Physical description of property and statement of historical significance:

This is a one and a half story, Gothic Revival, T-shaped house with gable roofs and horizontal wood siding. The Norman Farmhouse style front porch, with its round-arched openings and a steeper roof, is a late addition. A single-light sash type window with a cornice is located in the gable end, with two more centered below. Others are distributed around the first floor. An interior brick chimney is located in the middle of the one-story wing.
