership, purposeful service, and worthy character of students in secondary schools of this country.

The purpose of the Letterman's Club is to help supervise school activities. Our advisor is Mr. Weisbrodt, who is assisted by all the athletic coaches of the school.

Our duties of this year follow the same pattern as before. With the coming of the football season, all Lettermen were expected to help with the parking of cars at all home games. Also, throughout the year, the senior Lettermen manage the seating of all students for assemblies.

One of the main highlights of the year comes shortly before the close of the school year. It is known as the Honor Assembly. This is when the Lettermen of this year receive their letters and pins.

The Letterman's Club has a large membership. After earning a letter each boy must be voted into Letterman's Club by a two-thirds majority. Initiation is usually held later in the year.

International Relations League is a service organization and is open to all who wish to join. The purpose is to study international relations, to try to understand the world's situation today, and to promote better understanding of international affairs in our school and community.

During the year we have had various activities and projects. A few of them are: UN Banquet, Christmas Party, contribution to CARE, sponsorship of a Korean orphan under the Foster Parent Plan, contribution to the American Field Service and exchange meetings with other clubs. The highlight of the year was the State Conference held in Eugene. This year we represented France as a member of the Common Market.

Throughout the year we have also had various fund raising projects. We received money from a cider squeeze, an after game dance, the concession stand, a candy sale, the sale of plastic book covers, and the sale of plastic raincoats.

We would like to express our deep appreciation and gratitude to our advisors, Mr. Gerfen and Mr. Bennett, who have worked so hard and served as inspirations to us all.

Thespians is an organization designed to promote the interest of dramatics in the secondary school. The members of Troupe 1021 feel that this year has been an exciting and rewarding one in the field of dramatics.

Our activities began with the Fall play, "Molly Morgan" by John Steinbeck. It was a simple, charming tale about a small-town school-teacher in the 1920's.

In January six of our members along with our advisor, Mr. Burtner, attended the Thespian Conference at the University of Portland. Each participated by reading a selection of prose, poetry, and a play cutting. Workshops were held on various aspects of the theater, and special performances were put on for the Conference. This proved to be a valuable and enjoyable experience for all in attendance.

Our Spring play was unlike anything that L.U.H.S. has ever seen. Noel Coward's very British, very amusing "Hay Fever" was the title of this production. The story concerned a rather strange family, the Blissers. Each member of the family invited an equally strange guest down for the weekend. The complications which resulted proved to be quite humorous.

All in all, we feel we have accomplished a great deal this year in stimulating the interest of dramatics at L.U.H.S.

The Fire Squad is an organization that is in charge of maintaining the fire fighting equipment of the school. The duties of the members during a fire drill are to close all windows, turn off all lights, and direct traffic to the proper exits. In case of fire, the members in the vicinity of the fire will use the equipment at hand to extinguish the fire or hold it in check until the city fire department can arrive.

The Fire Squad is composed of junior and senior boys who are interested in fire prevention and whose academic standing is above average. Late in the spring, sophomore boys who are interested in the organization may obtain a petition from one of the members or the advisor of the organization. After processing the petitions for academic qualifications, the qualifying petitions are submitted to the organization for balloting. The candidates receiving the most votes are elected to fill the vacancies in the club.

Funds for the club are attained through the sale of programs at football and basketball games. The club also sponsored an after game dance in order to raise money.

The funds raised were used to buy pins for all the senior boys in the club. The remaining money is used at the discretion of the members.

We would like to thank our advisor, Mr. Weisbrodt, for a successful year.

The purpose of the Lebanon Hi-Y Club is "to create, maintain, and extend throughout the home, school, and community high standards of Christian character." The club operates on a four plank platform—clean speech, clean sportsmanship, clean scholarship, and clean living. The name Hi-Y stands for high school YMCA.

Membership is limited to 35 male students from the Lebanon Union High School from the upper three classes. All membership applicants' names are brought before the club and voted on. Presently, a point system is being developed. Under this system a member must attain a certain number of points in order to continue as an active member of the club.

Highlights of the year included working on the Heart Fund drive, and a swimming party at the Albany YMCA with the Tri-Y is now being planned. Hi-Y also furnished the Christmas tree in the main lobby of the building.

Hi-Y's advisor is Mr. Stoddard.

Tri-Y is a Christian youth organization, a branch of the Y.W.C.A., open for the membership of junior and senior girls. Each year the girls earn their pins and guards by participation in various club activities.

The series of projects began in October when an offering was collected for U.N.I.C.E.F. This was followed by the cleaning of trophies in November.

In December each girl brought a Christmas card for the nursing home to the traditional ceremonial meeting. At this time Miss Schiltz, our advisor, explained the significance of the shepherd's staff as a symbol of Christmas. The members decorated the Christmas tree in the main hall which was furnishing by Hi-Y.

For our money-making project we sponsored an after game dance in January. We then purchased an Oregon flag for the school.

At the February meeting Robin Johnson showed slides and talked to us about her trip to the U.N. last summer. Later on in the year Hugo Guardia spoke to us about his native country, Venezuela.

Our spring activities included a joint swimming party with Hi-Y, donating to the handicapped children's fund, decorating for the May Day dance, the Senior Farewell, and the Mother-Daughter Tea.

The A Capella Choir or Concert Choir, as it is more commonly known, is one of the largest clubs in school. Under the able direction of Mrs. Colleen Dimmitt, the choir has performed several times during the 1963-64 school year for school and public functions.

Membership into this combination class-club is really not too difficult. Usually, the members are promoted, after brief try-out, from the Girls' Glee and Chorus classes to Choir.

Highlights of the year include chronologically: The Mall Concert, the Christmas Concert, singing at the Easter Sunrise Service, Choral Clinic in Albany, the musical production of the "Real Ambassadors," and a few selections for Baccalaureate.

This is actually a "fun" club where everyone participating gets together and sings. Although it is fun, it is also hard work. Tempo, pitch, and dynamics are all strived for and through continuous practicing are achieved.

Choir is a relieving class. You might say it is "a break in the storm."

Band, the instrumental division of Lebanon High's music department, is a possible four-year elective course. It provides the opportunity for students to develop musical talent, self-expression and music appreciation through direct participation.

This year's activities have consisted of marching in parades and half-time shows, performing in concerts, and attending contests.

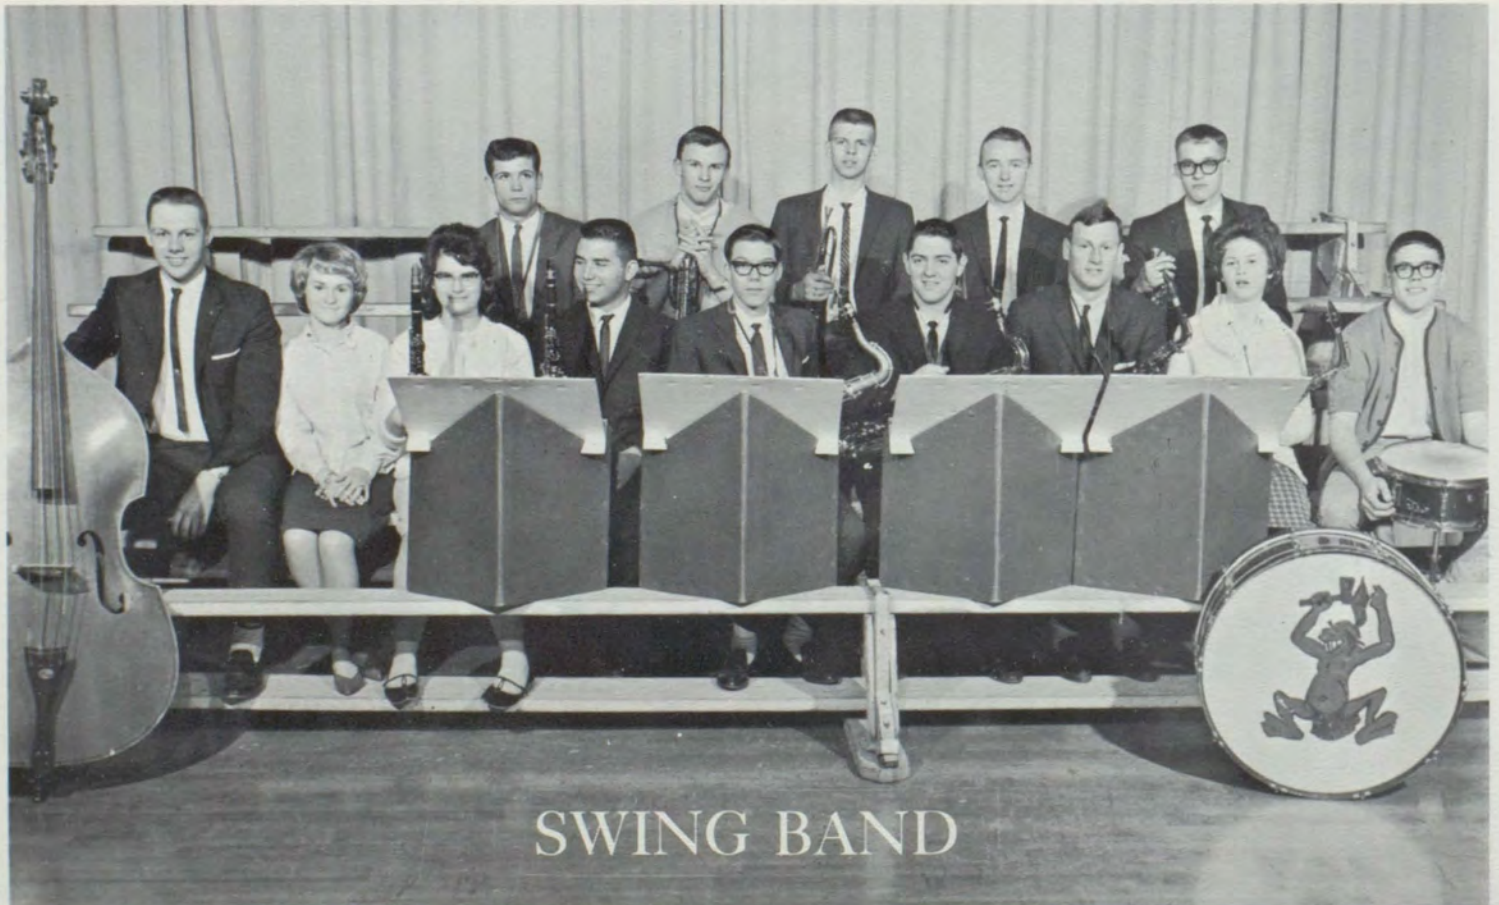

One of the highlights of the marching band was performing at the Oregon State-Stanford football game. We have also appeared in the Armistice Day Parade in Albany, the Scio Lamb Show, and the annual Lebanon Strawberry Festival Parade. The concert band jointly sponsored the Christmas concert with the choir, participated in the music festival with other schools, and played in the Spring concert.

Many small groups have become active this year and placed very well at the contest.

Swing Band is an extracurricular organization for band members. The group is formed each fall by members from band and Orchestra. All persons interested may come to practices. After they become familiar with the music, try-outs are held. The instructor draws the members into the group from these results.

Pep Band is the smallest and most versatile of all band organizations. The members of the Pep Band are also members of band. Each member volunteers his services in the group. Each member has a sweater and school letter which adds to the appearance of the group.

The Swing Choir of L.U.H.S. consists of fifteen members. Before acquiring membership, the candidates are to audition before the vocal instructor, Mrs. Colleen Dimmitt. Several combinations of voices are tried together until a certain blend is obtained. From this method, the members of Swing Choir are chosen.

The main objective of this musical club is to entertain. Many of the city clubs, churches, and banquets have requested Swing Choir services.

Music used is usually on the lighter side, such as the "jazzy" version of "My Bonnie Lies Over the Ocean," and several romantic melodies such as "Louise." The music is supplied by the vocal department of the school and both instructors and members relinquish their own time to rehearse these numbers, usually after school.

Our Swing Choir would be nothing without the air of perfection about the advisor, Mrs. Dimmitt. Her familiar, "Let's try it one more time," usually ends up being two or three more times, but this is only to Swing Choir's advantage. We are thankful to Mrs. Dimmitt for giving us a very happy and prosperous year.

The purpose of Spot Club is to acquaint its members with the retailing profession. This is accomplished through job training in the local community. We also become acquainted with the retailing professions through classroom study. During the year we cover four areas: salesmanship, merchandising, advertising, and display.

Membership in Spot Club is obtained by enrolling in the Distributive Education class. If the club members desire, we become members of DECO which is the Distributive Education Classes of America. Through these organizations we learn of other clubs' activities throughout our own state and in other states.

Activities this year included the DECO Convention held in Eugene. Members who attended the convention participated in various contests. These included sales demonstrations, window displays, poster contests, sales vocabulary and math tests, job interviews, speech contests and ad-layouts. Other activities during the year included our field trip to the Lloyd Center, the employer-employee banquet, awarding of the "Deserving Employer" award, and the D.E. student of the year award which was presented by the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

The library club has had an interesting and successful year under the guidance of Mrs. Jones. This club is composed of the past and present library science students.

Its chief purpose is to improve our school library. The work consists of processing new books, taking care of the circulation desk, overdue books and fines, and assisting students to locate material in the library. This proves to be a valuable experience.

This year we have taken some interesting field trips. We visited the libraries of Oregon State and the University of Oregon. We have also investigated two high school libraries; Stayton and Corvallis.

Our main project this year has been helping Mrs. Young with the grade school and junior high libraries. Other projects were mainly money making projects.

Two active senior members from our club will each receive a fifty-dollar scholarship to be used for books. We will also make a presentation to our library at the close of the year.

We would like to thank Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Keisling for their patience throughout the year.

The purpose of Machine Shop is to plan and promote better business practices and relations among the members.

The club finances are obtained through work done in the shop and different school activities.

The money that is earned helps to cover the expenses on field trips which are taken throughout the year. At the end of the year a scholarship will be given to someone who is going on into the machinist trade.

The Lebanon Machine Shop is one of the best equipped high school shops in the state of Oregon. The public is invited to visit the shops at any time during the school day.

We would like to thank our advisor, Mr. Larkin, and everyone who has helped to make this year a success.

Each day for the past year during seventh period, room 38, the buzzing sounds of such vital world issues as: What does L. B. J. really stand for? Which way do the stripes run on "Old Glory"? Does dog ear pulling deserve corporal punishment? Was there communist infiltration during the Civil War? Who really won at the battle of Little Big Horn? Resolved: the Federal Government should assure Spectrum to every citizen—come pouring across the vast stretch of empty hall. And to the twelve hard-working, industrious, outstandingly clever personalities who compose this vigorating new class taught by the only women Socrates of our time, Mrs. Donna Hughes, this is the only way to lose—with dignity. (HA!)

Our memories will be of Pacific University, Linfield College, Oregon State University, State, and our own contest May 2. Activities include oratory, debate, impromptu, interpretative reading, extemporaneous speaking, dinner speaking, and radio commentary.

During the year of 1963-64, Paletteers has had a large membership. Members of this club are generally people who enjoy art and enjoy putting it to a practical purpose. Paletteers made game posters, dance decorations, and crafts to sell at Christmas. These last can always be observed in the school office at Christmas time.

In May the club directs its efforts to the May Day celebration. This beautiful and colorful pageant is designed and decorated by Paletteer members.

Students do not have to be taking art to join this club. After twenty-five hours of service, pins are awarded, and bars for additional hours.

Throughout the year Paletteers received various commissions, such as the painting of the large partitions for the Sportsman's Cafe and making signs for the Bethlehem Lutheran Church. We have also worked on plays and class assemblies. We have been kept busy behind the scenes with the guidance of Mrs. Henderson.

The Lebonskis is an active group enjoying its second year as an organization at Lebanon Union High School. The purpose of the club is to promote skiing and an interest in skiing and physical fitness. Membership is obtained through a point system based on skiing and club activities.

Entertaining and educational ski films are shown by the club throughout the school year for any interested person. The club has furnished the library with ski books and magazines that are available for the entire student body.

This year Lebonskis has sponsored about ten bus trips to Hoodoo Ski Bowl. In March the initiation of new members was held at Hoodoo with initiates and some members following an exciting uphill-downhill-slalom course. All new members were awarded Lebonskis emblem patches. When possible, the group has a water-ski trip and picnic before the close of school.

Future Homemakers of America is a nationwide program designed to instruct girls in the field of homemaking. The Lebanon chapter has a membership of forty-four girls. Because of our large membership it was less difficult to take the responsibility of the District Meeting held in November. We had fifteen schools participating.

Each girl in F.H.A. tries to live up to the eight purposes, the first of which is to promote a growing appreciation of the joys and satisfaction of homemaking.

The symbol of F.H.A. is an eight-sided octagon with two hands holding the home of tomorrow. The club's flower is the red rose which symbolizes the search of Future Homemakers of America for beauty in everyday living.

F.H.A. week was particularly successful this year. Among the activities of the week, a red rose was placed on each teacher's desk and a large bouquet in the offices and library.

We have been under the supervision of Mrs. Olstad this year.

The purpose of the Girls' Athletic Association is to stimulate an active interest in girls' athletics and to teach girls sportsmanship, courtesy, how to get along with others, and to develop the playing ability of the individual in various sports.

To become a member, a girl must earn thirty-five points. She may earn them by participating in playdays and playnights, coming to meetings, and by participating in various sports.

The main activities of this year have been a candy sale, a car wash, an initiation, and a coast trip.

The members of Pep Club are known as the Warriorettes. The purpose of this organization is to create and lead the cheering at all school athletic events. It is also to raise the citizenship standard of the school even more. The girls teach yells to the student body at pep assemblies. This increases organized support. Members of the rally squad are also members of this club. This year's advisor has been Miss Rogers.

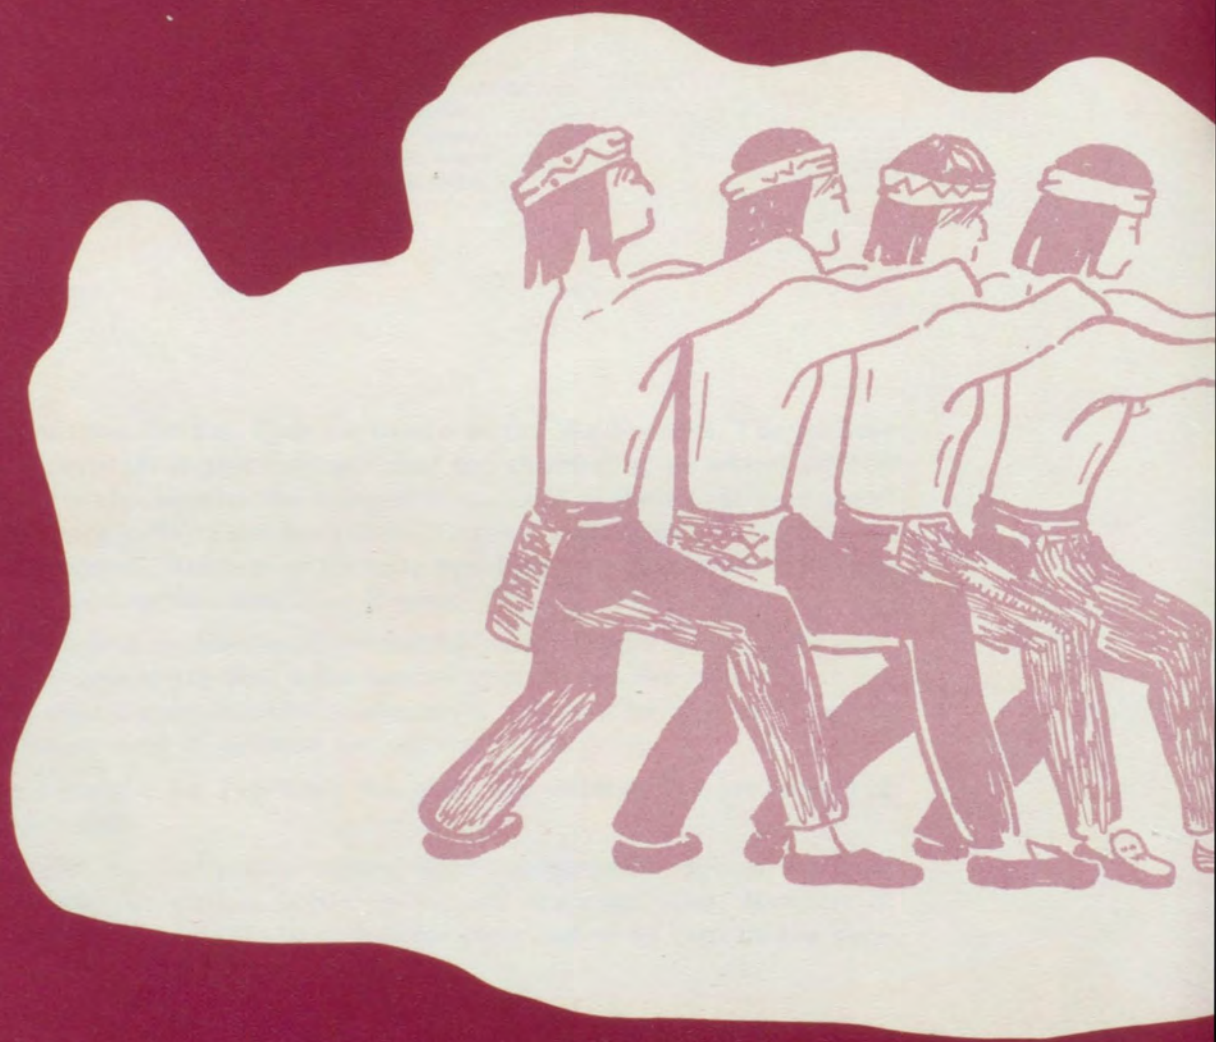

Girls wishing to join should contact the advisor in the spring of the year. Initiation is held at the first home football game of the next school year. A girl must meet a good standard scholastically and must be of good character. She is also required to purchase the uniform of the group.

The highlight for Pep Club this year was winning the jamboree yell trophy at Albany.

Pep Club has had several money making projects throughout the year. These include car washes, bottle drives, and rummage sales. Members of Pep Club bring sandwiches to each home game and serve them to the players following the game.

Coach Weisbrodt stands with his seven District placers. The Warriors went to State with just seven boys while North Salem, the District Champs, took 12. Lebanon wasn't expected to be in the top ten at any time, but all seven boys made it through the first round and all but one made it past the second round.

The Warriors took everyone by storm and ranged from first to third in the first two days standing. The grapplers ran into a little trouble and Steve Woods was the only boy to go into the finals.

CLASSES

Warriors of long ago were as divided into different classes or stages in life as we are today. In a typical village could be found the tiny wide eyed papoose, the cheerful young buck, the strong intelligent brave, and the wise, mature chieftans. Likewise our high school is divided this year into four classes: the Freshmen, the Sophomores, the Juniors, and the Seniors. This is our class heritage we receive from the ancient Warrior.

We, the class of '64 will soon be leaving, and with us we take many happy memories of our four years at L.U.H.S. New doors will now be opened to us and we must close these things behind us.

We wish to thank our advisors and teachers who have done so very much to help us through these years.

Sharon Gilliam was chosen to represent our class as Homecoming Princess. In February of our freshman year Leslie Reeves was the representative of our class on the Sweethearts Ball Court "Leprechaun Lane".

We had a great time putting on our first class assembly, the theme being that of the "Roaring Twenties". We gave it for the school in late winter.

Enthusiasm is a good adjective describing our sophomore year. We were quite young but eager to prove ourselves as good as the upper-classes. Our class officers for this year were: President Delbert Scott, Vice President Roger Clark, Secretary Sharon Gilliam, Treasurer Mollie Reeves, Sergeant at Arms Steve Simpson, and Representatives to Student Council were Jan Pearson, Linda Lenox, and Leslie Reeves. With the capable leadership of these energetic class officers we accomplished much during our sophomore year.

A peppy, pert, personality-plus yell squad for the J.V. teams for this year included Kay Johannsen, Jodene Schenbeck, Donna

Kindopp, Sheri Daily and Sharon Gilliam. These girls supplied the razz-ma-tazz necessary for a winning athletic team.

Other girls were also busy this year, the princesses. At homecoming pretty Leslie Reeves was our pick for princess. Linda Lenox was our choice for the princess at the stardust dance. One thing for sure, we were never at a loss for beautiful princesses.

Our winning class assembly for our sophomore year is one we will always remember. The theme for it was "Angel of Paradise", it told of the angel who showed a man the two places he could go if he died. The man would go to fire and brimstone if he just gave up but would journey to the land of contentment if he would strive to do his best in life. Our able assistance from our advisors determined much of our success in winning the assembly trophy.

This year was filled with the same events, the same accomplishments, the same happy moments, and the same ordeals as other years but they were special this year because they were ours.

As Juniors at L.U.H.S. we soon took on the responsibilities of "the working class". Our capable leaders for this eventful year were: President Philip Neal, Vice President Gary Crawford, Secretary-Treasurer Karen Mack, Sergeant-at-Arms Darryl Abbott, and the representatives to Student Council were Mark McPherson, Jim Rettinger, and Diana Tuma. With leaders such as these we easily bore the burden of increasing responsibilities which beset the busy Juniors.

Early in the year we began work on the homecoming float, our pretty princess, Marri Mangan, rode on a cute little Corvair and was showered with a bath of flood-lights which the clever juniors devised. When the Girls' League dance came our princess for this was Pat McAdams.

Though Juniors are, on the whole, bogged down with various responsibilities and duties we were also very well represented in the fields of sports, academics, and drama. Two active junior girls on rally were Jodene Schenbeck and Sheri Daily.

Once again we won the class assembly award for our presentation of a musical travelogue. Different scenes depicting different countries were the highlights of this entertaining and profitable hour. Though we were only co-winners of the trophy we like to think that we are undefeated for two years in a row.

The biggest event of the year, The Junior-Senior Prom, was very successfully presented by the working class with the theme being "Mississippi Memories". Gigantic romantic murals adorned the walls of the Elk's ballroom depicting southern scenes. The decorations were nothing short of fabulous with

Now that it is 1964 and time to graduate we can look back upon the past four years with many fond memories. This year has been our most active one yet as leaders in the school. Queen of Homecoming for this year was a pretty blonde, Judy Hedland and her Maid of Honor Barb Steele. The Queen of the Girls' League formal was Carol Fetter.

Varsity cheerleaders for this year are Jodene Schenbeck, queen, Sheri Daily, and Sandi Underwood. The boys, they were cheering, also did well in sports.

Our hopes rest with the class assembly trophy again this year. The theme for it was "Nonabel News" in which a staff of reporters covered the important events of this school year.

As the class of 1964 leaves Lebanon Union High School we would like to thank all our advisors and faculty members. They have helped to pave the way to our futures. We know the doors will always be open and the halls always filled with memories of the good times passed. The friendships will never be forgotten. The memories of these years will always have a place in our hearts.

ADVERTISEMENTS

When the white man first came to Oregon, he found a rich market in the Warriors' trade. Buying, selling, trading and bartering soon became a part of the Warriior's life. From the clever tradesmen we inherit shrewdness and honesty in the business world. And as such we use our knowledge in advertising for the Warrior.
